Elsewhere And Back New And Selected Poems

Mairi MacInnes

Elsewhere And Back New And Selected Poems:

Twentieth Century Poetry Peter Robinson, 2005 Peter Robinson's third book of literary criticism presents a sequence of chapters exploring ways that selves and situations interact and become imaginatively identified with each other in poems. Readings of works by Ezra Pound, Basil Bunting, Louis MacNeice, W. S. Graham, Elizabeth Bishop, Allen Curnow, Charles Tomlinson, Mairi MacInnes, Tom Raworth, and Roy Fisher share an interest in how poems can be both attached to and detached from the culture, society, and conditions in which they were written. These studies draw out and underline both the ubiquity and elusiveness of the self in the situation of the text. The poems studied here are also discussed as focal points for relations between readerly and writerly selves and their situations in and over time. Elsewhere & Back Mairi MacInnes, 1993 Reviewing Mairi MacInnes's Elsewhere Back Helen Dunmore praised her restless ranging poems, noting how her poems hint at rather than state in order to create a powerful sense of the identity of place. Place always seems more important than the characters who are temporarily rooted in it. Observer International Who's Who in Poetry 2005 Europa Publications, 2004-08-02 The 13th edition of the International Who's Who in Poetry is a unique and comprehensive guide to the leading lights and freshest talent in poetry today. Containing biographies of more than 4,000 contemporary poets worldwide, this essential reference work provides truly international coverage. In addition to the well-known poets, talented up-and-coming writers are also profiled. Contents: Each entry provides full career history and publication details. An international appendices section lists prizes and past prize winners, organizations, magazines, and publishers. A summary of poetic forms and rhyme schemes. The career profile section is supplemented by lists of Poets Laureate, Oxford University professors of poetry, poet winners of the Nobel Prize for Literature, winners of the Pulitzer Prize for American Poetry, and of the Queen's Gold medal and other poetry prizes. The Ghostwriter Mairi MacInnes, 1999 In The Ghostwriter Mairi MacInnes's characters have become more rooted but are still restless and edgy. Her focus now is more on the people set against her North Country landscapes, on her fragility in the face of life, on tensions and anxieties. Consorting with Angels Deryn Rees-Jones, 2005 In this pioneering study Deryn Rees-Jones argues that the poetic traditions of the 20th century must be radically rethought in light of the formal and thematic experimentation of three generations of women poets. Modern Women Poets Deryn Rees-Jones, 2005 An anthology that draws together the work of women poets from Britain, Ireland, and America as one version of a history of women's poetic writing, while not isolating women's writing from its intersection with the work of male contemporaries. It allows the reader to trace women's negotiations with one another's work. Scottish Literary Journal, 1991 Selected Poems Rudyard Kipling, 2006-06-29 Rudyard Kipling (1865-1936) is often regarded as the unofficial Laureate of the British Empire. Yet his writing reveals a ferociously independent figure at times violently opposed to the dominant political and literary tendencies of his age. Arranged in chronological order, this diverse selection of his poetry shows the development of Kipling's talent, his deepening maturity, and the growing sombreness of his poetic vision. Ranging from early exhilarating celebrations of British expansion overseas including Mandalay and Gunga Din to the dignified and inspirational If and the later deeply moving Epitaphs of the War inspired by the death of Kipling's only son it clearly illustrates the scope and originality of his work It also offers a compelling insight into the Empire both at its peak and during its decline in the early years of the twentieth century

Like a Dark Rabbi Norman Finkelstein, 2019-09-15 Wallace Stevens dark rabbi from his poem Le Monocle de Mon Oncle provides a title for this collection of essays on the lordly study of modern Jewish poetry in English Including chapters on such poets as Charles Reznikoff Allen Grossman Chana Bloch and Michael Heller this volume explores the tensions between religious and secular worldviews in recent Jewish poetry the often conflicted linguistic and cultural matrix from which this poetry arises and the complicated ways in which Jewish tradition shapes the sensibilities of not only Jewish but also non Jewish poets Finkelstein described as one of American poetry's indispensable makers Lawrence Joseph whose previous critical work has been called the exemplary study of the religious aspect of the works of contemporary American poets Peter O Leary considers large literary and cultural trends while never losing sight of the particular formal powers of individual poems In Like a Dark Rabbi he offers a passionate argument for the importance of Jewish American poetry to modern Jewish culture and to American poetry as it engages with the contradictions of contemporary life
