treatments and astute observations about her world and herself this engaging biography offers a rare woman's first person perspective into the tumultuous years leading up to and through the Revolutionary War and unsettles many common assumptions regarding the place and power of women in the eighteenth century Eliza's Secret Mark Dubowski, 2002 When Eliza searches for a missing cheetah cub and then tries to help a herd of elephants she risks losing her ability to talk to the animals Second Journal to Eliza Laurence Sterne, William Combe, 1929 Eliza Cook's Journal, 1850 Eliza Cook's Journal Eliza Cook, 1852 The journal of Eliza and various letters by Laurence Sterne and Elizabeth Draper Laurence Sterne, 1904 Eliza Scidmore Diana P. Parsell, 2023 Deeply researched and briskly written this first ever biography of Eliza Scidmore the pioneering journalist who fought to bring Japanese cherry trees to Washington DC draws heavily on her own writings to follow major events of a half century as seen through the eyes of a remarkable woman who was far ahead of her time Travelling Servants Kathryn Walchester, 2019-07-26 This book outlines the contribution made by servants to domestic and Continental travel and travel writing between 1750 and 1850 Aiming to re position British and European travel during this period as a site of work as well as leisure Kathryn Walchester provides commentary and analysis of texts by servants not addressed in current scholarship By reading texts contrapuntally this book draws attention to repeated tropes and common patterns in the ways in which servants are featured in travelogues and in so doing offers an account of alternative modes of experiencing and writing about the Home Tour and the Grand Tour Eliza Lynch Michael Lillis, Ronan Fanning, 2009-09-11 Escaping a desperate marriage at the age of 20 Eliza Lynch fled Ireland to Paris where her extraordinary beauty and intelligence won the attention of the soon to be dictator of Paraguay Francisco Solano Lopez Although the couple never married Eliza bore him seven children and was seen as the queen of Paraguay adored by the public and admired for her glamour and sophistication But Eliza and Francisco's love was damned with the outbreak of the infamous War of the Triple Alliance 1864-70 the bloodiest in South America's history This is a unique love story chronicling a romance that endured a desperate turn of fortunes taking them from a life of royalty to a life on the run and culminating with the now iconic image of Lynch burying both Lopez and their eldest son in a shallow grave with her bare hands after they had been killed by Brazilian troops Dubbed The Irish Evita Eliza Lynch born in Charleville County Cork was the most famous woman in all of South America in the nineteenth century Her reputation was destroyed by the opposition in the wake of the War of the Triple Alliance but in this story of wealth war love loyalty loss and above all survival Eliza is revealed as a woman who showed extraordinary courage in the face a series of unspeakable horrors The authors have discovered the truth about Eliza's Irish origins and the cruel deception of her marriage at the age of sixteen to a duplicitous French Army officer They reconstruct the systematic invention of her image as a prostitute around her first meeting with Solano Lopez in Paris in 1854 Eliza Lynch was a courageous woman who was adored by the ordinary women of Paraguay and who tried to help many victims of an appalling war The paranoid Lopez on discovering that his family and colleagues had been conspiring against him trusted only Eliza and their relationship became a love story of the damned The book reveals why the Emperor of Brazil against the advice of his generals pursued Leopold to his death in 1870 Eliza buried him and their eldest son in the jungle with her bare hands Eliza defied her enemies in a pamphlet she published in 1875 here translated for the first time when she returned to face her enemies in Paraguay The authors exclusive access to the unpublished journals of Eliza's daughter in law shows how scurrilous writers in South America Britain and the US finally broke her spirit and how she died a burnt out case in Paris in 1886 In 1961 a later dictator General Stroessner declared her the national heroine of Paraguay This book restores her to her rightful place among the most remarkable and brave women in modern history Now a subject of a new Irish documentary by Alan Gilson the film that helps rescue one of the great Irish lives of the 19th century from obscurity while opening a fascinating window onto what is perhaps South America's least known country and the apocalyptic conflagration that still haunts its society

Women's Travel Writings in India 1777-1854 Carl Thompson, Katrina O'Loughlin, Éadaoin Agnew, Betty Hagglund, 2022-07-30 The memsahibs of the British Raj in India are well known figures today frequently depicted in fiction TV and film In recent years they have also become the focus of extensive scholarship Less familiar to both academics and the general public however are the eighteenth and early nineteenth century precursors to the memsahibs of the Victorian and Edwardian era Yet British women also visited and resided in India in this earlier period witnessing first hand the tumultuous expansionist decades in which the East India Company established British control over the subcontinent Some of these travellers produced highly regarded accounts of their experiences thereby inaugurating a rich tradition of women's travel writing about India In the process they not only reported events and developments in the subcontinent they also contributed to them helping to shape opinion and policy on issues such as colonial rule religion and social reform This new set in the Chawton House Library Women's Travel Writing series assembles seven of these accounts six by British authors Jemima Kindersley Maria Graham Eliza Fay Ann Deane Julia Maitland and Mary Sherwood and one by an American Harriet Newell Their narratives here reproduced for the first time in reset scholarly editions were published between 1777 and 1854 and recount journeys undertaken in India or periods of residence there between the 1760s and the 1830s Collectively they showcase the range of women's interests and activities in India and also the variety of narrative forms voices and personae available to them as travel writers Some stand squarely in the tradition of Enlightenment ethnography others show the growing influence of Evangelical beliefs But all disrupt any lingering stereotypes about women's passivity reticence and lack of public agency in this period when colonial women were not yet as sequestered and debarred from cross cultural contact as they would later be during the Raj Their narratives are consequently a useful resource to students and researchers across multiple fields and disciplines including women's writing travel writing colonial and postcolonial studies the history of women's educational and missionary work and Romantic era and nineteenth century literature
