Wisdom Crieth Out! Demetrice M. Gates, 2013-07-24 Wisdom Crieth Out is a book for everyone It is not bias nor prejudice If inspiration is what you are looking for look no further it has all the inspiration you need Restless Spirit Bruce G. Epperly, 2022-07-06 Are you afraid of the Holy Spirit being active in your church Are you willing to admit it The Holy Spirit has been a kind of third rate member of the trinity in the theological writings of mainline and progressive Christians It seems that the Spirit brings disorder to communities spiritual arrogance to those who claim to have the Spirit and frequently doctrinal confusion We'd rather not have something in our churches that goes where it wants and doesn't give account for where it's coming from and where it's going But the biblical picture of the Spirit is one of action change and renewal Perhaps there is a place for this Spirit in a movement claiming the title of progressive Bruce Epperly has experienced church from many perspectives He has sat in conservative churches where too much Spirit might be seen as inciting division and heresy He's been in progressive churches where the Spirit is often considered peripheral He's a process theologian and the Spirit as he points out in this book is often of tertiary concern But he has also observed Spirit in action and he thinks we do well to consider this third element of the trinity What does it mean for the Spirit to be active Is it safe Can it be controlled Can you keep it bound by your doctrinal statements It should be active and you cannot control it Epperly argues in this book You shouldn't control it Nor does it coercively control you But it does drive us to new life to new adventures and perhaps to transformed understandings of the universe in which we live Are you ready to join in this joyous adventure Someone

Beautiful to God Chu Ilo, Stan, 2020 Someone Beautiful to God conveys the commonality of our human experience and the spiritual bond that holds us together as one family

You Are More Precious than Gold Sarah Evangeline, 2017-03-24 As women we are often told to live for God and follow Him but how can we be expected to do this if we don't have the proper tools and teaching If young women don't know how to properly live for God they'll start to follow the world's definition of beauty True beauty is all about inner beauty and it's something God has planted in each one of us God is our beauty mark and He needs to be rooted into every aspect of our being Embracing our inner beauty happens deep in our soul and allows us to be radiant from the inside out It affects all areas of one's life and it proves you are more precious than gold Sarah Evangeline has embraced her inner beauty through Christ and cannot stop until she shares this truth with other young women Throughout her book Sarah teaches and helps guide young women to the knowledge that they are adorned by the King the Creator of the universe It is time for you to cherish and embrace your inner beauty Will you join Sarah on this journey Will you make God your beauty mark

The Mystic in You Bruce G. Epperly, 2018-01-01 What is a mystic Bruce Epperly defines mystics as people who see holiness in everyday life You can be a mystic without denying the joys of your physical body fleeing society abandoning your family or disengaging from politics Practical and accessible The Mystic in You helps you become aware of the many ways you can experience God's presence in your daily life Yes you can be a mystic The many faces of mysticism described in this book invite you to become the mystic that suits your personality faith tradition and life experience Epperly introduces 12 individuals or groups of mystics through the ages including some from Jewish and Muslim traditions Saint Francis of Assisi Brother Lawrence The desert mothers and fathers The Baal Shem Tov Benedict of Nursia Howard Thurman The Celtic mystics Etty Hillesum Hildegard of Bingen Rumi Mechthild of Magdeburg Julian of Norwich Each mystic had particular spiritual experiences that shaped his or her view of God and the world In each chapter Epperly guides you through four spiritual practices that can help deepen your relationship with God and open you to God's movement in your life

The Embrace of God's Mercy Michele Casella, 2019-11-19 On July 16 1983 in an abandoned house on an Italian hillside Sister Rita Petrozzi known today as Mother Elvira opened Comunit Cenacolo That dilapidated building quickly became God's hope filled answer to the desperate cries of the many lost lonely drug addicted young people who soon began knocking on its door seeking to be reborn A potent apostolate was born Today barely thirty six years later Comunit Cenacolo consists of seventy houses stretched across the globe that welcome thousands of young people struggling with drug or alcohol addictions as they search for meaning in life Mission houses in Africa Central America and South America shelter abandoned and orphaned street children inviting them too on a journey of rebirth in love Each house is imbued with God s mercy and forgiveness There young people live in a simple Christian family environment transformed by the healing powers of prayer work friendship sacrifice and love For decades now and on a daily basis Mother Elvira s humble spirituality has awakened hope and joy in the souls of the troubled and the lost giving each of them new life Open the pages of this wise uplifting book That same hope and joy can be yours

Embraced by the Father Susanne Scheppmann,2011-06-01 Women instinctively seek security They want to feel loved and protected by someone who cares for them For many women their earthly fathers failed miserably in this role In Embraced by the Father Susanne Scheppmann explains how God invites every woman to dance with Him as a daughter might stand on tiptoe on her daddy s feet to high step across the room Whether married widowed divorced or single God still desires for you to dance through life in His everlasting arms Through the metaphor of dance women will recognize the grace strength and security available to them through the names of God

The Artistic Vision Alex Sosler,Gary Ball,2024-07-25 When you look at the world what do you see As an artist your creativity stems from your vision The problem in the modern world is how often one s imagination is fragmented and reduced between worship and work the body and soul the material and the spiritual Written to practicing artists and those who pastor them The Artistic Vision encourages artists who long for a greater sense of purpose and a greater sense of wholeness proposing that seeing the material world as a shadow of spiritual realities will lead them toward an expression that joins faith and practice Drawing from the Oxford Movement and artistic examples like Christina Rossetti and Flannery O Connor Ball and Sosler present a sacramental way of seeing the world the invisible through the visible the spiritual through the material the divine through creation Interspersed with practical vignettes from artists and pastoral reflection The Artistic Vision helps artists regain an enchanted mysterious and reverent vision of life Artists neither have to check their faith at the studio door nor produce kitschy or easy art By creating with a sacramental vision they are seeing the world charged with the grandeur of God and inviting viewers into that participation

Garrett, 2013-07-24 Jurgen Moltmann and others contend that Christian theology and the church face a dual crisis one of relevance and the other of identity Despite making this pronouncement nearly forty years ago the church in the West continues to struggle with this crisis Several proposals have been espoused from the way of wisdom to the way of ecclesial praxis Yet little attention is given in Protestant theological discourse to the role God's beauty plays in bringing theology and ethics together By neglecting God's beauty for theological discourse we risk diminishing Christian worship witness and wisdom God's Beauty in Act addresses these issues in part by arguing that the redemptive creative suffering and glorious resurrection of Christ are the nexus of God's being beauty and Christian living God's beauty understood as the fittingness of the incarnate Son's actions in the Spirit to the Father's will radiates God's glory and draws perceivers into the dramatic movements of God's triune life These movements serve as the patterns that shape the imagination enabling participants to perform their parts creatively and fittingly in God's drama of redemption In doing so human beings flourish as they jettison false identities and realities of their own making that are incommensurate with God's purpose found in Christ by the Spirit

Pentecostal Theology and Jonathan Edwards Amos Yong, Steven M.

Studebaker, 2019-11-14 This volume brings America's theologian and one of the fastest growing forms of Christianity into dialogue Edwards is a fruitful source for Pentecostal investigation for historical and theological reasons Edwards and Pentecostals descend from a common historical tradition North American Evangelicalism From revivalism and religious charismatic experience to pneumatology they also share common theological interests Though sharing a common history and core theological concerns no critical conversation between Pentecostals and Edwards and their fields of scholarship has occurred This is the first volume that provides Pentecostal readings of Edwards theology that contribute to Pentecostal theology and Edwards scholarship The contributing essays offer examination of affections and the Spirit God and Salvation Church and culture and mission and witness

For Him Who Has Eyes to See Edmund J. Rybarczyk, 2016-09-30 Too many Christians are afraid of beauty This fear disconnects these Christians from their larger culture a culture that is increasingly visual increasingly aware of the presence and power of images and more commonly fascinated by the power of beauty and form This historical theological overview presents the thought of ten theologians and one philosopher in an attempt to give Christians helpful vocabulary concerning beauty and aesthetics It is time to use beauty and aesthetics for the mission of Christ And yet rather than simply parrot the larger post-Christian culture Christians and churches need to employ beauty and aesthetics in a manner that echoes God's own revelation creation and redemption through Jesus Christ We need to develop a sensitivity that can perceive beauties ignored We need theological framing that both respects the glory of God's handiwork and keeps it from becoming idolatrous We need to live with wonder for the bounty that routinely surrounds us In short we need eyes to see
