Professional Care and Vocation Timothy W. Wineberg,2008-01-01 This book integrates the traditional understanding of a profession a calling to selfless service for the public good through the pursuit of a learned art with that of vocation work that offers a deep sense of personal fulfilment meaning and identity Professions are moral endeavours since they require vulnerable individuals to trust in the competence and integrity of someone who professes to care for them Currently most versions of professional ethics narrowly focus upon standards of conduct or upon ethical dilemmas Yet these are rarely compelling enough to change us they are not morally formative This volume takes a different tack to doing ethics It explicitly targets the moral development of educators This is crucial because as we develop our sensibilities of perception and qualities of character we can better interpret practice situations and respond fittingly Moreover this approach to ethics seeks to reconceptualize our professional obligation to embody it in more adequate metaphors and to revitalize its relational dimension In this view our task as educators is to seek out those relational metaphors images and narratives of practice which are profound enough to shape our self perceptions and to fund our moral formation This book explores five ethical spheres sacrifice community craft tradition and moral imagination and five respective pedagogical images which illuminate the nature of professional care servant moral friend mentor covenantor and moral companion When critically engaged and appropriated these rich metaphorical images provide clarity order and meaning to our perceptions and powerful imperatives for our own moral development
