Crime, Fear and the Law in True Crime Stories Anita Biressi, 2001-06-26 Why do true crime stories exert such popular fascination What do they have to say about the fear of crime in the present moment This book examines the historical origins and development of true crime and its evolution into distinctive contemporary forms Embracing a range of non fiction accounts true crime book and magazines law and order television popular journalism it traces how they harness and explore current concerns about law and order crime and punishment and personal vulnerability Fear is a Killer William

Bankier, 1995 William Bankier is one of the most important writers of crime mystery fiction today He has been one of the most frequent contributors to Ellery Queen Mystery Magazine over the last two decades Fear is a Killer is Bankier s first collection of short fiction drawing together many of his finest works Stories of True Crime in Tudor and Stuart

England Ken MacMillan, 2015-03-27 Stories of True Crime in Tudor and Stuart England is an original collection of thirty stories of true crime during the period 1580 1700 Published in short books known as chapbooks these stories proliferated in early modern popular literature The chapbooks included in this collection describe serious horrifying and often deeply personal stories of murder and attempted murder infanticide suicide rape arson highway robbery petty treason and witchcraft These criminal cases reveal the fascinating complexities of early modern English society The vivid depictions of these stories were used by the English church and state to describe the proper boundaries of behaviour and the dangers that could result from the sins of avarice apathy vice or violence Readers will learn about the public interest and involvement in crime and punishment and the way the criminal justice system was used to correct and deter criminal activity and restore social boundaries such as rank gender family religion and physical boundaries of person and property Perfect for the student reader this collection provides guided access to these exciting sources Each transcription is modernized and annotated and is preceded by a brief discussion of key historical context and themes Including an introductory essay on the topic of the English criminal justice system in the early modern period as well as a glossary of key terms in English criminal law this is an ideal introduction for students of crime and criminal justice in England American Book Publishing Record , 1995

Doctor of Horror Graham Ingels, Al Feldstein, Ray Bradbury, 2018-10-31 This volume features Graham Ingels s earliest EC crime and horror work Highlights include Ingels s very first EC story a clever twist on The Cask of Amontillado that you won t see coming and more Murder Most Russian Louise McReynolds, 2012-12-15 How a society defines crimes and prosecutes criminals illuminates its cultural values social norms and political expectations In Murder Most Russian Louise McReynolds draws on a fascinating series of murders and subsequent trials that took place in the wake of the 1864 legal reforms enacted by Tsar Alexander II For the first time in Russian history the accused were placed in the hands of juries of common citizens in courtrooms that were open to the press Drawing on a wide array of sources McReynolds reconstructs murders that gripped Russian society from the case of Andrei Gilevich who advertised for a personal secretary and beheaded

the respondent as a way of perpetrating insurance fraud to the beating death of Marianna Time at the hands of two young aristocrats who hoped to steal her diamond earrings As McReynolds shows newspapers covered such trials extensively transforming the courtroom into the most public site in Russia for deliberation about legality and justice To understand the cultural and social consequences of murder in late imperial Russia she analyzes the discussions that arose among the emergent professional criminologists defense attorneys and expert forensic witnesses about what made a defendant s behavior criminal She also deftly connects real criminal trials to the burgeoning literary genre of crime fiction and fruitfully compares the Russian case to examples of crimes both from Western Europe and the United States in this period Murder Most Russian will appeal not only to readers interested in Russian culture and true crime but also to historians who study criminology urbanization the role of the social sciences in forging the modern state evolving notions of the self and the psyche the instability of gender norms and sensationalism in the modern media The Culture of Fear Barry

Glassner,2010-01-05 The bestselling book revealing why Americans are so fearful and why we fear the wrong things now updated for the age of Trump In the age of Trump our society is defined by fear Indeed three out of four Americans say they feel more fearful today than they did only a couple decades ago But are we living in exceptionally perilous times In his bestselling book The Culture of Fear sociologist Barry Glassner demonstrates that it is our perception of danger that has increased not the actual level of risk Glassner exposes the people and organizations that manipulate our perceptions and profit from our fears politicians who win elections by heightening concerns about crime and drug use even as rates for both are declining advocacy groups that raise money by exaggerating the prevalence of particular diseases TV shows that create a new scare every week to garner ratings Glassner spells out the prices we pay for social panics the huge sums of money that go to waste on unnecessary programs and products as well as time and energy spent worrying about our fears All the while we are distracted from the true threats from climate change to worsening inequality In this updated edition of a modern classic Glassner examines the current panics over vaccination and political correctness and reveals why Donald Trump s fearmongering is so dangerously effective The Crossroads of Crime Writing Meghan P. Nolan,Rebecca

Martin,2024-03-05 This volume argues that we must examine the boundaries in fiction and non fiction crime writing with an awareness of and turn toward the unseen structures and spatial uncertainties that so often lead to and reflect collective fears and anxieties Drawing upon the insights and expertise of an international array of scholars the chapters within explore the interplay of the literary historical social and cultural in various modes of crime writing from the 1890s to as recent as 2017 They examine unseen structures and uncertain spaces and simultaneously provide new insights into the works of iconic authors such as Christie and iconic fictional figures like Holmes as well as underexplored subjects including Ukrainian detective fiction of the Soviet period and crime writing by a Bengali police detective at the turn of the twentieth century The breadth of coverage of both time and place is an indicator of a text in which seasoned readers advanced students and academics will find new perspectives on crime writing employing theories of cultural memory and deep mapping

Imposition of Capital Punishment United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on the Judiciary, 1973 Murder Stories Paul Kaplan, 2012-01-18 Murder Stories engages with the current theoretical debate in death penalty research on the role of cultural commitments to American ideologies in the retention of capital punishment The central aim of the study is to illuminate the elusive yet powerful role of ideology in legal discourses Through analyzing the content and processes of death penalty narratives this research illuminates the covert life of the American Creed a nexus of ideologies liberty egalitarianism individualism populism and laissez faire said to be unique to the United States in the law Murder Stories draws on the entire record of California death sentence resulting trials from three large and diverse California counties for the years 1996 2004 as well as interviews with 26 capital caseworkers attorneys judges and investigators from the same counties Employing the theoretical framework proposed by Ewick and Silbey 1995 to study hegemonic and subversive narratives and also the ethnographic approach advocated by Amsterdam and Hertz 1992 to study the producers and processes of constructing legal narratives this book traces the ideological content carried within the stories told by everyday practitioners of capital punishment by investigating the content process and ideological implications of these narratives The central theoretical finding is that the narratives constructed by both prosecutors and defenders tend to instantiate rather than subvert the ideological tenets of the American Creed Crime Without Punishment Lawrence M. Friedman, 2018-05-31 Explores different examples of unpunished homicides and what these tell us about the interaction of law and society Pee Wee Serial Killer or Homicidal Maniac O. Grady Query, 2014-03-05 Pee Wee Gaskins killed without hesitation and apparently without remorse over and over again He did so as he meandered in and out of maximum security prisons where he spent more than half of his life Sentenced to reform school at age thirteen he honed his skills in the use of extreme violence The horror of his crimes is played out against the backdrop of one of the most rural areas of South Carolina during the tumultuous change from absolute segregation to forced integration In a lifestyle of absolute lawlessness Gaskins exercised a bizarre charismatic control over the women who surrounded him and ruled his little gang of miscreants with violence and murder Sometimes driving a hearse and bragging of a private graveyard he maintained a macabre and confusing presence to those he encountered Diminutive at five feet three inches and one hundred thirty pounds he feared no man and struck fear in most Undaunted by arrests and imprisonment he conducted a crusade of murder and mayhem over nearly three decades and killed more than fifty people His motives were as varied as his methods Columbia Noir Gene Blottner, 2015-03-19 This filmography covers Columbia Pictures noir titles released in the classic noir era October 1940 to June 1962 All sub genres are covered including British western and science fiction Included are the great Columbia films Gilda Lady from Shanghai All the Kings Men In a Lonely Place On the Waterfront Anatomy of a Murder and Experiment in Terror The films are examined in detail with release dates cast and production credits production dates synopses reviews notes and commentary on each film

the author's summation and the publicity tag lines      Out of my Hands Richard Evans, 2022-01-03 Gritty breathless and gripping A compelling suspenseful law and order thriller They were in the wrong place at the wrong time and will regret it forever Nothing can change what happened but only the lawyer can provide justice for them both Will Anna Booth do it or will it be out of her hands This was a really great read Even though the story itself was gruesome and sad it makes the reader question morality as well as the use of the death penalty FEMALE REVIEWER A teenager is looking for a good time and meets a young woman who has no interest in him or his friends Their worlds collide again when walking home His mistake was not helping her After a police investigation exposing his friends Billy Humphries faces his day in court He knows he is innocent and has little fear of the justice system But the justice system wants a guilty accused and Billy is their patsy Three trials and a media storm later his lawyer Anna Booth fights for justice for her client and the victim OUT OF MY HANDS is a gripping crime thriller featuring emotional and convincing characters and exposes the politics of crime and justice If you like fast paced page turning gritty crime thrillers that draw you into the story then Richard Evans fifth book will not disappoint you Buy OUT OF MY HANDS today and bring to light the reality of the American justice system and its faults Evans writing style allows the reader to glide through the book's chapters whilst being familiarised with the plot and major protagonists Go on have a read Amazon review Trigger warning Out of my hands is a gritty crime thriller and reader 18 recommended

Elgar Concise Encyclopedia of Law and Literature Robert Spoo, Simon Stern, 2025-01-09 The Elgar Concise Encyclopedia of Law and Literature surveys the intersection between two important fields of study Interdisciplinary in scope the volume showcases the many ways in which literary and legal methods and insights both converge and remain distinct      True Crime Ian Cummins, Martin King, Louise Wattis, 2025-10-21 True crime is a huge cultural industry media organisations use crime stories to push sales and clicks Yet behind this phenomenon lies the real life victims and a disconnect between the representation of violent crime and its reality This book is a go to guide for students and researchers in understanding the development of this phenomenon and its social and cultural impacts Through case studies including Lucy Letby the Yorkshire Ripper and Fred and Rosemary West the book considers true crime's ethical implications and its wider influence on crime and punishment      Captured by the Media Paul Mason, 2013-05-13 This book turns on the television opens the newspaper goes to the cinema and assesses how punishment is performed in media culture investigating the regimes of penal representation and how they may contribute to a populist and punitive criminological imagination It places media discourse in prisons firmly within the arena of penal policy and public opinion suggesting that while Bad Girls The Shawshank Redemption internet jail cams advertising and debates about televising executions continue to ebb and flow in contemporary culture the persistence of this spectacle of punishment its contested meaning and its politics of representation demands investigation Alongside chapters addressing the construction of popular images of prison and the death penalty in television and film Captured by the Media also has contributions from prison reform groups and prison practitioners which discuss forms of media intervention in penal debate This book provides a highly readable exploration of media discourse on prisons and punishment and its relationship to public attitudes and government penal policy At the same time it engages with the cultural turn within criminology and offers an original contribution to discussion of the relationship between prison public and the state It will be essential reading for students in both media studies and criminology as well as practitioners and commentators in these fields

Daily Life in the Colonial City Keith T. Krawczynski, 2013-02-20 An exploration of day to day urban life in colonial America The American city was an integral part of the colonial experience Although the five largest cities in colonial America Philadelphia New York Boston Charles Town and Newport held less than ten percent of the American population on the eve of the American Revolution they were particularly significant for a people who resided mostly in rural areas and wilderness These cities and other urban hubs contained and preserved the European traditions habits customs and institutions from which their residents had emerged They were also centers of commerce transportation and communication held seats of colonial government and were conduits for the transfer of Old World cultures With a focus on the five largest cities but also including life in smaller urban centers Krawczynski's nuanced treatment will fill a significant gap on the reference shelves and serve as an essential source for students of American history sociology and culture In depth thematic chapters explore many aspects of urban life in colonial America including working conditions for men women children free blacks and slaves as well as strikes and labor issues the class hierarchy and its purpose in urban society childbirth courtship family and death housing styles and urban diet and the threat of disease and the growth of poverty

Violence and the Female Imagination Paula Ruth Gilbert, 2006-03-31 In the past twenty years Quebec women writers including Aline Chamberland Claire D Suzanne Jacob and Hélène Rioux have created female characters who are fascinated with bold sexual actions and language cruelty and violence at times culminating in infanticide and serial killing Paula Ruth Gilbert argues that these Quebec feminist writers are re framing gender Violence and the Female Imagination explores whether these imagined women are striking out at an external other or harming themselves through acts of self destruction and depression Gilbert examines the degree to which women are imitating men in the outward direction of their anger and hostility and suggests that such tough women may be mocking men in their macho exploits of sexuality and violence She illustrates the ways in which Quebec female authors are feminizing violence or re envisioning gender in North American culture Gilbert bridges methodological gaps and integrates history sociology literary theory feminist theory and other disciplinary approaches to provide a framework for the discussion of important ethical and aesthetic questions

Serial Killers and the Media Ian Cummins, Marian Foley, Martin King, 2019-01-17 This book examines the media and cultural responses to the awful crimes of Brady and Hindley whose murders provided a template for future media reporting on serial killers It explores a wide variety of topics relating to the Moors Murders case including the historical and geographical context of the murders the reporting of the case and the unique features which have become standard for other murder cases e.g. nicknames for the serial killers and it discusses the nature of evil and psychopaths and how they are represented in film drama novels and art. It also questions the ethics of the serial killing industry and how the modern cultural fixation on celebrity has extended to serial killers and it explores the impact on the journalists and police officers from being involved in such cases including some interviews with them. The treatment of Brady and Hindley by the media also raises profound questions about the nature of punishment including the links between mental illness and crime and whether there is ever the prospect of redemption. This book draws on cultural studies criminology sociology and socio legal studies to offer a multi dimensional analysis of the impact of this case and then uses this as a basis for the analysis of more recent cases such as the crimes of Peter Sutcliffe and Harold Shipman.
