Eloge Du Flou

Gérard Mordillat

Eloge Du Flou:

Éloge du bourgeois français René Johannet, 1924 French Prose in 2000, 2021-10-18 French Prose in 2000 stems in some important measure from work presented in September 1998 at the International Colloquium on French and Francophone Literature in the 1990's held at Dalhousie University. A good number of papers given at that time and since revisited in the light of exchanges join here certain others specifically written for the purposes of this book. Together they constitute a wide ranging and modally varied interrogation of the current state of French and francophone prose writing its multifaceted manners its richly divergent fascinations its many theoretical or philosophical groundings. The book thus ceaselessly moves its attention from fictional biography to the roman noir from the writing of Glissant and Chamoiseau to that of the tonnants voyageurs from the powerful discourse of women such as Chawaf or Condé Ernaux or Germain Sallenave or Kristeva to that of writers as diverse in their modes as Le Clézio and Quignard Duras and Renaud Camus. All chapters focus however in near exclusive measure on the prose production of the last ten or twelve years.

The Fundamental Rules of the International Legal Order Christian Tomuschat, Jean Marc Thouvenin, 2006 This work the outgrowth of a joint reflection by French and German international lawyers attempts to reconceptualize the doctrine of hierarchy in international law by emphasizing that a clear distinction should be drawn between primary rules which encapsulate precepts for the protection of the basic values of the international community and secondary rules which determine the regime of legal consequences flowing from a breach of such rules of conduct.

La francophonie ou l'éloge de la diversité Michaël Abecassis, Gudrun Ledegen, Karen Zouaoui, 2011-05-25 The first part of this volume La Francophonie ou l'éloge de la diversité is devoted to Francophone cinema between Bollywood and Hollywood. What in particular does Francophone cinema have to offer compared with American or Indian cinema? What more does Francophone cinema have to offer? What genres does it prefer? For what audience? The second part deals with the promotion of diversity in Francophone countries taking into consideration the cultural aspects of Francophonie in the 21st century, the linguistic description of systems in contact, tracing the historical stages which have led to the creation of this locus of cultural diversity and focusing finally on university cooperation and Franco-British scientific research. This book brings together contributions by outstanding authors who gathered in Oxford in October 2010 at the Maison française including Louis Jean Calvet Professor at the University of Provence. In collaboration with the Organisation Internationale de la Francophonie he works on language policy particularly the struggle to maintain linguistic diversity. Bernard Cerquiglini Rector of the Agence Universitaire de la Francophonie An eminent linguist and specialist on the French language Bernard Cerquiglini is known as the Professor from TV5 Monde's Merci Professeur. Philippe Lane is the Cultural Attaché at the French Embassy in London. Gudrun Ledegen Sociolinguist Lecturer in Linguistics at the Université de la Réunion. She specialises in contact between French and Creole in La Réunion. The discussion is complemented by contributions by Maryse Bray Karine Chevalier Anne Caroline Fivet Hélène Gill Am lie Hien.
