Elemental Theology Emery Herbert Bancroft, 1973 In Search of Radical Theology John D. Caputo, 2020-10-06 These sparkling essays from a seasoned scholar are a great breath of fresh air in our claustrophobic and catastrophic time Cornel West Capturing a career's worth of thought and erudition this rich volume treats readers to creative thought careful argumentation and sophisticated analysis transmitted through the lucid accessible prose that has earned the author a wide readership of academics and non academics alike In tackling radical theology John D Caputo has in mind the deeper stream that courses its way through various historical and confessional theologies upon which these theologies draw even while it disturbs them from within They are well served by this disturbance because it keeps them on their toes When we read about professional theologians losing their jobs in confessional institutions the chances are that by earnestly digging into what is going on in their tradition they have hit upon radical theological rock Unlike modernist dismissals of religion radical theology does not debunk but re-invents the theological tradition Radical theology Caputo says is a double deconstruction of supernatural theology on the one hand and of transcendental reason on the other and therefore of the settled distinctions between the religious and the secular Caputo also addresses the challenge for radical theology to earn a spot in the curriculum given that the radical makes it suspect among the confessional seminaries while the theology renders it suspect among university seminars Journeying from the academy to contemporary American culture In Search of Radical Theology includes a captivating presentation of radical political theology for the time of Trump This utterly unique volume not only brings readers on an enlightening tour of Caputo's thought but also invites us to accompany the author as he travels into intriguing new territories

That God May Be All in All Ryan L. Rippee, 2018-03-02 Christology and Pneumatology have long been major preoccupations for theologians and rightly so but the work of God the Father has been surprisingly neglected Through a biblical and exegetical study of the Father's person and work Paterology this book argues that among the persons of the Trinity the Father is the initiator of all divine activity Furthermore it is in the context of a loving eternal relationship with the Son and Spirit that the Father has planned and purposed all things creating through the Son and by the Spirit promising and accomplishing redemption through the sending of the Son and the Spirit and perfecting salvation by bringing about a new heavens and new earth through his Son and Spirit The only proper response is a Trinitarian shaped life of worship that worships our Triune God Down to Earth Richard Floyd,2015-08-18 In the face of climate change and ecological diminishment how can we hope that creation itself good and beautiful marked by tragedy and chaos is taken up rather than left behind Can a Christian vision which has at times been drunk on eschatological dreams or nightmares that consign this world and most of its creatures to destruction foster an earthly hope Jurgen Moltmann and Sallie McFague offer two contemporary possibilities for an ecological eschatology Floyd critiques both of these theological visions and traces an alternative that is both humble grounded in the humus the dirt and hopeful grounded in divine creativity arguing that a down to earth hope is grounded finally in beauty the beauty of the other that draws out the self the beauty of the redeemed self coming out to meet the other and the beauty of God that lures forth ever new possibilities and gathers up all the beautiful and broken creatures into the deepest possible harmony PAUL'S LETTER TO THE PHILIPPIANS Edward D.

Z. Phillips,Peter Winch,1989-06-18 According to Wittgenstein philosophical puzzles are due to deep prejudices about language In this collection of essays in honour of Rush Rhees philosophers investigate the hold such prejudices have on us in a number of closely related areas of philosophical enquiry
