Elizabeth Catlett Melanie Herzog, Elizabeth Catlett, 2005 Reveals Catlett's commitment to social and political issues All of the fifteen linoleum prints are beautifully reproduced and address the harsh reality of Black women's labor Elizabeth Catlett: Art for Social Justice Klare Scarborough, 2015 Women Artists of the Harlem Renaissance Amy Helene Kirschke, 2014-08-04 Women artists of the Harlem Renaissance dealt with issues that were unique to both their gender and their race They experienced racial prejudice which limited their ability to obtain training and to be taken seriously as working artists They also encountered prevailing sexism often an even more serious barrier Including seventy two black and white illustrations this book chronicles the challenges of women artists who are in some cases unknown to the general public and places their achievements in the artistic and cultural context of early twentieth century America Contributors to this first book on the women artists of the Harlem Renaissance proclaim the legacy of Edmonia Lewis Meta Vaux Warrick Fuller Augusta Savage Selma Burke Elizabeth Prophet Lois Maillou Jones Elizabeth Catlett and many other painters sculptors and printmakers In a time of more rigid gender roles women artists faced the added struggle of raising families and attempting to gain support and encouragement from their often reluctant spouses in order to pursue their art They also confronted the challenge of convincing their fellow male artists that they too should be seen as important contributors to the artistic innovation of the era The Black Arts Movement and the Black Panther Party in American Visual Culture Jo-Ann Morgan, 2018-12-17 This book examines a range of visual expressions of Black Power across American art and popular culture from 1965 through 1972 It begins with case studies of artist groups including Spiral OBAC and AfriCOBRA who began questioning Western aesthetic traditions and created work that honored leaders affirmed African American culture and embraced an African lineage Also showcased is an Oakland Museum exhibition of 1968 called New Perspectives in Black Art as a way to consider if Black Panther Party activities in the neighborhood might have impacted local artists work The concluding chapters concentrate on the relationship between selected Black Panther Party members and visual culture focusing on how they were covered by the mainstream press and how they self represented to promote Party doctrine and agendas Women and Migration Deborah Willis, Ellyn Toscano, Kalia Brooks Nelson, 2019-03-08 The essays in this book chart how women's profound and turbulent experiences of migration have been articulated in writing photography art and film As a whole the volume gives an impression of a wide range of migratory events from women's perspectives covering the Caribbean Diaspora refugees and slavery through the various lenses of politics and war love and family The contributors which include academics and artists offer both personal and critical points of view on the artistic and historical repositories of these experiences Selfies motherhood violence and Hollywood all feature in this substantial treasure trove of women's joy and suffering disaster and delight place memory and identity This collection appeals to artists and scholars of the humanities particularly within the social sciences though there is much to recommend it to creatives seeking inspiration or counsel on the issue of migratory experiences The Art of Solidarity Jessica Stites Mor, Maria del Carmen Suescun Pozas, 2018-10-17 The Cold War claimed many lives and inflicted tremendous psychological pain throughout the Americas. The extreme polarization that resulted from pitting capitalism against communism held most of the creative and productive energy of the twentieth century captive. Many artists responded to Cold War struggles by engaging in activist art practice using creative expression to mobilize social change. The Art of Solidarity examines how these creative practices in the arts and culture contributed to transnational solidarity campaigns that connected people across the Americas from the early twentieth century through the Cold War and its immediate aftermath. This collection of original essays is divided into four chronological sections: cultural and artistic production in the pre-Cold War era that set the stage for transnational solidarity; organizing early artistic responses to the rise of Cold War polarization and state repression; the centrality of cultural and artistic production in social movements of solidarity and solidarity activism beyond movements; Essay topics range widely across regions and social groups from the work of lesbian activists in Mexico City in the late 1970s and 1980s to the exchanges and transmissions of folk music practices from Cuba to the United States to the uses of Chilean arpilleras to oppose and protest the military dictatorship. While previous studies have focused on politically engaged artists or examined how artist communities have created solidarity movements, this book is one of the first to merge both perspectives.

Elizabeth Catlett in the Image of the People Malanie Anne Herzog, 2005 Against the Grain Lowery Sims, 2012-10-30 Focusing on some of the most interesting conceptual/technical trends in wood working today, Against the Grain includes approximately 65 vessels, sculptures, furniture, and installations created since 2000 which provocatively defy categories and celebrate the visual dynamics of wood. The book demonstrates how contemporary creators have engaged the medium of wood in strategies that might be described as postmodern, employing mimicry, assemblage, virtuosity, and whimsy with a serious purpose. Environmental issues also are prominently addressed. Artists represented include Derek Bencomo, Gary Carsley, Hunt Clark, Piet Hein Eek, David Ellsworth, Sebastian Errazuriz, Bud Latven, Mark Lindquist, Thomas Loeser, Sarah Oppenheimer, William Pope L., Martin Puryear, Marc Andre Robinson, Laurel Roth, Betye Saar, Courtney Smith, Elisa Stroyk, Alison, Elizabeth Taylor, and Ursula von Rydingsvard. Encyclopedia of African American Artists dele jegede, 2009-03-20 African American heritage is rich with stories of family, community, faith, love, adaptation, and adjustment, grief and suffering, all captured in a variety of media by artists intimately familiar with them. From traditional media of painting and artists such as Horace Pippin and Faith Ringgold to photography of Gordon Parks and new media of Sam Gilliam and Martin Puryear, installation art, the African American experience is reflected across generations and works. Eight pages of color plates and black and white images throughout the book introduce both favorite and new artists to students and adult readers alike. Ain't Got No Home Erin Royston Battat, 2014-03-17 Most scholarship on the mass migrations of African Americans and southern whites during and after the Great Depression treats those migrations as separate phenomena strictly divided along racial lines In this engaging interdisciplinary work Erin Royston Battat argues instead that we should understand these Depression era migrations as interconnected responses to the capitalist collapse and political upheavals of the early twentieth century During the 1930s and 1940s Battat shows writers and artists of both races created migration stories specifically to bolster the black white Left alliance Defying rigid critical categories Battat considers a wide variety of media including literary classics by John Steinbeck and Ann Petry lost novels by Sanora Babb and William Attaway hobo novellas images of migrant women by Dorothea Lange and Elizabeth Catlett popular songs and histories and ethnographies of migrant shipyard workers This vibrant rereading and recovering of the period's literary and visual culture expands our understanding of the migration narrative by uniting the political and aesthetic goals of the black and white literary Left and illuminating the striking interrelationship between American populism and civil rights

Death's Futurity Sampada Aranke, 2023-01-13 In Death's Futurity Sampada Aranke examines the importance of representations of death to Black liberation Aranke analyzes posters photographs journalism and films that focus on the murders of Black Panther Party members Lil Bobby Hutton Fred Hampton and George Jackson to construct a visual history of the 1960s and 1970s Black Power era She shows how Black radicals used these murders to engage in political action that imagined Black futurity from the position of death Photographs of Hutton that appeared on flyers and posters called attention to the condition of his death while the 1971 documentary The Murder of Fred Hampton enabled the consideration of Hampton's afterlife through visual meditations on his murder Printmaking and political posters surrounding Jackson's murder marked the transition from Black Power to the prison abolition movement in ways that highlighted the relationship between surveillance policing incarceration and anti Black violence By foregrounding the photographed collaged filmed and drawn Black body Aranke demonstrates that corporeality and corpses are crucial to the efforts to shape visions of a Black future free from white supremacy Elizabeth Catlett Dalila Scruggs,2024-10-04 A book highlighting the work of pioneering Black printmaker sculptor and activist Elizabeth Catlett Accomplished printmaker and sculptor avowed feminist and lifelong activist Elizabeth Catlett 1915 2012 built a remarkable career around intersecting passions for formal rigor and social justice This book accompanying a major traveling retrospective offers a revelatory look at the artist and her nearly century long life highlighting overlooked works alongside iconic masterpieces Catlett's activism and artistic expression were deeply connected and she protested the injustices of her time throughout her life Her work in printmaking and sculpture draws on organic abstraction the modernism of the United States and Mexico and African art to center the experiences of Black and Mexican women Catlett attended Howard University studied with the painter Grant Wood joined the Harlem artistic community and worked with a leftist graphics workshop in Mexico where she lived in exile after the US accused her of communism and barred her re entry into her home country The book's essays address a range of topics including Catlett's early development as an artist activist the impact of political exile on her work her pedagogical legacy her achievement as a social realist printmaker her work with the arts community of Chicago's South Side and the diverse influences that shaped her practice "American Women Artists, 1935-1970" Helen Langa,2017-07-05 Numerous American women artists built successful professional careers in the mid twentieth century while confronting challenging cultural transitions shifts in stylistic avant gardism harsh political transformations and changing gender expectations for both women and men These social and political upheavals provoked complex intellectual and aesthetic tensions Critical discourses about style and expressive value were also renegotiated while still privileging masculinist concepts of aesthetic authenticity In these contexts women artists developed their careers by adopting innovative approaches to contemporary subjects techniques and media However while a few women working during these decades have gained significant recognition many others are still consigned to historical obscurity The essays in this volume take varied approaches to revising this historical silence Two focus on evidence of gender biases in several exhibitions and contemporary critical writings the rest discuss individual artists complex relationships to mainstream developments with attention to gender and political biases cultural innovations and the influence of racial ethnic diversity Several also explore new interpretative directions to open alternative possibilities for evaluating women's aesthetic and formal choices Through its complex nuanced approach to issues of gender and female agency this volume offers valuable and exciting new scholarship in twentieth century American art history and feminist studies Elizabeth Catlett Melanie Herzog, 2005 Painter sculptor and printmaker Elizabeth Catlett b 1915 played an influential role in America's African American and Mexico's revolutionary art communities in the mid twentieth century Catlett studied at the University of Iowa where she briefly worked with Grant Wood the School of the Art Institute of Chicago and the Art Students League in New York before moving to Mexico in 1947 Focusing on Catlett's evocative Negro Woman series from 1946-47 this book reveals Catlett's commitment to social and political issues All of the fifteen linoleum prints are beautifully reproduced and together address the harsh reality of black women's labor renowned historical heroines such as Sojourner Truth Harriet Tubman and Phillis Wheatley and the fears struggles and achievements of ordinary African American women Other notable works by Catlett are also included and an absorbing essay by distinguished scholar Melanie Anne Herzog analyzes the artist's powerful work from a biographical perspective Publisher's description

Characters of Blood Celeste-Marie Bernier, 2012 Across the centuries the acts and arts of black heroism have inspired a provocative experimental and self-reflexive intellectual political and aesthetic tradition In Characters of Blood Celeste Marie Bernier illuminates the ways in which six iconic men and women Toussaint Louverture Nathaniel Turner Sengbe Pieh Sojourner Truth Frederick Douglass and Harriet Tubman challenged the dominant conceptualizations of their histories and played a key role in the construction of an alternative visual and textual archive While these figures have survived as symbolic touchstones Bernier contends that scholars have yet to do justice to their complex bodies of work or their multifaceted lives Adopting a comparative and transatlantic approach to her subjects remarkable life stories the author analyzes a wealth of creative work from literature drama and art to public monuments religious tracts and historical narratives to show how it represents enslaved heroism throughout the United States Africa and the Caribbean In mapping this black diasporic tradition of resistance Bernier intends not only to reveal the limitations and distortions on record but also to complicate the definitions of black heroism that have been restricted by ideological boundaries between heroic and anti-heroic sites and sights of struggle
