Court Cultures in the Muslim World Albrecht Fuess,Jan-Peter Hartung,2014-06-03 Courts and the complex phenomenon of the courtly society have received intensified interest in academic research over recent decades however the field of Islamic court culture has so far been overlooked This book provides a comparative perspective on the history of courtly culture in Muslim societies from the earliest times to the nineteenth century and presents an extensive collection of images of courtly life and architecture within the Muslim realm The thematic methodology employed by the contributors underlines their interdisciplinary and comprehensive approach to issues of politics and patronage from across the Islamic world stretching from Cordoba to India Themes range from the religious legitimacy of Muslim rulers terminologies for court culture in Oriental languages Muslim concepts of space for royal representation accessibility of rulers the role of royal patronage for Muslim scholars and artists to the growing influence of European courts as role models from the eighteenth century onwards Discussing specific terminologies for courts in Oriental languages and explaining them to the non specialist chapters describe the specific features of Muslim courts and point towards future research areas As such it fills this important gap in the existing literature in the areas of Islamic history religion and Islam in particular

World Yearbook of Education 2013 Terri Seddon,John Levin,2012-12-12 Educators professionalism and politics offers ways of understanding how and with what consequences national systems of education and the work of education professionals are being reregulated in the context of contemporary global transitions Globalization does not just create transnational organizations relations and practices it also transforms nation states by creating more complex education spaces that impinge on the work of educators and the learning that they enable globally nationally and locally This volume of the World Yearbook of Education focuses firmly on the educators themselves It documents the way educators encounter and renegotiate ideas and practices that travel globally as they seek to enact their established professional projects This framing recognises that educators spaces work and identities are historically anchored in national institutional trajectories but are both disturbed and renewed as globally mobile ideas and practices touch down within national systems of education The chapters examine the effect of global transitions on educators and education and offers new perspectives on educational work in different parts of the world today They challenge bleak assessments of teacher de professionalization and idealistic narratives about professional development Chapters highlight the significance of educators occupational boundary work and the resources and networks they mobilize through their professional projects as they make and remake education in national spaces The volume tracks Re regulatory trajectories evident in national education spaces and their impact on educators The way educators renegotiate globally mobile ideas practices and national institutional trajectories as they mediate global formations emerging in the national space and The kinds of mediations and resources that enable education professionals to engage with the politics of professionalization This volume of The World Yearbook of Education will be of great interest to Education researchers graduate students teacher educators and education policy makers Terri Seddon is Professor of Education at Monash University Australia Jenny Ozga is Professor of the Sociology of Education at Oxford University UK John Levin is Bank of America Professor of Education Leadership and Director California Community College Collaborative University of California USA

Selected Proceedings from the 1st International Conference on Contemporary Islamic Studies (ICIS 2021) Nur Nafhatun Md Shariff, Mohd Asmadi Yakob, Zety Sharizat Hamidi, Zeiad Amjad Abdulrazzak Aghwan, Najahudin Lateh, 2022-08-28 This book collates selective outputs from the 1st International Conference on Contemporary Islamic Studies focusing on interdisciplinary research that is relevant and timely One of the most vital areas for national development in Malaysia and other parts of the Muslim world is the field of Islamic studies With a selection of regional and international contributions the volume covers several topics including Zakat Wakaf Islamic philanthropy Islamic Turath Islamic astronomy Islamic texts both ancient and modern Halal the Muslim family fiqh and Islamic finance Cutting across both academia and religious practice the book seeks to demarcate various aspects within Islamic law and culture in the context of the IR 4 0 era It is relevant to students and researchers working within the interdisciplinary landscape of Islamic studies from Asia to beyond Muslims as Actors Jacques Waardenburg, 2012-02-13 This book deals with Islamic studies and with the question how the scholarly study of religion can contribute to the study of Islam The author advocates studying Islamic phenomena as signs and symbols interpreted and applied in diverse ways in existing traditions He stresses the role of Muslims as actors in the ongoing debate about the articulation of Islamic ways of life and construction of Islam as a religion A careful study of this debate should steer clear of political religious and ideological interests Research in this area by Muslims and non Muslim scholars alike should address the question of what Muslims have made of their Islam in specific circumstances Current political contexts have created an unhealthy climate for pursuing an open approach to Islam based on reading observing listening and reflecting Yet precisely nowadays we need to look anew at ways of Muslim thinking and acting that refer to Islam and to avoid certain schemes of interpreting Muslim realities that are no longer adequate for present day Muslim life situations Muslim recourses to Islam can be studied as human constructions of value and meaning and relations between Muslims and others can be seen in terms of human interaction without blame always falling on Islam as such Lived Islam A. Kevin Reinhart, 2020-06-11

Does Islam make people violent Does Islam make people peaceful In this book A Kevin Reinhart demonstrates that such questions are misleading because they assume that Islam is a monolithic essence and that Muslims are made the way they are by this monolith He argues that Islam like all religions is complex and thus best understood through analogy with language Islam has dialects a set of features shared with other versions of Islam It also has cosmopolitan elites who prescribe how Islam ought to be even though these experts depending on where they practice the religion unconsciously reflect their own local dialects Reinhart defines the distinctive features of Islam and investigates how modernity has created new conditions for the religion Analyzing the similarities and differences between modern and pre modern Islam he clarifies the new and old in the religion as it is lived in the contemporary world
