American Women Writers, 1900-1945 Laurie Champion,2000-09-30 Women writers have been traditionally excluded from literary canons and not until recently have scholars begun to rediscover or discover for the first time neglected women writers and their works This reference includes alphabetically arranged entries on 58 American women authors who wrote between 1900 and 1945 Each entry is written by an expert contributor and discusses a particular author s biography her major works and themes and the critical response to her writings The entries close with extensive primary and secondary bibliographies and the volume concludes with a list of works for further reading The period surveyed by this reference is rich and diverse Modernism and the Harlem Renaissance two major artistic movements occurred between 1900 and 1945 and the entries included here demonstrate the significant contributions women made to these movements The volume as a whole strives to reflect the diversity of American culture and includes entries for African American Native American Mexican American and Chinese American women It includes well known writers such as Willa Cather and Eudora Welty along with more neglected ones such as Anita Scott Coleman and Sui Sin Far Twentieth Century Fiction George Woodcock,1983-04-01 Southern Women Novelists and the Civil War Sharon Talley,2014-03-30 During and after the Civil War southern women played a critical role in shaping the South s evolving collective memory by penning journals and diaries historical accounts memoirs and literary interpretations of the war While a few of these writings most notably Mary Chesnut s diaries and Margaret Mitchell s novel Gone with the Wind have been studied in depth by numerous scholars until now there has been no comprehensive examination of Civil War novels by southern women In this welcome study Sharon Talley explores works by fifteen such writers illuminating the role that southern women played in fashioning cultural identity in the region Beginning with Augusta Jane Evans s Macaria and Sallie Rochester Ford s Raids and Romance of Morgan and His Men which were published as the war still raged Talley offers a chronological consideration of the novels with informative introductions for each time period She examines Reconstruction works by Marion Harland Mary Ann Cruse and Rebecca Harding Davis novels of the Redeemed South and the turn of the century by Mary Noailles Murfree Ellen Glasgow and Mary Johnston and narratives by Evelyn Scott Margaret Mitchell and Caroline Gordon from the Modern period that spanned the two World Wars Analysis of Margaret Walker s Jubilee 1966 the first critically acclaimed Civil War novel by an African American woman of the South as well as other post World War II works by Kaye Gibbons Josephine Humphreys and Alice Randall offers a fitting conclusion to Talley s study by addressing the inaccuracies in the romantic myth of the Old South that Gone with the Wind most famously engraved on the nation s consciousness Informed by feminist poststructural and cultural studies theory Talley's close readings of these various novels ultimately refute the notion of a monolithic interpretation of the Civil War presenting instead unique and diverse approaches to balancing fact and fiction in the long period of artistic production concerning this singular traumatic event in American history Sharon Talley professor of English at Texas A M University Corpus Christi is the author of Ambrose Bierce and the Dance of Death and Student Companion to Herman Melville Her articles have appeared in American Imago Journal of Men's Studies and Nineteenth Century Prose

Rubin, Jr., 1999-03-01 One of the country's more perceptive younger critics Louis Rubin is well known for his commentaries on the literature of the South These essays selected from his critical works over a period of more than a dozen years reflect his wider concern with the whole spectrum of American literature In the title essay Rubin treats tired literary critics and the often heard pronouncement that the novel is dead He argues that the response of novelists to our difficult and demanding times will doubtless be what the response of writers to difficult and demanding times always has been namely difficult and demanding works of literature Another essay The Experience Difference Southerners and Jews is a perceptive examination of the parallels in different factors and cultural experiences which brought Southern and Jewish writers to prominence Rubin explores the potential pitfalls for Southern writers today in an essay called Getting Out From Under William Faulkner Edgar Allan Poe's position in American literary history and H L Mencken's role as a literary critic and an artist of destruction who cleared the way and created an audience for the major American writers of the twenties are dealt with in other essays The collection includes imaginative studies of Henry James Mark Twain Edmund Wilson and Karl Shapiro Several Southern writers including Faulkner Ellen Glasgow Robert Penn Warren Flannery O'Connor and James Branch Cabell also come under Rubin's scrutiny
