Baroness Elsa Irene Gammel, 2003-08-29 The first biography of the enigmatic dadaist known as the Baroness Elsa von Freytag Loringhoven Elsa von Freytag Loringhoven 1874 1927 is considered by many to be the first American dadaist as well as the mother of dada An innovator in poetic form and an early creator of junk sculpture the Baroness was best known for her sexually charged often controversial performances Some thought her merely crazed others thought her a genius The editor Margaret Anderson called her perhaps the only figure of our generation who deserves the epithet extraordinary Yet despite her great notoriety and influence until recently her story and work have been little known outside the circle of modernist scholars In Baroness Elsa Irene Gammel traces the extraordinary life and work of this daring woman viewing her in the context of female dada and the historical battles fought by women in the early twentieth century Striding through the streets of Berlin Munich New York and Paris wearing such adornments as a tomato soup can bra teaspoon earrings and black lipstick the Baroness erased the boundaries between life and art between the everyday and the outrageous between the creative and the dangerous Her art objects were precursors to dada objects of the teens and twenties her sound and visual poetry were far more daring than those of the male modernists of her time and her performances prefigured feminist body art and performance art by nearly half a century Art Of The Postmodern Era Irving Sandler, 2018-05-30 Sandler discusses the major and minor artists and their works movements ideas attitudes and styles and the social and cultural context of the period He covers post modernist art theory the art market and consumer society American and European art and artists are included Expressionism (World of Art) Colin Rhodes, 2025-05-06 A new comprehensive overview of expressionism tracing its evolution from the nineteenth century to the present day Expressionist artists believed in art's ability to communicate emotion irrespective of any representational or narrative content In this comprehensive introduction to one of the most radical artistic movements of our time writer artist curator and educator Colin Rhodes traces the thread of expressionist thought from the nineteenth century to the present day mapping its various manifestations across Europe and the US as well as parts of Africa Asia and South America By paying particular attention to nuanced issues of gender sexuality and cultural appropriation Rhodes challenges the received art historical narrative and reassesses it in the context of broader twentieth and twenty first century artistic practice Generously illustrated the diverse selection of artists featured in this book range from Wassily Kandinsky Erma Bossi Francis Bacon and Mark Rothko to Ursula Schultze Bluhm Gillian Ayres Purvis Young and Jad Fadojutimi The Residues, Part One Stephen Barber, 2020-12-01 Beginning in 1993 with Artaud Blows and Bombs Stephen Barber has quietly independently forged one of the most singular and enriching bodies of work in contemporary writing David Peace Over the three decades since 1990 Stephen Barber has written many essays and experimental writings around film and digital arts For the first time this collection in two parts assembles all of those writings many otherwise unavailable over seventy in all Many of those writings explore unknown elements of vital bodies of work that remain inspirational for contemporary art writing and film Others interrogate the transmutations of cities especially those of Europe and of Japan across those three decades anatomizing their urban futures These writings are often residues from or accompaniments to Stephen Barber's thirty books short writings which possess their own distinctive and accumulating presence and can display the interrogative resilience to explore preoccupations with greater intensity and pointedness than an entire book THE RESIDUES PART ONE collects 38 writings on subjects including Antonin Artaud Jean Genet Tatsumi Hijikata Pierre Guyotat and Friedrich Nietzsche Graphic Details Sarah
