John Muir, in His Own Words John Muir,1988 The best of John Muir 332 quotations the distillation of his thought the essence of his beliefs Muir was the foremost conservationist of his time nature writer social critic realist a romantic a visionary A long needed collection that features an excellent subject index Painstaking bibliographic references make this an invaluable addition to one's Muir Library Yosemite Association If asked for a succinct statement of his beliefs Muir might have replied East Bay Hills: A Brief History Amelia Sue Marshall,2017 Like the mist rising from San Francisco Bay encircles the towering redwoods the little known legends of the East Bay hills enrich a glorious history Follow the trails of Sacan and Jalquin Yrgin people over the hills and through the valleys Ride with the mounted rangers through the Flood of 62 Break into a sealed railroad tunnel with a pack of junior high school boys Learn how university professors civil servants and wealthy businessman planned for years to create a chain of parks twenty miles along the hilltops Author Amelia Sue Marshall explores the heritage of these storied parklands with the naturalists who continue to preserve them and the old timers who remember wilder days Back cover of work This Life I've Loved Isobel Field,2005 Isobel Field the stepdaughter of Robert Louis Stevenson was a wonderful storyteller and a writer of great wit and acuity She was with her mother Fanny when they met Stevenson in Grez France in 1876 when Fanny and Louis married in 1880 in San Francisco and at the Silverado sojourn with the Stevensons in Hawaii in the late 1880s and finally with them in Samoa from 1890 until Stevenson's death in 1894 The Chinatown War Scott Zesch,2012-06-29 In October 1871 a simmering small scale turf war involving three Chinese gangs exploded into a riot that engulfed the small but growing town of Los Angeles A large mob of white Angelenos spurred by racial resentment rampaged through the city and lynched some 18 people before order was restored In The Chinatown War Scott Zesch offers a compelling account of this little known event which ranks among the worst hate crimes in American history The story begins in the 1850s when the first wave of Chinese immigrants arrived in Los Angeles in the wake of the 1849 California gold rush Upon arrival these immigrants usually took up low wage jobs settled in the slum neighborhood of the Calle de los Negros and joined one of a number of Chinese community associations Though such associations provided job placement and other services to their members they were also involved in extortion and illicit businesses including prostitution In 1870 the largest of these the See Yup Company imploded in an acrimonious division The violent succession battle that ensued as well as the highly publicized torture of Chinese prostitute Sing Ye eventually provided the spark for the racially motivated riot that ripped through L A Zesch vividly evokes the figures and events in the See Yup dispute deftly situates the riot within its historical and political context and illuminates the workings of the early Chinese American community in Los Angeles while simultaneously exploring issues that continue to trouble Americans today Engaging and deeply researched The Chinatown War above all delivers a riveting story of a dominant American city and the darker side of its early days that offers powerful insights for our own time Gilded Age Entrepreneur Simon Cordery,2025-09-15 Simon Cordery s Gilded Age Entrepreneur illuminates the fascinating and chaotic business world of Albert Pullman The influential but little known older brother of George Pullman and the craftsman of the family Albert designed the first luxurious Pullman railroad cars and hosted promotional trips to show them off In those heady early days he met national business and political leaders and hired the first Pullman porters Albert and George made a formidable team but as the Pullman Company grew Albert s role shrank He turned to his own investment portfolio often with disastrous results Beginning with the industrial laundry that cleaned sleeping car linens Albert appeared before the Supreme Court after a catastrophic insurance investment ran afoul of federal banking regulations and failed in an attempt to corner wheat futures With evermore unsuccessful speculations Albert was tempted by extralegal land sales and entered the silver mining game Finally his own family in crisis and his relationship with George shattered Albert Pullman launched into one last round of adventurous investments with mixed results Gilded Age Entrepreneur demonstrates that Albert Pullman embodied the small time investors who were legion after the Civil War From banking and insurance to manufacturing and mining a host of hopeful dreamers like Albert Pullman fueled the circulation of capital by forging political connections creating and losing businesses issuing shares and longing for profit Nevada Historical Society Quarterly Nevada Historical Society,2008

Guardians of the Valley Dean King,2024-03-19 In June of 1889 in San Francisco John Muir iconic environmentalist writer and philosopher meets face to face for the first time with Robert Underwood Johnson his elegant and influential editor at the Century Magazine Before long the pair opposites in many ways decide to venture to Yosemite the magnificent valley where twenty years earlier Muir experienced a personal and spiritual awakening that would set the course of the rest of his life Upon their arrival they are confronted with a shocking sight as predatory mining tourism and logging industries have plundered and defaced the grandest of all the special temples of Nature While Muir is devastated Johnson an arbiter of the era s pressing issues in the pages of the nation s most prestigious magazine decides that he and Muir must fight back The pact they form marks a watershed moment leading to the creation of Yosemite National Park and launching a battle over wilderness that captivates the nation and ushers in the American environmental movement Back cover Utah Historical Quarterly J.
