Literature Kimberly Wieser-Weryackwe, 2025-07-10 Discover the essential people works movements and themes in American Indian literature American Indian literature is a varied and vibrant collection of Indigenous artistic expression American Indian novelists poets essayists and critics have over the last four centuries asserted powerful forms of intellectual and artistic sovereignty writing in English while building on discrete tribal oral traditions and forms of storytelling This encyclopedia introduces readers to the key historical and contemporary figures in American Indian literature and their defining works From the fiery sermons of Methodist minister William Apress to the Pulitzer Prize winning novel House Made of Dawn by N Scott Momaday to the critically acclaimed and commercially successful novels of Louise Erdrich this book illustrates the indelible and influential imprint American Indians have on the landscape of American letters Readers are also introduced to the key themes and context of American Indian literature exploring how it is inextricable from American literary history the American literary canon and the narrative of American history not on the fringes of the American experience but central to it Illicit Love Ann McGrath, 2015-12-01 Illicit Love is a history of love sex and marriage between Indigenous peoples and settler citizens at the heart of two settler colonial nations the United States and Australia Award winning historian Ann McGrath illuminates interracial relationships from the late eighteenth to the early twentieth century through stories of romance courtship and marriage between Indigenous peoples and colonizers in times of nation formation The romantic relationships of well known and ordinary interracial couples provide the backdrop against which McGrath discloses the marital middle ground that emerged as a primary threat to European colonial and racial supremacy in the Atlantic and Pacific Worlds from the Age of Revolution to the Progressive Era These relationships include the controversial courtship between white Connecticut born Harriett Gold and southern Cherokee Elias Boudinot the Australian missionary Ernest Gribble and his efforts to socially segregate the settler and aboriginal population only to be overcome by his romantic impulses for an aboriginal woman Jeannie the irony of Cherokee leader John Ross's marriage to a white woman Mary Brian Stapler despite his opposition to interracial marriages in the Cherokee Nation and the efforts among ordinary people in the imperial borderlands of both the United States and Australia to circumvent laws barring interracial love sex and marriage Illicit Love reveals how marriage itself was used by disparate parties for both empowerment and disempowerment and came to embody the contradictions of imperialism A tour de force of settler colonial history McGrath's study demonstrates vividly how interracial relationships between Indigenous and colonizing peoples were more frequent and threatening to nation states in the Atlantic and Pacific worlds than historians have previously acknowledged
