Passionate Embrace Elisabeth Gerle, 2018-01-01 Protestant ethics has often been associated with work and duty excluding sensuality sexuality and other pleasures In an age of body worship as well as body loathing Elisabeth Gerle explores new paths embarking on a conversation with Martin Luther in dialogue with contemporary theologians on attitudes towards desire ethics and politics She draws on Eros theology to challenge traditional Lutheran stereotypes such as the dichotomies between different forms of love as well as between spirit and body Gerle argues that Luther's spiritual breakthrough where grace and gifts of creation became central provides new meaning to sex and desire as well as to work body and ordinary life Women are seen in a new light as companions autonomous ethical agents part of the priesthood of all This had revolutionary consequences in Europe at the time and it represents a challenge to contemporary theologies with a nostalgic appetite for austerity asceticism and female submission Luther's erotic and genderfluid language is a healthy challenge to oppressive political structures centred on greed profit and competition A revised Scandinavian creation theology and a deep sense of the incarnational mystery are resources for contemporary theology and ethics Qissah-i Sanjān Alan Williams, 2009 The Qesse ye Sanj n is the sole surviving account of the emigration of Zoroastrians from Iran to India to form the Parsi Persian community Written in Persian couplets in India in 1599 by a Zoroastrian priest it is a work many know of but few have actually read let alone studied in depth This book provides a romanised transcription from the oldest manuscripts an elegant metrical translation detailed commentary and most importantly a radical new theory of how such a text should be read i e not as a historical chronical but as a charter of Zoroastrian identity foundation myth and justification of the Parsi presence in India The book fills a lacuna that has been acutely felt for a long time Fiction, 1876-1883:
