The Embodiment of Characters Jones DeRitter, 2016-11-11 In The Embodiment of Characters Jones DeRitter examines the connection between the eighteenth century London stage and the early English novel DeRitter begins with the sweeping changes decreed by the Stage Licensing Act of 1737 which closed three of London's five legitimate theaters and dictated that every new play would have to be censored and licensed by the Lord Chamberlain's office Before 1737 reading plays had been a favorite pastime of literate English men and women after 1737 many of these readers shifted their attention to novels After using The Beggars Opera and The London Merchant to trace the different ways that sex and death could be presented in the material world of theatrical performance DeRitter uses Clarissa and Tom Jones to explain how the debate over the value and consequences of human physicality was transformed by the shift from the London stage to the pages of the realistic novel A crucial central chapter focuses on the life and autobiographical narrative of Charlotte Charke performer memoirist and male impersonator whose struggle to define and defend herself traversed the boundaries between print and performance between public and private life and between the human body and the person who inhabited it The Embodiment of Characters will be of interest to students and scholars of eighteenth century gender and cultural studies and English literature Genders 19

Ann M. Kibbey, Kayann Short, Abouali Farmanfarmaian, 1994-09 Sexual Artifice marks the evolution of Genders from a triannual journal to a biannual anthology Henceforth each volume will have a focus on a particular gender related issue offering original essays on the specific theme This volume proposes that there is something more to the social construction of gender than what social science has been able to describe On the contested state of international politics public imagery and nationalist cinema the artifice of sexuality wields an enormous power to influence the interpretation of our social selves and the world we live in These essays collectively explore the art of constructing gender in symbolic media images in poetry photography and montage in dramatic identity politics and last but not least in contemporary feminism itself With original essays on Virginia Woolf's Orlando Anita Hill Clarence Thomas and the culture of romance Valerie Solanis the woman who shot Andy Warhol male hysteria and the U S invasion of Panama and representations of women in Northern Ireland Sexual Artifice offers up some of the most thought provoking and daring young scholarship in contemporary cultural and gender studies go to the Genders website
