African Camp Fires Stewart Edward White,1914 1928 Frontispiece The book begins There are many interesting hotels scattered about the world with a few of which I am acquainted and with a great many of which I am not Of course all hotels are interesting from one point of view or another In fact the surest way to fix an audience's attention is to introduce your hero or to display your opening chorus in the lobby or along the facade of a hotel The life the movement and color the shifting individualities the pretense the bluff the self consciousness the independence the ennui the darting or lounging servants the very fact that of those before your eyes seven out of ten are drawn from distant and scattered places are sufficient in themselves to invest the smallest hostelry with glamour See other titles by this author available from

The Maker of Secrets William Le Queux,1914 The Novel and the Problem of New Life Aaron Matz,2021-07-15 The novel since the nineteenth century has displayed a thorny ambivalence toward the question of having children In its representation of human vitality it can seem to promote the giving of life but again and again it betrays a nagging doubt about the moral implications of procreation The Novel and the Problem of New Life identifies this tension as a defining quality of the modern British and European novel Beginning with the procreative skeptical writings of Flaubert Butler and Hardy then turning to the high modernist work of Lawrence Woolf and Huxley and culminating in the postwar fiction of Lessing and others this book chronicles the history of the novel as it came to accommodate greater misgivings about the morality of reproduction This is the first study to examine in literature a problem that has long troubled philosophers environmental thinkers and so many people in everyday life "Bones" Edgar Wallace,1915 Gothiniad Surazeus Astarius,2017-10 Gothiniad of Surazeus

Sheldon Epps,2022-09-27 Life in the theatre is often a rollercoaster ride with all the excitement and occasional anguish that come with the highs and lows The author s journey in the American theatre has been amplified by his experience as a Black man who has frequently been one of the few the first or even the only His directing career has been full of rewards and opportunities as well as huge challenges and frustrations along with the anger that has come from being chased by race for so many years Much of the author s experience comes from two decades artistic director of Pasadena Playhouse one of the oldest and well known theatres in America and for a time early in his career one of the whitest This is the story of how the author came into leadership at Pasadena Playhouse after a successful career directing on Broadway in London and all over the world It relates how the theatre was radically changed and reignited by his leadership including his insistence on making diversity a priority onstage and off This is the very personal story of a person who wanted his race to be recognized but never used as a reason to be less than fully respected In many ways this memoir tells the story of what people of color in America must face repeatedly to make their lives matter Montgomery Ward Montgomery Ward,1925 The Academy and Literature

The Progressive Woman ,1912 Hard Lines Daniel Cross Turner,William Wright,2016-04-01 A collection of contemporary poems exploring the grit of work love and the land down South Daniel Cross Turner and William Wright s anthology Hard Lines Rough South Poetry centers on the darker side of southern experience while presenting a remarkable array of poets from diverse backgrounds in the American South As tough minded as they are high minded the sixty contemporary poets and two hundred poems anthologized in Hard Lines enhance the powerful genre of Grit Lit The volume gathers the work of poets who have for some decades formed the heart of southern poetry as well as that of emerging voices who will soon become significant figures in southern literature These poems sting our senses into awareness of a gritty world down South hard work hard love hard drinking hard times but they also explore the importance of the land and rural experience as well as race gender and class based conflicts Readers will see hear for poetry is meant to ring in the ears and feel for poetry is meant to beat in the blood there is plenty of raucousness in this anthology And yet the cultural conflicts that ignite southern wildness are often depicted in a manner that is lyrical without becoming lugubrious mournful but not maudlin Some of these poets are coming to terms with a visibly transforming culture a roughness in and of itself Indeed many of these poets are helping to change the definition of the South The anthology also features biographical information on each poet in addition to further reading suggestions and scholarly sources on contemporary poetry Featured Poets Betty Adcock David Bottoms Kathryn Stripling Byer James Dickey Rodney Jones Yusef Komunyakaa Ron Rash Dave Smith Natasha Trethewey Charles Wright Fred Chappell Kelly Cherry Allison Adelle Hedge Coke Kate Daniels Kwame Dawes Claudia Emerson Andrew Hudgins T R Hummer Robert Morgan Ellen Bryant Voigt Dan Albergotti Tarfia Faizullah Forrest Gander Terrance Hayes Judy Jordan John Lane Michael McFee Paul Ruffin Steve Scafi Jake Adam York The Coming Nation ,1913
