

LOVE-BASED	FEAR-BASED
Maiden: Radiates an insatiable passion for life with a yearning to deeply understand everything and everyone around you with a curious, childlike innocence.	Maiden: Naive and people-pleasing. Can be taken advantage of because you believe the best about the world.
Mother: Unconditional nurturing, loving, and caring with a powerful maternal warmth that can heal emotional wounds.	Mother: Overly critical and controlling. Feels like she must do everything herself.
Huntress: Always determined, fierce, and fearless, she steps up to protect what's important to her and her loved ones.	Huntress: Hyper-independence and hyper-vigilance lead to burnout. Puts up a masculine shield and doesn't accept help.
Lover: Unapologetically sexy, powerful and embodies feminine sensuality in everything she does.	Lover: Unhealthy relationship to her body and sexuality. Makes bonds due to deep sexual trauma.
Wise Woman: Masters the art of living in the moment in deep inner peace and joy.	Wise Woman: Overthinks and becomes overwhelmed to the point of isolating herself from the world.
Wild Woman: Connected to intuition through a powerful higher spirit to navigate darker, mysterious parts of life.	Wild Woman: Loses her sense of commitment and struggles to make meaningful connections.
Queen: Commands both her inner world and outer world with power and grace.	Queen: Arrogant and entitled with a diva-like attitude

Fear Of The Feminine:

The Fear of the Feminine Erich Neumann, 2022-03-08 These essays by the famous analytical psychologist and student of creativity Erich Neumann belong in the context of the depth psychology of culture and reveal a prescient concern about the one sidedness of patriarchal Western civilization Neumann recommended a cultural therapy that he thought would redress a fundamental ignorance about feminine and masculine psychology and he looked for societal healing to a matriarchal consciousness that forms the bridge between the feminine and the creative Brought together here for the first time the essays in the book discuss the psychological stages of woman's development the moon and matriarchal consciousness Mozart's Magic Flute the meaning of the earth archetype for modern times and the fear of the feminine In Mozart's fantastic world Neumann saw a true Auseinandersetzung the conflict and coming to terms with each other of the matriarchal and the patriarchal worlds Developing such a synthesis of the feminine and the masculine in the psychic reality of the individual and of the collective was he argued one of the fundamental future oriented tasks of both the society and the individual

The Fear of the Feminine Erich Neumann, 2026-01-20 An insightful exploration of the unconscious fear of the feminine by a pioneering Jungian psychologist Erich Neumann was one of C G Jung's most brilliant students and a renowned practitioner of analytical psychology in his own right This landmark book brings together five of his most illuminating essays on feminine psychology Neumann discusses the psychological stages of woman's development the moon and matriarchal consciousness Mozart's Magic Flute the meaning of the earth archetype for modern times and the fear of the feminine He sees in Mozart's fantastical realm a clash and true coming to terms of the matriarchal and patriarchal worlds Reflecting a timely concern about the one sidedness of patriarchal Western civilization The Fear of the Feminine explains why a synthesis of the feminine and the masculine in the psychic reality of both the individual and the collective is one of the fundamental tasks of contemporary society

Anger, Madness, and the Daimonic Stephen A. Diamond, 1996-01-01 Explores the links between anger rage violence evil and creativity and describes a dynamic therapeutic approach that can help channel anger and violent impulses into constructive and creative activity

What Causes Men's Violence Against Women? Michele Harway, James M. O'Neil, 1999-09-09 Carefully organized and tightly edited this insightful book considers potential causes of men's violence against women utilizing a variety of theoretical perspectives It summarizes what is known about the multiple causes of men's violence against women and the importance of identifying men's risk factors in order to prevent future violence The editors approach is unique but systematic In chapter 2 the editors present a preliminary multivariate model that explains men's violence against women by identifying four content areas macrosocietal biological gender role socialization and relation factors Within these four areas the editors develop thirteen preliminary hypotheses about the causes of men's violence against women In the subsequent chapters the contributing authors critique or react to specific parts of the multivariate model and address one or more of the 13 hypotheses in the presentation of their own ideas about the causes of men's violence against women In the concluding chapter the editors summarize the contributors' reactions to the original hypotheses by creating a revised multivariate model of risk factors for men's violence against women The final model includes biological, socialization, psychological, psychosocial, relational and macrosocietal factors Furthermore the model is explained through 13 theoretical propositions, 40 research hypotheses and over 60 risk variables related to men's violence against women The book closes with a discussion of men's protective resiliency and vulnerability factors as well as future directions for theory development, advocacy and the prevention of violence against women

Sexuality and the Sacred

James B. Nelson, Sandra P. Longfellow, 1994-01-01 This volume is rooted in two convictions: first, sexuality is far more comprehensive and more fundamental to our existence than simply genital sex and second, sexuality is intended by God to be neither incidental nor detrimental to our spirituality but a fully integrated and basic dimension of that spirituality The authors address what our sexual experience reveals about God, the ways we understand the gospel and the ways we read scripture and tradition and attempt to live faithfully

Male Fear of the Feminine FOF, 2007

Women and False Choice: the Truth About Sexism Muna Jawhary (PhD), 2014-10-21 This book invites us to abandon our gender identity and look deeper into who we truly are Cultural ideals that see women and men as fundamentally different manifest into a physical reality of sex-differentiated behaviour be it in cognitive abilities, psychological traits or even dispositions We know from epigenetic studies that there is no separation between mind and environment; our perceptions of environmental signals filtered through cultural beliefs translate into a corresponding behaviour in order to maintain harmony between mind, body and environment Social cultures the world over still see women as suited for care and service and men as suited for work outside the home As women make life/career choices they are constrained by cultural ideas, images and symbols that create the nurturance imperative in their psyche Women mistake this learnt nurturing behaviour of putting others' interests before theirs for natural instinct and make choices that are not in line with their authentic self Women in other words unknowingly make false choices This is only half the story of sexism in our societies The other and more toxic half is that in order to fulfill the gender agenda of women are care-givers and men are providers girls are brought up to be feminine only and boys are brought up to be masculine only Inevitably any aspects of the self that are thought to belong to the opposite sex are repressed which gives us a sense of lack and feelings of inadequacy and results in a disconnection from the heart and alienation from the true self The book also shows how our sexist thoughts manifest in a sex-biased reality in the workplace Neuroplasticity and epigenetic laws are used to suggest ways of radically changing the work environment to one that is equally supportive of women's and men's success The new work environment and work practices can profoundly change how businesses operate in the world allowing them to become more adept at generating profit in today's overly competitive globalized markets

The Homophobic Mind Wayne R.

Dynes, 2013-11-18 The Homophobic Mind addresses a host of myths and fabrications that have functioned over the centuries to rationalize prejudice and discrimination affecting GLBT people The history of homophobia does not disclose a monolithic entity instead it is an amalgam of disparate elements This book examines more than forty separate tropes or motifs These tropes have varied origins stemming from the realms of religion philosophy medicine psychology and folklore In each case the essence of the myth is briefly stated followed by an analysis of its origins and development and concluding with a response Given the progress of human knowledge one might have expected that such archaic thought patterns would all have withered away by now However the myths show a zombie like capacity to persist and even to revive once again after their apparent demise Accordingly this book provides not simply a historical account but is a lesson for our times Death and the Maiden Brigid Burke,2019-05-01 America was certainly the big winner of World War II being the last major country intact Euphoria hubris and a naive self confidence became hallmarks of the people This hubris was dented a bit in the 1950s when scandals erupted around the TV quiz shows that made everyone feel so smart and the U 2 spy incident of 1960 that revealed Americans were being lied to by the government The book argues that these two events began the credibility gap that engulfed the nation later in the 1960s and continues to haunt us to this day When the War ended the United States still had its economy infrastructure and industry intact Taking up where the British Empire left off the powerful new America expanded its influence around the globe Suddenly light years ahead of any competitor Americans abandoned themselves to a haze of consumerism and entertainment trusting that they were safe and could not be harmed The contestants on the big money quiz shows turned out to be fakes and the respected TV executives were also revealed to be liars and cheats Far worse was yet to come The United States government was caught in a lie regarding the CIA's U 2 reconnaissance planes overflying the Soviet Union On the eve of a crucial summit meeting in 1960 the USSR knocked Gary Powers out of the sky along with plenty of incriminating hardware and data Moscow delayed revealing what it knew and Washington spent ten days denying it was a spy plane then denying that President Eisenhower was aware of it The world was turning into a very scary place and soon American schoolchildren were being taught to duck under their desks if a bomb should strike Fear began to percolate into the heart of the nation Buenos Aires 2022 - Analytical Psychology Opening to the Changing World:
