Family Formation in 21st Century Australia Genevieve Heard,Dharmalingam Arunachalam,2014-10-13 This book provides a detailed up to date snapshot of Australian family formation answering such questions as what do our families look like and how have they come to be this way The book applies sociological insights to a broad range of demographic trends painting a comprehensive picture of the changing ways in which Australians are creating families The first contemporary volume on the subject Family Formation in 21st Century Australia chronicles significant changes in partnering and fertility In the late 20th century cohabitation divorce and births outside marriage rose dramatically Yet family formation patterns continue to evolve requiring fresh analysis Even since the turn of the century divorce has stabilized and fertility has increased Using information from the 2011 Australian Census and from large scale surveys leading Australian academics dissect recent trends in cohabitation living apart together marriage interethnic partnering relationship dissolution repartnering contraceptive use and fertility Since there is more diversity in family formation patterns than ever before the book also considers differences between groups within the Australian population Which groups are more likely to marry cohabit or have higher fertility And how do patterns differ among indigenous migrant or same sex attracted Australians

The Changing Contract across Generations Vern L. Bengtson,W. Andrew Achenbaum,2024-11-01 Generational conflict has attracted considerable attention in the media and within academic circles during the past decade At the center of this collection of papers analyzing various facets of that conflict lie complex issues of generational equity issues that will remain important for the framing of public policy during the 1990s What do the young and the middle aged owe the elderly In discharging that debt to what extent are they able to provide for their own old age in a climate of changing notions of welfare What light do the longer perspectives of history shed on these issues What role do kinship gender and economic status play The papers commissioned by Bengtson and Achenbaum are intended to give greater analytic rigor to current debates The volume is interdisciplinary not only by theoretical intent but by the practical imperatives of gerontology More than a dozen sociologists economists historians demographers and policy analysts discuss the meanings and ambiguities that are inherent in terms such as generation equity compact contract and conflict in order to assess how relations between the age groups seem to vary from one sociohistorical context to the next This distinguished group of contributors raises comparative issues throughout assessing variations in generational ties by gender race class and geographic location Several project the extent to which recent changes in the political economy public philosophy and demographic structure of most modern societies presage greater conflicts or greater consensus in family members relationships and social ties

Intergenerational Relationships between Married Children and Their Parents in 21st Century Japan Reiko YAMATO,2021-07-19 East Asian societies have a patri lineal tradition in which a family successor must be a son and parents live with the heir and his family In Japan the patri lineal family system was prevalent among the samurai warrior class in the early modern period In the modern period it was stipulated in the civil code until the end of World War II This tradition however is changing with a background of gender equalization and fewer number of sons resulting from low birth rates Intergenerational Relationships between Married Children and Their Parents in 21st Century Japan is the first book that introduces a new perspective of the individualized marriage into a study of intergenerational relationships and examines how the patri lineal tradition is both changing and maintained This book deals with patri local coresidence matri local nearby residence and support exchange between adult children and their parents parents in law and offer a new framework for comparative studies of today s East Asian families

Patriarchal Lineages in 21st-Century Christian Courtship Elizabeth L. Shively,2020-08-10 Drawing from a study of courtship media and ethnographic work at purity retreats and home school conventions across the Midwest this is the first inquiry into modern Christian courtship an alternative to dating that asks young people to avoid both romance and sex until they are ready to be married Bridging sociological and historical studies of American Christianity with youth and girlhood studies literatures Elizabeth Shively finds that the courtship system is designed to shore up the patriarchal nuclear family structure at the center of conservative Christianity and ensure predictability in the face of emerging adulthood single young women work to embody ideals of luminous femininity and model themselves after archetypes such as the Proverbs 31 woman the stay at home daughter and the mission minded girl and courting couples strive to guard their hearts against premature emotional intimacy Nonetheless participants report that courtship like other relationships inevitably carries an element of risk and it ultimately fails to offer a substantial challenge to the sexist realities of youth dating culture

Lawyers in 21st-Century Societies Richard L Abel,Hilary Sommerlad,Ole Hammerslev,Ulrike Schultz,2022-05-05 This book presents an invaluable collection of essays by eminent scholars from a wide variety of disciplines on the main issues currently confronting legal professions across the world It does this through a comparative analysis of the data provided by the reports on 46 countries in its companion volume Lawyers in 21st Century Societies Vol 1 National Reports Hart 2020 Together these volumes build on the seminal collection Lawyers in Society Abel and Lewis 1988a 1988b 1989 The period since 1988 has seen an acceleration and intensification of the global socio economic cultural and political developments that in the 1980s were challenging traditional professional forms Together with the striking transformation of the world order as a result of the fall of the Soviet bloc neo liberalism globalisation the financialisation of capitalism technological innovations and the changing demography of lawyers these developments underscored the need for a new comparative exploration of the legal professional field This volume deepens the insights in volume 1 with chapters on legal professions in Africa Latin America the Islamic world emerging economies and former communist regimes It also addresses theoretical questions including the sociology of lawyers and other professions medicine accountancy state production the rule of law regional bodies large law firms access to justice technology casualisation cause lawyering diversity gender race and masculinity corruption ethics regulation and legal education Together with volume 1 it will inform and challenge conceptions of the contemporary profession and stimulate and support further research
