The Spirit World in the Letters of Paul the Apostle Guy Williams, 2009-09-16 Guy Williams beleuchtet die Rolle der Geistwesen in den echten paulinischen Briefen Entgegen der weit verbreiteten Ansicht Geister und spirituelle Wesen seien für Paulus unbedeutend und trivial gewesen vertritt Williams die These dass diese inhärente Merkmale der Briefe darstellten Die Berücksichtigung ihres historischen und kulturellen Hintergrundes zeigt dass die Vorstellung von den Einwohnern der paulinischen Geistwelt den Engeln Dämonen Kräften und Satan denen des allgemeinen Gedankenguts entspricht Schließlich bezieht Williams die Ergebnisse seiner Untersuchung auf drei Bereiche Paulus Christologie seine Soteriologie und seine Vorstellung von Gemeinschaft Sein Ansatz erlaubt einen frischen Blick auf Ort und Bedeutung von spirituellen Wesen bei Paulus nicht im Sinne einer neuen Doktrin aber als allgemeines und kulturelles Idiom der paulinischen Texte Redemption and Resistance Markus Bockmuehl, James Carleton Paget, 2009-09-01 Redemption and Resistance brings together an eminent cast of contributors to provide a state of the art discussion of Messianism as a topic of political and religious commitment and controversy By surveying this motif over nearly a thousand years with the help of a focused historical and political searchlight this volume is sure to break fresh ground It will serve as an attractive contribution to the history of ancient Judaism and Christianity of the complex and often problematic relationship between them and of the conflicting loyalties their hopes for redemption created vis à vis a public order that was at first pagan and later Christian Although each chapter is designed to stand on its own as an introduction to the topic at hand the overall argument unfolds a coherent history The first two parts on pre Christian Jewish and primitive Christian Messianism set the stage by identifying two entities that in Part III are then addressed in the development of their explicit relationship in a Graeco Roman world marked by violent persecution of Jewish and Christian hopes and loyalties The story is then explored beyond the Constantinian turn and its abortive reversal under Julian to the Christian Empire up to the rise of Islam A Guide to Early Jewish Texts and Traditions in Christian Transmission Gabriele Boccaccini,Lorenzo DiTommaso,David Hamidovic,Michael E. Stone,2019-10-14 The Jewish culture of the Hellenistic and early Roman periods established a basis for all monotheistic religions but its main sources have been preserved to a great degree through Christian transmission This Guide is devoted to problems of preservation reception and transformation of Jewish texts and traditions of the Second Temple period in the many Christian milieus from the ancient world to the late medieval era It approaches this corpus not as an artificial collection of reconstructed texts a body of hypothetical originals but rather from the perspective of the preserved materials examined in their religious social and political contexts It also considers the other non Christian channels of the survival of early Jewish materials including Rabbinic Gnostic Manichaean and Islamic This unique project brings together scholars from many different fields in order to map the trajectories of early Jewish texts and traditions among diverse later cultures It also provides a comprehensive and comparative introduction to this new field of study while bridging the gap between scholars of early Judaism and of medieval Christianity Violence in the New Testament Shelly Matthews,E. Leigh Gibson,2005-03-09 While much work has been done on the role of Jews in the crucifixion of Jesus in post Holocaust biblical scholarship the question of violence in subsequent community formation remains largely unexamined New Testament passages suggesting that early Christ believers were violently persecuted the stone throwing passages from John the persecuted from town to town passages in Matthew the stoning of Stephen in Acts Paul s hardship catalogue in II Corinthians etc are frequently read positivistically as windows onto first century persecution at the other extreme they are sometimes dismissed as completely a historical In either case scholars up until now have provided little in the way of methodological reflection on how they have reached such conclusions A further problematic issue in previous readings of passages suggesting such violence is that the perpetrators of violence are frequently cast as Jews while the violated are cast as Christians in spite of the growing consensus that it is impossible to tease out these two distinct and separate religious identities Jew and Christian from first century texts This volume takes up crucial methodological questions about how to read passages suggesting violence among Jews in texts that eventually became part of the New Testament canon It situates this intra religious violence within the violence of the Roman Imperial order It provides new readings of these texts that move beyond the Jew as violator Christian as violated binary

Kloppenborg, 1987-01-01 In this groundbreaking study John Kloppenborg traces the literary evolution of Q as a document of primitive Christianity by considering it within the context of ancient literary genres He argues that Q is composed of three compositional layers or strata each of which reflects certain stages of development in the Q community The earliest formative layer reflects the influence of ancient sapiential sayings the second layer suggests the influence of the prophetic literature of judgment and contains prophetic oracles and many Son of Man sayings The third layer contains a temptation story moving the document from a chriae collection in the direction of a biography
