 formerly North Borneo Food, Festival and Religion Francesca Ciancimino Howell,2018-08-09 Food Festival and Religion explores how communities in northern Italy find a restorative sense of place through foodways costuming and other forms of materiality Festivals examined by the author vary geographically from the northern rural corners of Italy to the fashionable heart of urban Milan The origins of these lived religious events range from Christian to vernacular Italian witchcraft and contemporary Paganism which is rapidly growing in Italy Francesca Ciancimino Howell demonstrates that during ritualized occasions the sacred is located within the mundane She argues that communal feasting pilgrimage rituals and costumed events can represent forms of lived religious materiality Building on the work of scholars including Foucault Grimes and Ingold Howell offers a theoretical Scale of Engagement which further tests the interfaces between and among the materialities of place food ritual and festivals and provides a widely applicable model for analyzing grassroots events and community initiatives Through extensive ethnographic research and fieldwork data this book demonstrates that popular Italian festivals can be ritualized liminal spaces contributing greatly to the fields of religious performance and ritual studies

Art, Religion and Resistance in (Post-)Communist Romania Maria Alina Asavei,2020-10-22 This book illuminates the interconnections between politics and religion through the lens of artistic production exploring how art inspired by religion functioned as a form of resistance directed against both Romanian national communism 1960 1989 and latterly consumerist society and its global market It investigates the critical tactical and subversive employments of religious motifs and themes in contemporary art pieces that confront the religious affair in post communist Romania In doing so it addresses a key gap in previous scholarship which has paid little attention to the relationship between religious art and political resistance in communist Central and South East Europe The Cumulative Book Index ,1982 A world list of books in the English language The Writers Directory ,2003
