Feather On The Breath Of God A Novel:

A Feather on the Breath of God Sigrid Nunez, 2005-12-27 From Sigrid Nunez the National Book Award winning author of The Friend comes A Feather on the Breath of God a mesmerizing story about the tangled nature of relationships between parents and children between language and love A young woman looks back to the world of her immigrant parents a Chinese Panamanian father and a German mother Growing up in a housing project in the 1950s and 1960s she escapes into dreams inspired both by her parents stories and by her own reading and for a time into the otherworldly life of ballet A yearning homesick mother a silent and withdrawn father the ballet these are the elements that shape the young woman s imagination and her sexuality

The Greenwood Encyclopedia of Asian American Literature Guiyou Huang, 2008-12-30 Asian American literature dates back to the close of the 19th century and during the years following World War II it significantly expanded in volume and diversity Monumental in scope this encyclopedia surveys Asian American literature from its origins through 2007 Included are more than 270 alphabetically arranged entries on writers major works significant historical events and important terms and concepts Thus the encyclopedia gives special attention to the historical social cultural and legal contexts surrounding Asian American literature and central to the Asian American experience Each entry is written by an expert contributor and cites works for further reading and the encyclopedia closes with a selected general bibliography of essential print and electronic resources While literature students will value this encyclopedia as a guide to writings by Asian Americans the encyclopedia also supports the social studies curriculum by helping students use literature to learn about Asian American history and culture as it pertains to writers from a host of Asian ethnic and cultural backgrounds including Afghans Chinese Japanese Koreans Filipinos Iranians Indians Vietnamese Hawaiians and other Asian Pacific Islanders The encyclopedia supports the literature curriculum by helping students learn more about Asian American literature In addition it supports the social studies curriculum by helping students learn about the Asian American historical and cultural experience

Racial Ambiguity in Asian American Culture Jennifer Ann Ho, 2015-05-12 The sheer diversity of the Asian American populace makes them an ambiguous racial category Indeed the 2010 U S Census lists twenty four Asian ethnic groups lumping together under one heading people with dramatically different historical backgrounds and cultures In Racial Ambiguity in Asian American Culture Jennifer Ann Ho shines a light on the hybrid and indeterminate aspects of race revealing ambiguity to be paramount to a more nuanced understanding both of race and of what it means to be Asian American Exploring a variety of subjects and cultural artifacts Ho reveals how Asian American subjects evince a deep racial ambiguity that unmoors the concept of race from any fixed or finite understanding For example the book examines the racial ambiguity of Japanese American nisei Yoshiko Nakamura deLeon who during World War II underwent an abrupt transition from being an enemy alien to an assimilating American via the Mixed Marriage Policy of 1942 It looks at the blogs of Korean Taiwanese and Vietnamese Americans who were adopted as children by white American families and have conflicted feelings about their honorary white status And it discusses Tiger Woods the most famous mixed race Asian American whose description of himself as Cablinasian reflecting his background as Black Asian Caucasian and Native American perfectly captures the ambiguity of racial classifications Race is an abstraction that we treat as concrete a construct that reflects only our desires fears and anxieties Jennifer Ho demonstrates in Racial Ambiguity in Asian American Culture that seeing race as ambiguous puts us one step closer to a potential antidote to racism

Asian American Literature Keith Lawrence, 2021-08-25 Asian American Literature An Encyclopedia for Students is an invaluable resource for students curious to know more about Asian North American writers texts and the issues and drives that motivate their writing This volume collects in one place a breadth of information about Asian American literary and cultural history as well as the authors and texts that best define it A dozen contextual essays introduce fundamental elements or subcategories of Asian American literature expanding on social and literary concerns or tensions that are familiar and relevant Essays include the origins and development of the term Asian American overviews of Asian American and Asian Canadian social and literary histories essays on Asian American identity gender issues and sexuality and discussions of Asian American rhetoric and children s literature More than 120 alphabetical entries round out the volume and cover important Asian North American authors Historical information is presented in clear and engaging ways and author entries emphasize biographical or textual details that are significant to contemporary young adults Special attention has been given to pioneering authors from the late 19th century through the early 1970s and to influential or well known contemporary authors especially those likely to be studied in high school or university classrooms

The Last of Her Kind Sigrid Nunez, 2006-12-12 The paths of two women from different walks of life intersect amid counterculture of the 1960s in this haunting and provocative novel from the National Book Award winning author of The Friend Named A Best Book of the Year by the San Francisco Chronicle and the Christian Science Monitor Sigrid Nunez s The Last of Her Kind introduces two women who meet as freshmen on the Columbia campus in 1968 Georgette George does not know what to make of her brilliant idealistic roommate Ann Drayton and her obsessive disdain for the ruling class into which she was born She is mortified by Ann s romanticization of the underprivileged class which Georgette herself is hoping college will enable her to escape After the violent fight that ends their friendship Georgette wants only to forget Ann and to turn her attention to the troubled runaway kid sister who has reappeared after years on the road Then in 1976 Ann is convicted of murder At first Ann s fate appears to be the inevitable outcome of her belief in the moral imperative to make justice in a world where there are no innocent white people But searching for answers to the riddle of this friend of her youth Georgette finds more complicated and mysterious forces at work The novel s narrator Georgette illuminates the terrifying life of this difficult doomed woman and in the process discovers how much their early encounter has determined her own path and why decades later as she tells us I have never stopped thinking about her

Diasporic Representations Pin-chia Feng, 2010 In Diasporic Representations author Pin chia Feng examines the stratification of various

diasporic subjectivities through close reading fiction by Chinese American women writers of different social and class backgrounds Deploying a strategy of attentive reading Feng engages the intersecting issues of historicity spatiality and bodily imagination from diasporic and feminist perspectives to illuminate the dynamics of deterritorialization and reterritorialization in Chinese American novels in this transnational age The authors studied include Diana Chang Edith Eaton Yan Geling Nieh Hualing Gish Jen Shirley Geok Lin Lim Aimee Liu Fae Myenne Ng Sigrid Nunez Han Suyin and Amy Tan Asian American Literature in Transition, 1996-2020: Volume 4 Betsy Huang, Victor Román Mendoza, 2021-06-17 This volume examines the concerns political literary and identity based of contemporary Asian American literatures in neoliberal times Asian American Writers Deborah L. Madsen, 2005 Presents career biographies and criticism of Asian American writers from the late 19th century up to the current time Many works focus on the experience of Asians living in the United States The Mrs. Dalloway Reader Virginia Woolf, 2004 This first volume of its kind contains the complete text of and guide to Virginia Woolf's masterpiece plus Mrs Dalloway's Party and numerous journal entries and letters by Virginia Woolf relating to the book's genesis and writing The distinguished novelist Francine Prose has selected these pieces as well as essays and appreciations critical views and commentary by writers famous and unknown Now with additional scholarly commentary by Mark Hussey professor of English at Pace University this complete volume illuminates the creation of a celebrated story and the genius of its author Includes essays and commentary from Michael Cunningham E M Forster Margo Jefferson James Wood Mary Gordon Elaine Showalter Daniel Mendelsohn Sigrid Nunez Deborah Eisenberg Elissa Schappell A Feather on the Breath of God Sigrid Nunez, 2021-02-04 From Sigrid Nunez the National Book Award winning and bestselling author of The Friend comes this mesmerising story about the tangled nature of relationships between parents and children between language and love A pleasure from the first page to the last JONATHAN FRANZEN With an introduction by Susan Choi A young woman looks back to the world of her immigrant parents a Chinese Panamanian father and a German mother who meet in postwar Germany and settle in New York City Growing up in a housing project in the 1950s and 1960s the narrator escapes into dreams inspired both by her parents' stories and by her own reading and for a time into the otherworldly life of ballet A yearning homesick mother a silent and withdrawn father the ballet these are the elements that shape the young woman's imagination and her sexuality A forceful novel by a writer of uncommon talent NEW YORK TIMES BOOK REVIEW For Rouenna Sigrid Nunez, 2002-11-15 In this haunting novel a friendship springs up between a writer and a retired army nurse who seeks her out decades after their childhood in the same housing project For Rouenna is an unforgettable work about truth memory and unexpected heroism by one of the most gifted writers of her generation Encyclopedia of the American Short Story Abby H. P. Werlock, 2015-04-22 Two volume set that presents an introduction to American short fiction from the 19th century to the present Daughter of Heaven Leslie Li, 2005 This powerful touching memoir vividly recounts how Leslie Li's grandmother's traditional Chinese cuisine helped the author bridge the cultural divide in an America in which she is a minority Interspersed throughout this poignant memoir are the author's personal recipes most from her grandmother's kitchen

Encyclopedia of Asian American Folklore and Folklife Jonathan H. X. Lee, Kathleen Nadeau, 2010-12-21 This comprehensive compilation of entries documents the origins transmissions and transformations of Asian American folklore and folklife Equally instructive and intriguing the Encyclopedia of Asian American Folklore and Folklife provides an illuminating overview of Asian American folklore as a way of life Surveying the histories peoples and cultures of numerous Asian American ethnic and cultural groups the work covers everything from ancient Asian folklore folktales and folk practices that have been transmitted and transformed in America to new expressions of Asian American folklore and folktales unique to the Asian American historical and contemporary experiences The encyclopedia's three comprehensive volumes cover an extraordinarily wide range of Asian American cultural and ethnic groups as well as mixed race and mixed heritage Asian Americans Each group section is introduced by a historical overview essay followed by short entries on topics such as ghosts and spirits clothes and jewelry arts and crafts home decorations family and community religious practices rituals holidays music foodways literature traditional healing and medicine and much much more Topics and theories are examined from crosscultural and interdisciplinary perspectives to add to the value of the work

Racial Asymmetries Stephen Hong Sohn, 2014 Challenging the tidy links among authorial position narrative perspective and fictional content Stephen Hong Sohn argues that Asian American authors have never been limited to writing about Asian American characters or contexts Racial Asymmetries specifically examines the importance of first person narration in Asian American fiction published in the postrace era focusing on those cultural productions in which the author's ethnoracial makeup does not directly overlap with that of the storytelling perspective Through rigorous analysis of novels and short fiction such as Sesshu Foster's Atomik Aztex Sabina Murray's A Carnivore's Inquiry and Sigrid Nunez's The Last of Her Kind Sohn reveals how the construction of narrative perspective allows the Asian American writer a flexible aesthetic canvas upon which to engage issues of oppression and inequity power and subjectivity and the complicated construction of racial identity Speaking to concerns running through postcolonial studies and American literature at large Racial Asymmetries employs an interdisciplinary approach to reveal the unbounded nature of fictional worlds Stephen Hong Sohn is Assistant Professor of English at Stanford University He is the co editor of Transnational Asian American Literature Sites and Transits

Fresh Expressions of Church and the Kingdom of God Ian Mobsby, 2014-08-01 This important book poses a challenging question what are the aims of mission and are they being achieved through Fresh Expressions A range of contributors argue that mission is equally about social transformation or in biblical terms building the kingdom of God as well as building the church
