Ann Duffy Germaine Greer Alan Hollinghurst Doris Lessing Candia McWilliam Edna O'Brien Ruth Rendell Tom Stoppard Sue Townsend and Jeanette Winterson The new edition will include essays from ten new writers Friends, Foes and Families Judith Dimond, 2012-11-15 This Lent book will explore biblical stories and characters that exemplify a whole range of relationships in good times and bad Relationships will be defined very widely to include even people who don't see themselves in relationship The stories will be related to common emotions love friendship rivalry conflict trust hatred fear and linked with 21st century attitudes culture and moral dilemmas The book will cover OT stories as well as NT and explore dysfunctional as well as functional relationships to make clear how experiences of loss and failure which culminated for Jesus in the Cross are inevitably part of our relationships but can be healed by the Resurrection The making of choices is pivotal in our life journey and these meditations will focus on key moments of decision and their consequences This will often involve reflection on the power of temptation the ways in which biblical characters respond to it and their varying success in withstanding it The reflections will range widely but will start with Jesus' temptations and conclude with stories from Holy Week and Easter so that the relevance to Lent is maintained A History of Twentieth-Century British Women's Poetry Jane Dowson, Alice Entwistle, 2005-05-19 Publisher Description Distant Reading Peter Middleton, 2005 A dynamic account of the history practice and theory of poetry as performance Distant Reading considers poetry as performance offers new insights into its popularity and proposes a new history of its origins It also explores related issues concerning the reception of poetry the impact of the computer on how we read poetry the persistence of the letter 'I' in poems by avant garde poets the strangeness of the line break as a demand on the reader's attention and the idea of the reader as consumer These themes are connected by a historically contextualized and theoretically sophisticated discussion of contemporary American and British poets continuing to work in the modernist tradition The introductory essay establishes a new methodology that transforms close reading into what Middleton calls distant reading interpretive reading that acknowledges the distances that texts travel from their point of composition to readers in other geographical and historical locations It indicates that poetic innovation is often driven by a desire on the part of the poet to make this distance do cultural work in the meanings that the poem generates Ultimately Distant Reading treats poetry as a cultural practice that is always situated within specific sites of performance recited on stage displayed in magazines laid out on a page scrolled on the computer screen rather than as a transcendent cloud of meaning tethered only to its words Fractals Sudeep Sen, 2016-04-01 Sudeep Sen's Fractals includes a wide swath of his poetry from 1980 to the present as well as a representative collection of his translations into English of other poets writing in Bengali Hindu Urdu and other languages Sen's poems are both vivid observations and insightful meditations often ekphrastic in that they are inspired by other art forms from modern European painters to classical Indian dancers Narratives generally underlie his poems giving us stories from around the world past and present from the grit of war to the mysteries of mythology The British National
