Koustinoudi,2011-12-16 The Split Subject of Narration in Elizabeth Gaskell s First Person Fiction analyzes a number of Elizabeth Gaskell s first person works through a post modern perspective employing such theoretical frameworks as psychoanalytic theory narratology and gender theory It attempts to explore the problematics of Victorian subjectivity bringing into focus the ways in which both her realistic and Gothic texts undercut and interrogate post Romantic assumptions about an autonomous and coherent speaking and or narrating subject The essential argument of the book is that the mid nineteenth century narrating I in its communal voyeuristic and Gothic manifestations emerges as painfully divided lacking unstable ailing and hence unreliable pre figuring at the same time later forms of self conscious narration in fiction Furthermore it is also exposed as performative one that can be seen as a simulacrum without an original and consequently at odds with post Romantic empiricist assumptions about the factuality centrality and rationality of the human subject while at the same time clinging to illusions of autonomy Plagued by its own self awareness the narrating I is alienated both from itself as well as from those it attempts to represent including its own narrated counterpart To this effect it argues that throughout a trajectory of configurations psychic investments and imaginary identifications embedded in and conditioned by the workings of desire and ideology both of which underpin discursive and representational practices narrative subjectivity in Gaskell's first person fiction manifests itself as the product of a misrecognized encounter between the subject who narrates and that which is being narrated Both are essentially unable to see their split character and the alienating chasm opened up between them for the former on the level of narration and for the latter on a thematic level

Adapting Gaskell Loredana Salis, 2014-02-28 This book offers a range of perspectives on Elizabeth Gaskell and adaptation The contributors Alan Shelston Raffaella Antinucci Thomas Recchio Brenda McKay Katherine Byrne Patricia Marchesi Marcia Marchesi and Loredana Salis discuss the afterlives of Gaskell's fiction from the author as adaptor of her own work to the role of the BBC in re-inventing Gaskell's narratives Loredana Salis is to be congratulated for bringing together a collection that tackles the remediation of Gaskell's fiction from Gaskell's own time to the 21st century enabling her to join those authors most prominently Shakespeare Austen and Dickens who have received full length book studies on adaptations of their work The collection as a whole seems to confirm the notion that since the inception of film the number of adaptations of an author's work equates to the writer's canonical status No doubt this book will prompt many more investigations into the adaptability of Elizabeth Gaskell's fiction Deborah Cartmell De Montfort University Leicester

Biographical Misrepresentations of British Women Writers Brenda Ayres, 2017-11-08 This book is an investigation of the biases contradictions errors ambiguities gaps and historical contexts in biographies of controversial British women who published during the long nineteenth century many of them left unchecked and perpetuated from publication to publication Fourteen scholars analyze the agenda problems and strengths of biographical material highlighting the flaws deficiencies and influences that have distorted the portraits of women such as Lady Mary Wortley Montagu Mary Wollstonecraft Mary Hays Sydney Owenson Letitia Elizabeth Landon Felicia Hemans Elizabeth Barrett Browning Caroline Norton Elizabeth Gaskell Charlotte Bront Lady Florence Dixie George Eliot and Edith Simcox Through exposing distortions this fascinating study demonstrates that biographies are often more about the biographer than they are about the biographee and that they are products of the time in which they are written
