Women, Literature, and the Arts of the Countryside in Early Twentieth-Century England Judith W. Page, Elise L. Smith, 2021-03-25 This book examines the centrality of the countryside to women's work creativity and aspirations in early twentieth century England

A Guide to Twentieth Century Literature in English Harry Blamires, 2021-06-23 First published in 1983 A Guide to Twentieth Century Literature in English is a detailed and comprehensive guide containing over 500 entries on individual writers from countries including Africa Australia Canada the Caribbean India Ireland New Zealand Pakistan Sri Lanka and the UK The book contains substantial articles relating to major novelists poets and dramatists of the age as well as a wealth of information on the work of lesser known writers and the part they have played in cultural history It focuses in detail on the character and quality of the literature itself highlighting what is distinctive in the work of the writers being discussed and providing key biographical and contextual details A Guide to Twentieth Century Literature in English is ideal for those with an interest in the twentieth century literary scene and the history of literature more broadly

Using Young Adult Literature to Work through Wobble Moments in Teacher Education Dawan Coombs, Jon Ostenson, 2022-07-25 This volume offers a novel approach to exploring how literary response groups can be used as part of teacher education programs to help preservice teachers navigate wobble moments Focusing uniquely on the potential of young adult literature YAL the text draws on the first hand experiences of teacher candidates and uses a range of well known books to demonstrate how narrative based inquiry and analysis of fictional depictions of teaching and learning can support reflection on a range of common challenges The volume presents how YAL literary response groups are shown to enhance participants ability to reflect on practice build resilience and develop deeper understanding of pedagogical principles by offering a shared dialogical space These insights ultimately contribute to teacher education program improvement by enhancing teacher candidates understanding of pedagogy This text will benefit researchers doctoral students and academics in the fields of teaching teacher mentoring and teacher education more specifically Those interested in literature studies and young adult literature YAL more broadly will also benefit from this volume Unruly Cities? Chris Brook, Gerry Mooney, Steve Pile, 2006-02 The text argues that cities are open to many forms of order and disorder both from within the city and outside They represent cities potentials as well as their problems It challenges the assumption that cities are threatened by disorder from below and that they might be ruled by order imposed from above a range of genres including the novel poetry drama essays and journalism Each chapter contains an extensive bibliography with special emphasis on material available in English A stimulating introduction to the development of European feminist writing Textual Liberation will be an invaluable resource for students of women s literature women s studies and feminism

Writers' Biographies and Family Histories in 20th- and 21st-Century Literature Lucie Guiheneuf,Aude

Haffen,2018-06-11 New creative forms of life writing have emerged over the past four decades Following in the footsteps of the New Biographers who more than half a century earlier had trusted art and imagination to uncover some truth about a singular existence some late twentieth and twenty first century novelists playwrights and essayists staged the lives of writers they loved wanted to vindicate or whose influence they needed to acknowledge and ward off In other cases they turned to another sort of genealogy and blurring the lines between biography and autobiography told the story of their parents lives This volume includes ten essays on American British and Canadian writers biographies and family histories ranging chronologically speaking from Virginia Woolf s Orlando 1928 to Lila Azam Zanganeh s The Enchanter Nabokov and Happiness 2011 The connection between biography and fiction is explored and analysed in the light of different veins of postmodernism ludic nostalgic and subversive The contributors give pride of place to those biographical enterprises in which generic distinctions yield to transgeneric recompositions ontological frontiers are crossed genders are queered women artists empowered and the creating subject revealed to be fundamentally elusive and plural Representations of

Technoculture in Don DeLillo's Novels Laila Sougri,2023-09-04 This book is the first to explore technoculture in all of Don DeLillo s novels From Americana 1971 to The Silence 2020 the American author anatomizes the constantly changing relationship between culture and technology in overt and layered aspects of the characters experiences Through a tendency to discover and rediscover technocultural modes of appearance DeLillo emphasizes settings wherein technological progress is implicated in cultural imperatives This study brings forth representations of such implication interaction through various themes particularly perception history reality space architecture information and the posthuman The chapters are based on a thematic structure that weaves DeLillo s novels with the rich literary criticism produced on the author and with the various theoretical frameworks of technoculture This leads to the formulation and elaboration on numerous objects of research extracted from DeLillo s novels namely the theorization of DeLillo s radiance in dailiness the investigation of various uses of technology as an extension the role of image technologies in redefining history the reconceptualization of the ethical and behavioral aspects of reality the development of tele visual and embodied perceptions in various technocultural spaces and the involvement of information technologies in reconstructing the beliefs behaviors and activities of the posthuman One of the main aims of the study is to show how DeLillo s novels bring to light the constant transformation of technocultural everydayness It is argued that though such transformation is confusing or resisted at times it points to a transitional mode of being This transitional state does not dehumanize DeLillo s characters it reveals their humanity in a continually changing with difficult choices famously said Always do what is right It will gratify half of mankind and astound the other Taking Twain s phrase as a starting point this book considers how literature and art explore different systems of values and principles of conduct and how they can teach us to cope at times of trial Morality remains one of the most contested areas of thought and ethics in the modern world due to numerous misapprehensions and the move away from solidarity from what we share and hold in common particularly our inherent pursuit of virtue and consideration of principles concerning the distinction between right and wrong good and bad Featuring essays by scholars from countries which have seen traditions of virtue and character formation perish in the course of tragic social experiments this book highlights the role of literature and arts in educating about virtues and character in both a regional and global context The volume offers philosophical analysis of moral education and engages with the literary canon discussing the ways in which virtue was taught and can still be taught with Aristotle as one of the regained tools of learning The essays span countries from England Spain Italy and Belgium to the USA

Literature Sarianna Kankkunen,2024-12-24 This study examines experienced space in Maarit Verronen s works of prose fiction The study aligns itself with the contemporary approach often referred to as spatial literary studies a movement connected to the spatial turn within the humanities Theoretically the study draws on multiple fields of spatial studies from semiotics of space to critical theory and poststructuralism By providing a categorization on different approaches within spatial literary studies the study promotes literary studies that utilize spatial theory and explores how spatial concepts can be effectively used as tools for close reading Since the study aims to provide a longitudinal section of Verronen s oeuvre the selected material spans the author s early works from the 1990s to the late 2000s The corpus involves six novels and two short stories The analysis begins with the fantastic realms of Verronen s early career proceeds to consider wilderness and wild spaces turns to visions of dystopic futures and concludes in the narratives of homecoming and homesteading The study shows that Verronen s fantasy draws its allegorical potential from the juxtaposition of spatialized binary semantic oppositions By analyzing Verronen s dystopian novels the study unravels the spatial nature of the genre and the critical potential it encompasses Verronen s narratives on wilderness are approached through the notion of spatial practices and in the context of alienation and postpastoralism Finally the analysis on the literary homes and the acts of homesteading in Verronen s novels foregrounds the open connected and inclusive nature of the contemporary notion of home and new forms of attachment to place both of which are under an active debate in spatial literary studies By bringing together spatial literary studies and Verronen s works this research adds to the study of Finnish literature and contemporary literature s emphasis on space spatiality and environmental issues Moreover the study contributes to the knowledge on the genres of fantasy and dystopia as well as to the study of classic literary tropes and their contemporary manifestations As the study contextualizes Verronen s works within Nordic and European literatures it draws attention to the thematic and stylistic connections that link her writing to broader literary trends and traditions Books, Not Bombs Charles F. Howlett,Ian Harris,2010-12-01

Books Not Bombs Teaching Peace Since the Dawn of the Republic is an important work relevant to peace scholars practitioners and students This incisive book offers an exciting and comprehensive historical analysis of the origins and development of peace education from the creation of the New Republic at the end of the Eighteenth Century to the beginning of the Twenty First century It examines efforts to educate the American populace young and old both inside the classroom and outside in terms of peace societies and endowed organizations While many in the field of peace education focus their energies on conflict resolution and teaching peace pedagogically Books Not Bombs approaches the topic from an entirely new perspective It undertakes a thorough examination of the evolution of peace ideology within the context of opposing war and promoting social justice inside and outside schoolhouse gates It seeks to offer explanations on how attempts to prevent violence have been communicated through the lens of history Catalogue of Title Entries of Books and Other Articles

Great Books by German Women in the Age of Emotion, 1770-1820 Margaretmary Daley, 2022 Literature written by women in German during the period long known patriarchally as the Age of Goethe was largely lumped in with other unserious or artistically unworthy works under the category Trivialliteratur literally trivial literature Using insights from Gender Studies yet acknowledging the need for a literary canon Great Books by German Women offers a critical interpretation of six canon worthy German novels written by women in the period for which it coins the term Age of Emotion The novels are chosen because they depict women's ordinary yet interesting lives and equally because each displays formal strengths that yield prose particularly able to express emotion The first Sophie von La Roche's Die Geschichte des Fräuleins von Sternheim The History of Lady von Sternheim draws on the tradition of the epistolary novel while also finding new ways to depict empathetic emotions The second Friederike Unger's Julchen Grunthal brings to the Frauenroman or women's novel the use of irony to portray a heroine's emotions during her coming of age The next novels add lyricism to their prose to capture sensual emotions Sophie Mereau's Blütenalter der Empfindung The Blossoming of Feeling imagines women's affinity for the philosophical sublime while Caroline Wolzogen depicts female desire in her Agnes von Lilien The fifth novel Die Honigmonathe The Honeymoon by Karoline Fischer explores the agony that extreme emotions cause not only for women but also for men The last novel Caroline Pichler's Frauenwürde The Dignity of Women expands the focus from a young heroine to multiple mature characters while maintaining the centrality of women's talents and emotions Finally this study accords honorable mention to some other women's novels before concluding that the influence of these six works was in no way trivial either in portraying women's lives and emotions or in the history of German literature

The Teller and the Tale Gabriel Josipovici, 2016-10-01 We seem to live intellectually and emotionally in sealed off universes writes Gabriel Josipovici in an essay on Hebrew poetry in medieval Spain just one in a lively multiverse of writings gathered in The Teller and the Tale The book draws on a quarter of a century's worth of critical reflection on modern art and literature Biblical culture Jewish theology European identity the nature of beginnings and the bittersweetness of writing fiction to name but a few of the subjects upon which Josipovici's ranging pansophic attention rests The author describes paths between these distant regions of space and time with characteristic warmth and ingenuity Proust Kafka Woolf Pasternak Eliot Spenser Valéry and Beckett dwell here alongside Dante Shakespeare Sterne Cervantes and the Brothers Grimm Each of these great writers is a point of departure for personal reflection and a series of critical essays takes on a second life as a book of intimate recollections and fond remembrances recalling departed friends and peers evoking the pain and ecstasy of childhood the personal struggle to be a writer and the life long project of
