Ellsworth Kelly The Years In France 1948-1954:

Ellsworth Kelly in San Francisco Madeleine Grynsztejn, Ellsworth Kelly, Julian Myers, 2002 An elegant presentation of the most significant collection of the artist's work. It secures Kelly's place as one of the most original and compelling of contemporary American artists. Ellsworth Kelly Ellsworth Kelly, Harry Cooper, Matthew Marks Gallery, 2003 Essay by Harry Cooper. The Art of Mechanical Reproduction Tamara Trodd, 2015-09-25 The Art of Mechanical Reproduction presents a striking new approach to how traditional art mediums painting sculpture and drawing changed in the twentieth century in response to photography film and other technologies. Countering the modernist view that the medium provides advanced art with resistance against technological pressures Tamara Trodd argues that we should view art and its practices as imaginatively responding to the potential that artists glimpsed in mechanical reproduction putting art into dialogue with the commercial cultures of its time. The Art of Mechanical Reproduction weaves a rich history of the experimental networks in which artists as diverse as Paul Klee Hans Bellmer Ellsworth Kelly Robert Rauschenberg Gerhard Richter Chris Marker and Tacita Dean have worked and it shows for the first time how extensively technological innovations of the moment have affected their work. Original and broad ranging The Art of Mechanical Reproduction challenges some of the most respected and entrenched criticism of the past several decades and allows us to think about these artists anew. Richard Shiff: Writing After Art Richard Shiff, 2023-05-16 A broad and deep anthology of critic and art historian Richard Shiff's most influential writings which have shaped our understanding of twentieth and twenty-first century art. Elegantly designed as intended for broad readership including art historians art critics artists among other lovers of art this volume is a must-read experience with pleasure and discovery. Phong Bui The Brooklyn Rail In his engaging and often strikingly deep observations of major modern and contemporary visual art Shiff has written about an impressive range of artists including Willem de Kooning Marlene Dumas Jasper Johns Donald Judd Barnett Newman Pablo Picasso and Bridget Riley. A leading scholar and powerful voice Shiff's insight into some of the most prominent artistic practices spans generation place and approach as seen in this considered selection of essays on twenty-six artists. These writings first appeared in exhibition catalogues for retrospectives at galleries and institutions including the Centre Georges Pompidou the Solomon R Guggenheim Museum The Museum of Modern Art and Tate Modern. Shiff supplements his unquestionable fluency in art history with insights cultivated from his readings in philosophy phenomenology literary theory and psychoanalysis among other fields. Shiff's writing conceptually rich meditative and enjoyable to read is attuned to the nuances of artistic style and technique drawing out art's social implications not merely from broad histories but also directly from artists' mark-making and technical gestures. Actively engaged as a viewer and a writer Shiff has transformed the act of looking at art into contemplative and captivating writing. Includes essays on Georg Baselitz Mark Bradford Georges Braque Jim Campbell Chuck Close Willem de Kooning Peter Doig Marlene Dumas Dan Flavin Suzan Frecon Lucian Freud Ellen Gallagher Jasper Johns Donald Judd Ellsworth Kelly Brice media the image virus which proliferates parasitically invading transforming and even blocking systems as in Nam June Paik's synthesized videotapes and installations and the avatar a quasi fictional form of identity available to anyone which can function as a political actor as in Melvin Van Peebles's invention of Sweet Sweetback an African American hero who appealed to a broad audience and influenced styles of Black Power activism These strategies writes Joselit remain valuable today in a world where the overlapping information circuits of television and the Internet offer different opportunities for democratic participation In Feedback Joselit analyzes such midcentury image events using the procedures and categories of art history The trope of figure ground reversal for instance is used to assess acts of representation in a variety of media including the medium of politics In a televisual world Joselit argues where democracy is conducted through images art history has the capacity to become a political science
