Elephant And Castle:

Elephant and Castle R.C. Hutchinson,2013-10 This is a new release of the original 1949 edition Elephant and Castle Ray Coryton Hutchinson,1940 Elephant and Castle Ray Coryton Hutchinson,1970 Elephant and Castle R. C.
Hutchinson,2017-12-15 Excerpt from Elephant and Castle A Reconstruction Board of Trade and he let me in which cost Shagan two quid On the whole I wished he hadn't Anyone who wants to study the interior architecture of Mickett Lane can do so without fear of being jostled by me The Scene of the Crime was a bedroom upstairs They had drawn the curtains and there was one electric bulb burning over the bed but the curtains let in quite a lot of daylight giving the room the neither the one damned thing nor the other appearance which you get in an empty theatre with the stage set and the curtain up There was a smell of disuse and disinfectants with a lingering stink of face powder At my age I am not I hope sensitive to what the half baked call atmosphere but I Found the cheapness of the whole set up quite disagreeable There were two or three seedy little men in smart three guinea suits doing exactly what they do in whodunits taking photo graphs with micro cameras and making measurements one fellow with a cigarette stuck to his lip was calling out the figures just as a tailor does N O one took any notice of me and I had the impression that if I'd started to intone the burial service in a high childlike treble or to unleash a brace of bloodhounds from my brief case they still wouldn't have taken any notice It was that sort of scene by Tchekov out of Madame Tussaud There was a rheumy eyed old man who I suppose was the police doctor examining the body So feeling that I ought to give Shagan his money's worth I examined it too The medical was kind enough to point out the wounds in the throat which I could perfectly well have seen for myself A wheezy old bore in love with footling technicalities About the

Remaking London Ben Campkin,2013-08-13 Between the slum clearances of the early twentieth century and debates about the post Olympic city the drive to regenerate London has intensified Yet today with a focus on increasing land values regeneration schemes purporting to foster diverse and creative new neighbourhoods typically displace precisely the qualities activities and communities they claim to support In Remaking London Ben Campkin provides a lucid and stimulating historical account of urban regeneration exploring how decline and renewal have been imagined and realised at different scales Focussing on present day regeneration areas that have been key to the capital s modern identity Campkin explores how these places have been stigmatised through identification with material degradation and spatial and social disorder Drawing on diverse sources including journalism photography cinema theatre architectural design advertising and television he illuminates how ideas of decline drive urban change Richly illustrated and engagingly written Remaking London is both a compelling account of contested sites from the capital s recent history and a powerful critique of the contradictions of contemporary regeneration

Narratives of Migration, Relocation and Belonging Patria Román-Velázquez,Jessica Retis,2020-08-13 This book gives voice to the diverse diasporic Latin American communities living in the UK by exploring first and onward migration of Latin Americans to Europe with a specific reference to London The authors discuss how networks of solidarity and local struggles are played out enacted negotiated and experienced in different spatial spheres whether this be migration routes into London work spaces diasporic media and urban places Each of these spaces are explored in separate chapters to argue that transnational networks of solidarity and local struggles are facilitating renewed sense of belongingness and claims to the city In this context we witness manifestations of British Latinidad that invoke new forms of belongingness beyond and against old colonial powers

Planning London for the Post-War Era 1945-1960

Emmanuel V. Marmaras,2014-09-16 This book deals with the formation of the post Second World War reconstruction and planning machinery in Great Britain the re planning efforts undertaken in post war London and in particular the redevelopment programme regarding its central area in the form of the comprehensive development projects Originating from a PhD Thesis the book recreates the atmosphere following step by step arguments and events at various political socio economic and technical levels It also contributes to the understanding of succeeding developments in terms of planning theory and practice The book is structured into three parts The first one explores the administrative and statutory developments in town planning matters during the period 1940 59 The second part deals with the plans proposed for London as a whole from independent and official organisations mainly during the 1940s Finally the third part examines the proposed projects for the rebuilding of the City of London and for special areas of Central London that suffered from bombing on both sides of the Thames
