Electronic Voting And Democracy A Comparative Analysis:

Electronic Voting and Democracy N. Kersting, H. Baldersheim, 2004-08-18 Electronic and internet voting has become increasingly widespread in recent years but which countries are the leaders of the movement and who lags behind Is the digital divide likely to present a permanent challenge to electronic democracy What are the experiences with regard to online voting and what are the arguments for and against Electronic Voting and Democracy examines these issues and the contexts in which they are played out such as problems of legitimacy and the practical considerations that have driven some countries toward electronic voting faster than others European E-Democracy in Practice Leonhard Hennen, Ira van Keulen, Iris Korthagen, Georg Aichholzer, Ralf Lindner, Rasmus Øjvind Nielsen, 2019-11-06 This open access book explores how digital tools and social media technologies can contribute to better participation and involvement of EU citizens in European politics By analyzing selected representative e participation projects at the local national and European governmental levels it identifies the preconditions best practices and shortcomings of e participation practices in connection with EU decision making procedures and institutions The book features case studies on parliamentary monitoring e voting practices and e publics and offers recommendations for improving the integration of e democracy in European politics and governance Accordingly it will appeal to scholars as well as practitioners interested in identifying suitable e participation tools for European institutions and thus helps to reduce the EU s current democratic deficit This book is a continuation of the book Electronic Democracy in Europe published by Springer e-Democracy David Rios Insua, Simon French, 2010-09-02 Internet is starting to permeate politics much as it has previously revolutionised education business or the arts Thus there is a growing interest in areas of e government and more recently e democracy However most attempts in this field have just envisioned standard political approaches facilitated by technology like e voting or e debating Alternatively we could devise a more transforming strategy based on deploying web based group decision support tools and promote their use for public policy decision making This book delineates how this approach could be implemented It addresses foundations basic methodologies potential implementation and applications together with a thorough discussion of the many challenging issues This innovative text will be of interest to students researchers and practitioners in the fields of e government e democracy and e participation and research in decision analysis negotiation analysis and group decision support Electronic Government and Electronic Participation E. Tambouris, H.J. Scholl, M.F.W.H.A. Janssen, 2015-08-24 Electronic government and electronic participation continue to transform the public sector and society worldwide and are constantly being transformed themselves by emerging information and communication technologies This book presents papers from the 14th International Federation for Information Processing s EGOV conference IFIP EGOV 2015 and its sister conference the 7th Electronic Participation ePart conference held in Thessaloniki Greece in August and September 2015 with the support and sponsorship of the University of Macedonia Through the years both of these conferences have established themselves as leading scientific events in their field providing a forum for scholars to present and discuss their work Included here are 31 accepted ongoing research papers grouped under the following headings eParticipation policy modeling open government and smart cities general e government and e government services as well as 6 Ph D colloquium papers 5 accepted posters and 3 workshops With their combination of scientific credibility and rigor and with high relevance to practice the papers presented here will be of interest to all those whose work involves electronic government and electronic participation
