students scholars and practitioners of criminal justice around the world ICLSSEE 2023 Meida Rachmawati, Faisal Santiago, Eko Eddy Supriyanto, 2023-07-10 This book contains the proceedings of the International Conference on Law Social Science Economics and Education ICLSSEE 2023 on 6 May 2023 in Indonesia This conference was held in collaboration with Nusantara Training and Research NTR at Universitas Borobudur Jakarta Indonesia Papers from the conference are collected in a book of proceedings entitled Proceedings of the International Conference on Law Social Sciences Economics and Education ICLSSEE 2023 Presentations from the conference covering these disciplines will provide a lot of inspiring input and new treasures on law social sciences economics and education especially after the Covid 19 Pandemic Thus it will contribute to the next generation of young researchers to generate innovative research findings and ideas The hope is that scientific attitudes and skills through research will encourage the development of knowledge produced through research from various scholars in various regions Finally we would like to express our sincere thanks to all of the steering committee colleagues for their cooperation in organizing the conference Hopefully these seminars and conferences can be continued in the coming years with more insightful articles from inspiring research We would also like to thank the invited speakers for their invaluable contributions and for sharing their visions in their talks The 'Contextual Elements' of the Crime of Genocide Nasour Coursami, 2018-02-10 This book examines the position of contextual elements as a constitutive element of the legal definition of the crime of genocide and determines the extent to which an individual genocidaire is required to act within a particular genocidal context Unlike other books in the field of the study of the crime of genocide this book captures the nuance and the complex issues of the debate by providing book length comprehensive examination of the position of contextual elements in light of the evolution of genocide as a concept and the literal legal definition of the crime of genocide which expressly characterized the crime with only the existence of an individualistic intent to destroy a group With scholars of international criminal law students researchers practitioners in the field and international criminal tribunals in mind the author tackles many of the issues raised on the position of contextual elements in both academic literature and judicial decisions Nasour Coursami is the Director of Applied Research and a Lecturer at the National School of Administration in Chad He studied law at Cardiff and Bristol Universities and holds a Ph D in International Law from the University of Edinburgh Smith, Hogan, and Ormerod's Essentials of Criminal Law John Child, David Ormerod, 2017 Introduction Actus reus Mens rea Interaction of actus reus and mens rea Murder Manslaughter Non fatal offences against the person Sexual offences Property offences Fraud General inchoate offences Parties to crime Denials of an offence General defences The Future of EU Criminal Justice Policy and Practice Jannemieke Ouwerkerk, Judit Altena, Jacob Öberg, Samuli Miettinen, 2019-03-27 EU criminal justice is a fast developing and challenging area of EU law and policy that requires scholars from different disciplines to join forces This book is a first attempt to establish such synergies Coming from different angles the authors deal with questions in the area of EU substantive criminal law such as when criminalisation of conduct is an appropriate choice how the process of de criminalisation could be advanced what the role of evidence could be in this regard and what consequences criminalisation decisions at EU level have for national legal orders The book concludes with a demonstration of how similar issues arise in the field of procedural criminal law Community Justice John R. Hamilton Jr.,Tamera D. Jenkins,Todd R. Clear,2024-10-29 Community Justice discusses concepts of community within the context of justice policy and programs and addresses the important relationship between the criminal justice system and the community in the USA Taking a bold stance in the criminal justice debate this book argues that crime management is more effective through the use of informal as opposed to formal social control It demonstrates how an increasing number of criminal justice elements are beginning to understand that developing partnerships within the community that enhance informal social control will lead to stabilization and possibly a decline in crime especially violent crime and make communities more livable Borrowing from an eclectic toolbox of ideas and strategies community organizing environmental crime prevention private public partnerships and justice initiatives Community Justice puts forward a new approach to establishing safe communities and highlights the failure of the current American justice system in its lack of vision and misuse of resources This book is essential for undergraduate and postgraduate students of criminology law and sociology It provides detailed information about how community justice fits within each area of the criminal justice system and includes relevant case studies to exemplify this philosophy in action Corpus Juris of Islamic International Criminal Justice Farhad

Malekian,2018-09-30 This pioneering scholarly oeuvre evaluates the major comparative philosophy of Islamic international criminal justice It represents an in depth analysis of the necessities of creating an Islamic international criminal court its possible jurisdiction proceedings judgments and sanctions It implies a court functioning under the legal personality of the International Criminal Court with comparative international criminal lawyers with basic knowledge of Shariah contributing to the prevention of crimes and impunity at an international level The morality and philosophy of Islamic justice are highly relevant with reference to the atrocities committed explicitly or implicitly under the pretext of Islamic rules by superiors groups and governments The volume focuses on substantive criminal law and three methods of the criminal procedure namely the inquisitorial adversarial and adquisitorial The first two constitute the corpus juris of civil and common law systems The third term presents a hybrid of the first two methods The intention is to enhance the scope of each method of the criminal procedure comprehensively The volume examines their variations and effects on a shared system of international criminal justice The inherence of comparable norms in the foundation of Islamic and international criminal law affirms their efficiency in the implementation of the essence of the complementarity principle This book will appeal to readers who are interested in comparative criminal law international criminal justice and Shariah criminal law It is recommended for course literature The Police Chief Executive Report International Association of Chiefs of Police,1976 This report proposes orderly methods of selecting a qualified police chief executive and of retaining him after selection It also suggests means by which communities can increase the effectiveness of their police chief executives by ensuring the authority resources and tenure necessary to fulfill the responsibilities of the positions properly In addition this report sets out procedures grounded on American constitutional notions of fairness and due process for removing an unqualified police chief executive from office The eighteen standards presented along with their related commentaries were developed and reviewed by the police chief executive committee of the International Association of Chiefs of Police IACP which with funding support from the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration LEAA conducted a yearlong study into the role and position of police chief executives The appendix contains a discussion of the research methodology copies of the survey questionnaires and statistical summaries of questionnaire responses An index is provided
