Embracing Travail:

Conversion as Transformation Dominic Arcamone, 2020-01-29 The process of human transformation is complex and ongoing This book presents a framework for understanding human transformation through the insights of Bernard Lonergan The reader will be introduced to terms such as the turn to the subject consciousness subjectivity and intersubjectivity It will explore terms such as horizon feelings values self esteem sublation conversion dialectic and religious experience The book explores transformation through the way mentors have authored their own lives told their own stories and taken possession of their interiority Transformation is illustrated through the lives of saints and ordinary men and women who did extraordinary things such as St Augustine Dag Hammarskjold Vaclav Havel Franz Jaggerstatter St Therese of Lisieux Fredrich Nietzsche Katherine Ann Power and Marie Cardinal Transformation is also illustrated through the medium of cinema Babette s Feast The Mission As It is in Heaven Romero Dead Poets Society Ordinary People The Godfather trilogy Three Color trilogy The Lord of the Rings trilogy Dial M for Murder and Twelve Angry Men While the book treats religious moral affective intellectual and psychic conversion as moments of transformation it argues that ecological conversion requires all of these so as to meet the most serious moral challenge of our time The Nonviolent Atonement, Second Edition J. Denny Weaver, 2011-01-26 A provocative study that cuts to the very heart of Christian thought The Nonviolent Atonement challenges the traditional Anselmian understanding of atonement along with the assumption that heavenly justice depends on Christ s passive innocent submission to violent death at the hands of a cruel God Instead J Denny Weaver offers a thoroughly nonviolent paradigm for understanding atonement grounded in the New Testament and sensitive to the concerns of pacifist black feminist and womanist theology While many scholars have engaged the subject of violence in atonement theology Weaver s Nonviolent Atonement is the only book that offers a radically new theory rather than simply refurbishing existing theories Key features of this revised and updated second edition include new material on Paul and Anselm expanded discussion on the development of violence in theology interaction with recent scholarship on atonement and response to criticisms of Weaver s original work Praise for the first edition The best current single volume on reconstructing the theology of atonement S Mark Heim in Anglican Theological Review Weaver provides an important contribution to atonement theories by seriously inserting the contemporary concerns of pacifist feminist womanist and black theologians into the centuries old christological conversation A provocative but faithful proposal benefiting any student of christology Religious Studies Review A noteworthy contribution to the literature on the atonement Weaver provides a useful critique of the history of atonement motifs he does a fine job of placing Anselm s theology in its historical context he creatively fuses a singular biblical vision from the earthly narrative of the Gospels and the cosmic perspective of the Apocalypse and he attempts to relate discussions of the atonement to Christian social ethics Trinity Journal This is a superb succinct survey and analysis of classical and contemporary theories of the atonement ideal for students and general readers A clearly written passionately expressed introduction to current debates on the atonement Excellent resource Reviews in Religion and Theology Transformed Lives Cynthia S. W. Crysdale,2016-06-10 Even theologians have had different ideas about the theology of atonement how are the rest of supposed to understand it This book is a good place to start Crysdale whose background in both psychology and theology gives her a unique perspective presents an overview of the history of the theology of atonement addressing clearly the difficulties around this concept and bringing us with her to a contemporary understanding God as Sacrificial Love Asle Eikrem,2018-01-25 In dialogue with a range of post enlightenment critiques of Christian theologies regarding sacrificial love Asle Eikrem presents an unconventional systematic approach to this multi layered and complex theological topic From Hegel to prominent 20th century theologians from feminist theologies to postmodern philosophers this volume engages in a critical conversation with a host of different voices on all the classical topics in theology creation trinity incarnation atonement sin faith sacraments and eschatology also providing a moral and socio historical vision for Christian living The result is a unique appraisal of the significance that the life and death of Jesus holds for the world today Embracing Travail Cynthia S. W. Crysdale,2000 Women and Christian Mission Frances Adeney,2015-11-04 What are Christian women thinking about mission How do they do mission What informs their knowledge and action as they address issues in a complex world where religious proselytizing has become suspect This empirical study explores those questions finding congruence among women from diverse backgrounds and cultural contexts Women in mission face common identity issues utilize art and beauty in their work and develop character as they overcome obstacles in their cultural and denominational settings Through nearly one hundred interviews of women in Europe Asia Brazil and the United States a study of women s theologies of mission lectures and countless conversations with women around the globe this study finds common themes among contemporary women doing Christian mission This book fills a lacuna in mission studies that professors pastors and church women and men will find informative and refreshing Jesus and Salvation Robin Ryan,2015 How does the Christian proclamation of salvation in Jesus Christ relate to the lives of the people who suffer most Does salvation consist entirely of the hope for eternal life with God How might the church effectively preach the message of salvation in Christ today In Jesus and Salvation Robin Ryan adopts a historical approach to these questions discussing key themes and classic authors in the developing tradition about Christ the Savior He examines modern soteriology by engaging the thought of Karl Rahner Edward Schillebeeckx Gustavo Guti rrez and Elizabeth Johnson He also discusses contemporary conceptions of salvation within an evolutionary view of the cosmos as well as issues related to the Christian confession of Jesus as universal savior in a religiously pluralistic world Ryan concludes by offering his own reflections on the meaning of salvation from God in Jesus Christ By understanding salvation in Christ as both gift and call Ryan invites readers to recognize in the saving grace of God a responsibility for the well being of the human family and the rest of creation The Defeat of Satan Declan Kelly,2022-01-27 This book offers an innovative critical and constructive exploration of Barth s theology one which demonstrates the radicality of his thought and which underscores the continued contribution he might make to theological reflection on a central element of the Christian tradition Declan Kelly uncovers the promise of viewing Barth's account of salvation as a three agent drama a drama involving God humanity and anti God powers Kelly demonstrates and examines Barth's cosmological portrayal of God's saving event as a defeat of the lordship of Satan in the cosmos and bound up with this as an ending of God's left handed activity and as the bringing into existence of a new creation under the rule of God's right hand Barth's doctrines of election the atonement and the resurrection receive a fresh reading as the book explores his apocalyptic grasp of God's eschatological deed of salvation and as it puts forward the claim with and against Barth that the climax of this deed of salvation is best located in the event of God's raising of Christ from the dead In Search of the Whole John C. Haughey, 2011-09-29 The contributors to this inspiring anthology meet the challenge that everyone faces that of becoming a whole person in both their personal and professional lives John C Haughey SJ has gathered twelve professionals in higher education from a variety of disciplines philosophy theology health care business and administration What they have in common reflects the creative understanding of the meaning of catholic as Haughey has found it to operate in Catholic higher education Each essay in the first six chapters describes how its author has assembled a unique whole from within his or her particular area of academic competence The last six chapters are more autobiographical with each author describing what has become central to his or her identity All twelve are anticipating an entirety with each contributing a coherence that is as surprising as it is delightful Making Christ Real Samuel J. Youngs, 2022-10-27

Kenosis or self emptying poses a fundamental question to any theological discussion about Jesus Christ In becoming human did God empty himself of any divine qualities Many variations on kenotic Christology have emerged over the past 200 years most of them claiming to both preserve and highlight the true humanity and ecclesial significance of Jesus Christ While there is much to commend in these efforts Samuel Youngs contends that nearly all such kenotic attempts have against their best intentions fallen into an echo chamber of abstraction and metaphor rendering their talk about Jesus Christ and analysis of the Gospels fundamentally unreal and lacking in material significance for today's living church Most fundamentally many kenotic accounts pay inadequate attention to Christ's lived accomplishment his current presence and the modes of praxis that he makes real in the world In dialogue with the important movement known as Transformation Theology Youngs unfolds a detailed critique of method and discourse in kenotic christologies Turning then to the vibrant christological thought of Jürgen Moltmann a different outlook on kenosis is articulated and defended one that is relational concrete and praxiological

Engaging the Doctrine of Jesus (and Mary) Matthew Levering, 2025-03-10 The six chapters of this book focus upon Jesus conception and birth from a virgin his authoritative teaching his miracles his cross his resurrection and his ascension The purpose of the book is to articulate and defend the truth of these salvific mysteries as presented to us in Scripture In addition to conversing extensively with historical critical biblical scholarship the chapters make recourse to the theological tradition from the church fathers onward with Thomas Aquinas as a touchstone Levering seeks to make a case for believing in Jesus At the same time he shows how each of these mysteries is intimately linked with a truth about Mary the Mother of Jesus thus arguing for the integral relationship of Christology and Mariology Mary enacts the reception of the Lord by God s faithful people the New Adam never chooses to be without the New Eve in God s new covenant family The Christology offered in this book is therefore both attuned to historical studies of Jesus and Second Temple Judaism and at the same time deeply traditional in a contemporary Catholic and ecumenical way

Violence, Hospitality, and the Cross Hans Boersma,2006-04-01 The cross is central to understanding Christian theology But is it possible that our postmodern setting requires a new model of understanding the cross Hans Boersma s Violence Hospitality and the Cross proposes an understanding of the atonement that is sensitive both to the Christian tradition and to the postmodern critiques of that tradition His fresh approach draws on the rich resources of the Christian tradition in its portrayal of God s hospitality in Jesus Christ

Desire for God and the Things of God Wyndy Corbin Reuschling,2012-09-21 For many Christians spirituality and ethics are in separate mental and experiential compartments Spirituality may be understood as an inner experience while ethics is focused on decisions or positions on issues Both of these views reduce spirituality and morality in Christian faith and practice and ignore the centrality of desire for God and the things of God as key focal points for spiritual and moral formation These aspects of Christian formation must be located in their scriptural and theological contexts in order to understand more fully what God desires for human life This focus on desire provides content and context to Christian spirituality and morality We are drawn outward to focus on God and the good of others while we learn to embody virtues such as compassion courage self control gratitude humility and hope Practices are crucial ways by which we learn to incarnate our ultimate desire of love for God and for what God desires in the pursuit of justice and goodness for all creation In so doing practices enable us to more fully integrate spiritual and moral growth in the processes of our desire for God and the things of God

Why the Cross? Ligita Ryliškytė,2023-01-05 Explains the justice of the cross as a rightly ordered communication and diffusion of divine friendship This book presents a Christology that is intellectually rigorous and which can enable readers to engage on a rational level with their contemporaries about Christian soteriological claims

SCM Studyguide: Theology in the Contemporary World Ben Pugh,2017-11-30 No sooner have they mastered the basics than students of theology can quickly find themselves in over their heads They are bombarded with claim and counter claim as soon as they want to tackle anything topical The contentious subjects tend to be the historical Jesus gender and sexuality or the atonement Other subjects might be less contentious but attract an astonishing excess of literature Take the vast literature tackling the subject of the Church for instance or the bloated body of tomes on various aspects of Pneumatology This book tries to provide the bewildered and intimidated student with a primer that is at once introductory and incisive approachable and informative It will help those training for ministry to recover their fascination for the subject of theology and how it could apply to their future ministry Subjects covered include The Quests for the Historical Jesus Third Article Theology The Missional Church Liberation Theology Feminist LGBT and Queer Approaches Postmodern Faith and the Emerging Church Nonviolent Atonement Gandhi and Jesus Terrence J. Rynne, 2015-02-25 At a time when so many insist on countering violence with violence this exploration of the life of Jesus and the often misunderstood teachings of Gandhi puts nonviolent action at the very heart of Christian salvation Living on the Boundaries Nicola Hoggard Creegan, Christine D. Pohl, 2005-10-06 Nicola Hoggard Creegan and Christine D Pohl tell their own stories and draw from the experiences of ninety other women scholars to helpfully and hopefully address the boundary between the evangelical world and the concerns of feminism found in the academy Transformative Lutheran Theologies Mary J. Streufert, 2010 The first of its kind this book is a systematic presentation of Lutheran feminist womanist and mujerista theologies systematic in that it addresses classical loci of systematic theology contemporary in that it is resoundingly constructive and relevant for the contemporary church and feminist in that the contributors write from a feminist perspective although they reflect a variety of positions within feminist discourse The contributors to this multi authored work share a common commitment to Lutheran theology as a continual process of reform Luther is a partner in the conversation because of his theological insights and commitment to faithful criticism which the writers seek to continue not because his voice settles a debate The book focuses on central themes that Luther addressed and that are representative of Lutheranism today including justification by grace through faith and Luther's theology of the cross From diverse contexts these Lutheran theologians like Luther seek reformation by giving voice to new perspectives in theology that continue to transform the church and the world Along with Mary J Streufert contributors include Krista E Hughes Kathryn A Kleinhans Kristen E Kvam L DeAne Lagerquist Mary E Lowe Lois Malcolm Anna Mercedes Cynthia Moe Lobeda Cheryl M Peterson Mary Joy Philip Caryn D Riswold Deanna A Thompson Marit Trelstad Alicia Vargas and Beverly Wallace A remarkable addition to the rich history of Lutheran theology Not only have these theologians opened doors to fresh new worlds of Lutheran thought they've done so in a way that honors the past by extending it forward I can't wait to use Transformative Lutheran Theologies in class I've been waiting twenty years for a text like this Imagine teaching Luther's thought and placing it by side with these cutting edge essays Luther would no doubt be proud maybe even a bit envious Serene Jones President and Roosevelt Professor of Systematic Theology Union Theological Seminary New York The Faces of Forgiveness F. LeRon Shults, Steven J. Sandage, 2003-05-01 While forgiveness has historically been regarded as a religious concern it has also become a popular topic in contemporary psychology Unfortunately there has been little effort to combine a Christian understanding of forgiveness with psychology The Faces of Forgiveness winner of the Narramore Award from the Christian Association for Psychological Studies steps in to fill this void The authors fuse Christian forgiveness and psychology with the unifying motif of the face thereby building on the considerable psychological research linking emotions related to forgiveness with the human face At a deeper level the face

can serve as a metaphor for integrating forgiveness wholeness and salvation The authors argue that forgiveness should take a central role in our understanding of salvation because it is warranted by the Bible and engages our postmodern context Pastors psychologists family counselors and students of psychology and theology will find The Faces of Forgiveness a helpful resource

Atonement Theories Ben Pugh, 2015-02-26 With the subject of the atonement of Christ attracting such a lot of polemical work at this time it is easy to conclude that the current debate is generating more heat than light Atonement Theories presents the beginning student pastor or researcher with an accessible and fair treatment of every school of thought on this subject Atonement Theories significantly updates previous histories of the doctrine providing analysis of some fascinating and highly significant recent developments It also intriguingly highlights at various points where aspects of this central message of Christianity might find a connection within contemporary culture It aims to empower the reader to quickly gain a working knowledge of current debates and the history behind them
