mujeres que se levantaron en contra del doble sistema de dominación patriarcal y de raza. Fui una niña feliz que crecí rodeada de cariño y en contacto con la naturaleza pero también víctima de privaciones y discriminaciones estructurales. He tenido también el privilegio de aprender y estudiar el lenguaje como fenómeno humano de conocer el mundo y entablar amistades profundas con hombres y mujeres de otras latitudes. He visto nacer y morir. A la hora del balance no concibo manera más intensa de vivir que a través de lo colectivo.

Ladina Social Activism in Guatemala City, 1871-1954
Patricia Harms, 2020-05-01 In this groundbreaking new study on ladinas in Guatemala City Patricia Harms contests the virtual erasure of women from the country's national memory and its historical consciousness. Harms focuses on Spanish speaking women during the revolutionary decade and the liberalism periods revealing a complex significant and palpable feminist movement that emerged in Guatemala during the 1870s and remained until 1954 During this era ladina social activists not only struggled to imagine a place for themselves within the political and social constructs of modern Guatemala but they also wrestled with ways in which to critique and identify Guatemala's gendered structures within the context of repressive dictatorial political regimes and entrenched patriarchy Harms's study of these women and their struggles fills a sizeable gap in the growing body of literature on women's suffrage social movements and political culture in modern Latin America It is a valuable addition to students and scholars studying the rich history of the region Diario de Centro
