Eloge De La Philosophie:

Éloge de la Philosophie Maurice Merleau-Ponty, 1965 Eloge de la philosophie antique Pierre Hadot, 1997 Dans toutes les écoles seront ainsi pratiqués des exercices destinés à assurer le progrès spirituel vers l'atavisme de la sagesse des exercices de la raison qui seront pour lui analogues à l'entraînement de l'athlète et aux pratiques d'une cure médicale. D'une manière générale ils consistent surtout dans le contrôle de soi et dans la méditation. Le contrôle de soi est fondamentalement attention soimême, vigilance tendue dans le stoïcisme, renoncement aux désirs superflus dans l'ascétisme, Jacques Derrida (Routledge Revivals) William Schultz, Lewis L.B. Fried, 2016-06-17 First published in 1992 this book represents the first major attempt to compile a bibliography of Derrida's work and scholarship about his work. It attempts to be comprehensive rather than selective, listing primary and secondary works from the year of Derrida's Master's thesis in 1954 up until 1991 and is extensively annotated. It arranges under article type a huge number of works from scholars across numerous fields reflecting the interdisciplinary and controversial nature of Deconstruction. The substantial introduction and annotations also make this bibliography in part a critical guide and as such will make a highly useful reference tool for those studying his philosophy.

Was ist Philosophie im Mittelalter? Qu'est-ce que la philosophie au moyen âge? What is Philosophy in the Middle Ages? Jan A. Aertsen, Andreas Speer, 2012-12-17 The series MISCELLANEA MEDIAEVALIA was founded by Paul Wilpert in 1962 and since then has presented research from the Thomas Institute of the University of Cologne. The cornerstone of the series is provided by the proceedings of the biennial Cologne Medieval Studies Conferences which were established over 50 years ago by Josef Koch, the founding director of the Institute. The interdisciplinary nature of these conferences is reflected in the proceedings. The MISCELLANEA MEDIAEVALIA gather together papers from all disciplines represented in Medieval Studies: medieval history, philosophy, theology, together with art and literature. All contribute to an overall perspective of the Middle Ages.

The Legacy of Pierre Bourdieu Simon Susen, Bryan S. Turner, 2011 These critical essays bring together prominent scholars in the social sciences to consider the diverse nature of the legacy of Pierre Bourdieu in contemporary social theory. In offering a range of perspectives on the continuing relevance of Bourdieu's sociology, the essays of this volume examine Bourdieu's relationship to both classical and contemporary social theory. This collection constructs an intellectual bridge between French-speaking and English-speaking accounts of Bourdieu's work.

Logical Fictions in Medieval Literature and Philosophy Virginie Greene, 2014-10-23 In the twelfth and thirteenth centuries new ways of storytelling and inventing fictions appeared in the French-speaking areas of Europe. This new art still influences our global culture of fiction. Virginie Greene explores the relationship between fiction and the development of neo Aristotelian logic during this period through a close examination of seminal literary and philosophical texts by major medieval authors such as Anselm of Canterbury Ab lard and Chr tien de Troyes This study of Old French logical fictions encourages a broader theoretical reflection about fiction as a universal human trait and a defining element of the history of Western philosophy and literature Additional close readings of classical Greek philosophers Plato and Aristotle and modern analytic philosophy including the work of Bertrand Russell and Rudolf Carnap demonstrate peculiar traits of Western rationalism and expose its ambivalent relationship to fiction Éloge de M. The Ground Between Veena Das, Michael Jackson, Arthur Kleinman, Bhargupati Singh, 2014-04-21 The guiding inspiration of this book is the attraction and distance that mark the relation between anthropology and philosophy This theme is explored through encounters between individual anthropologists and particular regions of philosophy Several of the most basic concepts of the discipline including notions of ethics politics temporality self and other and the nature of human life are products of a dialogue both implicit and explicit between anthropology and philosophy These philosophical undercurrents in anthropology also speak to the question of what it is to experience our being in a world marked by radical difference and otherness In The Ground Between twelve leading anthropologists offer intimate reflections on the influence of particular philosophers on their way of seeing the world and on what ethnography has taught them about philosophy Ethnographies of the mundane and the everyday raise fundamental issues that the contributors grapple with in both their lives and their thinking With directness and honesty they relate particular philosophers to matters such as how to respond to the suffering of the other how concepts arise in the give and take of everyday life and how to be attuned to the world through the senses Their essays challenge the idea that philosophy is solely the province of professional philosophers and suggest that certain modalities of being in the world might be construed as ways of doing philosophy Contributors Jo o
