Elimination Dance La Danse Eliminatoire:

Les Belles Etrangères Jane Koustas, 2008-03-10 While translation history in Canada is well documented the history of the translation of Canadian fiction outside the nation remains obscure Les Belles étrangères examines the translation of Canadian English language fiction in France This book considers the history of this practice the reasons for the move away from Quebec translators as well as the process and perils involved in this detour Within a theoretical framework and drawing on primary sources this study considers the historical theoretical and concrete aspects of this practice through the study of the translations of authors such as Robertson Davies Carol Shields Margaret Atwood Michael Ondaatje Ann Marie MacDonald and Alistair MacLeod The book also includes a comprehensive bibliography of English language novels poetry and plays published and translated in France over the past 240 years Published in English Canadian Books in Print, 2003

Michael Ondaatje Douglas Barbour, 1993 Today as his richly metaphorical texts enjoy international renown Ondaatje's fame is especially fascinating for he has neither followed trends nor played to any crowd instead fulfilling his wish to start each new book with a new vocabulary Unlike fellow writers Robert Kroetsch and George Bowering Ondaatje dislikes discussing theory it takes an appreciation as sharp and probing as Douglas Barbour's to enlighten us to the thoughts intentions and influences that have shaped Ondaatje's work his consistent movement into new territory and his masterful traversal through the modes of late modernism postmodernism and postcolonialism Barbour offers luminous readings of each of Ondaatje's books up to The English Patient 1992 a novel of international scope that is as much about the power of narratives as the power of passion Barbour illuminates Ondaatje's early alignment with Wallace Stevens and Robert Lowell as well as his later development in the Pound tradition New Life in Dark Seas Stan Dragland, 2000 A quarter of a century old and youthful still Brick Books offers this selection as inclusive as we could make it of the writers we have published through the years Most of these writers are poets since Brick Books specializes in poetry but we're pleased to flavour the mix with other forms like the historical prose of Greg Curnoe's Deeds Abstracts and the terpsichorean prose of Michael Ondaatje in Elimination Dance La danse liminatoire If we do say so ourselves New Life From Dark Seas is much more than the souvenir of a significant anniversary It's a feast for passionate poetry readers like the editors those who like to stretch within and across the genre from P K Page's strict form Holograms to Dennis Lee's free jazz verse in Riffs to Michael Kenyon's prose poem fiction Rack of Lamb to Phil Hall's leaping language work poems to this could go on Let it go on dear reader in you Canadian Book Review Annual Joyce M. Wilson, 2001 Small Press Record of Books in Print Len Fulton, 1993 Canadiana, 1991-12 *Canadian Books in Print.
