Elements Of Change In Eastern Europe:

Elements of Change in Eastern Europe, 1968 Elements of Change in Eastern Europe; Prospects for Freedom
David S. Collier, Kurt Glaser, 1968 Innovation and Technological Change in Eastern Europe Michael Fritsch, Horst Brezinski, Horst Dieter Brezinski, 1999-11-25 Reserach suggests that innovation and technical change are crucial for the economic recovery of the former centrally planned countries in Central and Eastern Europe This text analyzes the development of innovation systems and technology in this region from various perspectives Philosophical Reflections on the Changes in Eastern Europe William Leon McBride, 1999 In this timely book two philosophers_ one American one Bulgarian_ explore the significance of the changes in Eastern Europe that began in 1989 and offer two alternative perspectives about them The momentous events taking place in this region challenge philosophers to look for deeper understandings and explanations than are called for in purely strategic political accounts Philosophical Reflections on the Changes in Eastern Europe is written with an explicit awareness of the great differences_ in cultural traditions recent history and current conditions_ among the different regions and countries of Central and Eastern Europe but the authors focus above all on certain significant commonalities that are fully understandable only within a larger global context They explore such issues as the role of ideology past and present conversions real or apparent of intellectuals the place of philosophers in politics the relationship between democratic slogans and everyday realities and special concerns of women Social and political philosophers political scientists and scholars of Eastern Europe will want to have this book on their shelves

Transformation of Cities in Central and Eastern Europe F. E. Ian Hamilton, Kaliopa Dimitrovska Andrews, Nataša Pichler-Milanović, 2005 Annotation This volume is one in a series initiated by the United Nations University Institute of Advanced Studies on the inter relationship between globalisation and urban transformation It identifies and describes the inter and intra urban transformations of Central and Eastern European cities and considers their pre 1945 historic legacies the socialist period and their contemporary transition towards market oriented and democratic systems The dramatic changes since 1989 including the collapse of Communist ideology the break up of the Soviet Union Czechoslovakia and Yugoslavia the end of the Cold War and the impact of globalisation and European integration have reconfigured this region and affected their re integration into European and global networks This book first examines the similarities and differences between significant Central and Eastern European cities comparing the differing patterns of historical context and socialist legacies before 1990 and the impacts of internal and external forces on re shaping these cities and their paths of transformation since 1990 It also examines the role of contemporary planning within the overall development of Central and Eastern European cities The conclusion demonstrates the similarities and differences between Central and Eastern European cities and their re integration into global networks , Change Forces in Post-Communist Eastern Europe John P. Anchan, Michael Fullan, Eleoussa Polyzoi, 2003-12-16 In this work the authors explore the complex nature and process of change in a selection of former communist countries including Russia Czech Republic Hungary Romania and East Germany

Crime and Transition in Central and Eastern Europe Alenka Šelih, Aleš Završnik, 2012-04-24 Full scale political change affects every level of a society but perhaps nowhere as strikingly as in the areas of crime policy and law enforcement Over the past two decades the European nations that have moved from totalitarianism toward democracy have come to embody this trend yet reliable sources on crime and law enforcement in these countries have not been readily accessible to the West Representing viewpoints seldom available to outsiders the contributors to Crime and Transition in Central and Eastern Europe analyze changes in criminal activities and crime control strategies in the region explain the political background underlying these developments and assess their long term social impact Experts from Slovenia Hungary Croatia Serbia the Czech Republic Poland Bosnia and Herzegovina discuss the politicization of crime the ongoing paradoxes regarding civil liberties and the future of crime policy in comparative and country specific terms Among the topics featured in the book Crime and crime control in transitional countries politics the media and public perception of crime surveillance from national security to private industry penal policy and political change emerging trends economic and organized crime human trafficking juvenile delinquency new perspectives on corruption in the region With this fascinating insight Crime and Transition in Central and Eastern Europe is a singular reference for researchers and policymakers in criminology and political science and historians with a special interest in European affairs and policy
