Elephant And Lion:

The Lion and the Elephant Charles John Andersson, 2023-09-26 Reprint of the original first published in 1873 Lion and the Elephant, 1873 The Lion and the Elephant Charles John Andersson, 1878 The Lion and the Elephant Charles John Andersson, 1873 My Lion's Heart Gareth Patterson, 2014-09-15 Environmentalist independent researcher and author Gareth Patterson has spent his entire adult life working tirelessly for the greater protection of African wildlife and more particularly for that of the lion Born in England in 1963 Gareth grew up in Nigeria and Malawi From an early age he knew where his life's path would take him it would be in Africa and his life's work would be for the cause of the African wilderness and its wild inhabitants His is an all encompassing African story From his childhood in West and East Africa to his study of a threatened lion population in a private reserve in Botswana to his work with George Adamson celebrated as the Lion Man of Africa we witness Gareth's growing commitment to his life's mission This is nowhere more evident than in his account of his life as a human member of a lion pride experiencing life and death through its eyes as he successfully rehabilitated three famous orphaned lion cubs back into a life in the wilds At considerable risk to his own personal safety he exposed the sordid canned lion industry in South Africa bringing this shameful practice to international attention After moving to the Western Cape he took up the fight for the African elephant notably the unique endangered Knysna population and published his astonishing findings in his 2009 book The Secret Elephants Perhaps unsurprisingly given the stressful nature of his work Gareth suffered a massive physical and mental breakdown in his forties which he discusses here for the first time with an openness that underlines his courage Lesser men might have been broken but his lion's heart fought back and he ultimately overcame his illness Gareth Patterson's long awaited autobiography is a moving account of one man's single minded dedication to the preservation of Africa's wildlife It is also a stark reminder that if the human race does not want to lose Africa's priceless wild heritage there is no time to waste The lion is my totem animal and this is the story of my life in Africa for the lion Uncle Elephant's Adventures ... Robert Montgomery Bird, 1927 Life and Marriage in Skya Rgya, a Tibetan Village Blo brtan rdo rje, Charles Kevin Stuart, 2008 From the book's preface Skya rgya is a farming village in Amdo Tibet While Tibetans largely welcome the material benefits that have been brought to them by the march of modernity it is also inevitable that many of their older traditions have come to be seen as outdated By juxtaposing voices from earlier periods with those that reflect contemporary experiences the author has provided us with a fascinating window onto the processes of change and development as they are being experienced by Tibetans in this area The author's narratives give us a direct and vivid insight into the lives experiences and expectations of members of his home community Fernanda Pirie The Centre for Socio Legal Studies Oxford University Also from the book's preface Blo brtan rdo rje's honest rendering of the details of his family life make this a page turning account of life in a rural Tibetan area that is already vanishing When Blo brtan rdo rje was young there was not even a bridge to cross the Yellow River into Gcan tsha County After bridges were built in the late 1980s life has been changing rapidly This is not to suggest that no change had come to this Tibetan village before this time as the arrival of the troops of the Muslim warlord Ma Bufang prior to the Communist period are also documented here The forced conversion of neighboring down valley Tibetans to Islam was a crucial vehicle for the later commercial changes introduced in the 1990s this new book could serve as an important part of courses on Tibetan culture cross cultural studies of marriage and gender relations I congratulate Blo brtan rdo rje and Kevin Stuart on this impressive contribution to Tibetan studies Gray Tuttle Department of East Asia Languages and Cultures Columbia University From the author s introduction I was born in 1979 the only son of a ten people farming herding family on 4 3 acres of farmland on which we cultivate wheat barley peas rapeseed potatoes and a few vegetables for self consumption In 1985 my father Rin chen bsod nams b 1954 put me on one of our several donkeys and the two of us set out for my paternal grandmother s Phag mo sgrol ma b 1927 home in the mountains It took us most of the day to reach Grandmother s home which was a single room where she lived a long second room for the sheep and goats and a fenced area for the yaks The area around Grandmother s cottage was mountainous There was no electricity Rapeseed oil lamps provided light at nights Grandmother fetched water in a wooden bucket that she carried on her back from a transparent stream Bread with milk tea was our breakfast and lunch We ate noodles with sometimes a few chunks of pork but rarely vegetables I have three sisters My elder sister has twin six year old sons who had not started school in 2006 My two younger sisters are both university students and their school tuition has become a significant worry for my family My parents have now moved to the local county town where they bought a cheap house with a small yard with the money they earned from selling our family s sheep and goats Mother raises four milk mdzo mo a female yak cow cross from which she earns an average of twenty five yuan about 3 50 per day by selling milk and yogurt in the street Father does whatever temporary work he can find that pays fifteen to twenty yuan per day 2 15 to 2 86 Kids from richer families call my mother Skya rgya Beggar when they see her selling milk and yogurt in the bustling streets This humiliates and causes much pain He-Said-She-Said Marjorie Harness Goodwin,1990 carefully researched and clearly written Goodwin makes a major step in redefining the enterprise of studying language use in context and across contexts American Ethnologist I recommend the book highly John Haviland American Anthropologist Goodwin s thoughtful interpretation of these examples of children s conversation is replete with wise insights challenging critical darts and well referenced links to a wide literature Child Development Abstracts she didn t just take field notes She hung around with the children in her neighborhood until they trusted her then tape recorded their natural conversations as they played together This is Goodwin s long awaited compilation of years of painstaking analysis of the transcripts of those tapes It is not only one of the best sources if not the best source for anyone interested in how boys and girls use language in their daily lives indeed to constitute their daily lives it is also a model ethnographic study of language in its natural setting Deborah Tannen author of You Just Don t Understand Women and Men in Conversation This groundbreaking study describes in detail the
