Playwriting Effiong Johnson, 2011-02-16 Summary The Nigerian theatre milieu is trapped in a cobweb of strangulating strings Little wonder therefore that its growth has been impaired over the years The numerous multi tribal thrusts in Nigeria disallow the full growth and development of theatre forms and trends The university and other degree awarding institutions engaged in theatre studies have not carved out uniquely distinguishing styles that can be said to be theirs The Nigerian theatre makers themselves are not style driven and technique creating An ideal repertory of form can hardly be identified with them in a sustainable manner The National Theatre set up as a symbol of the nation s cultural pride now stands as a totem for the nation s creative shame The state owned Cultural Centre Boards are devoid of objectives in focused cultural promotions Many graduates of the arts prefer other creative businesses A few die hards are bedeviled by frustrating dilemmas as businessmen refuse to patronise theatre because they consider it a wasteful venture while international agencies shun it because of its profit making outlook
