Edinburgh Through The Lens:

Edinburgh Through the Lens Ian Torrance, 1990 Ian Torrance three times Scottish Press Photographer of the Year presents a range of images of his native Edinburgh her people places moments and moods Edinburgh's Festivals David Pollock, 2023-08-04 In August 1947 an migr Austrian opera impresario launched the Edinburgh International Festival of Music and Drama to heal the scars of the Second World War through a celebration of the arts At the same time a socialist theatre group from Glasgow and other amateur companies protested their exclusion from the festival by performing anyway inventing the concept of fringe theatre Now the annual celebration known collectively as the Edinburgh Festival is the largest arts festival in the world incorporating events dedicated to theatre film art literature comedy dance jazz and even military pageantry It has launched careers from Peter Cook and Dudley Moore in Beyond the Fringe to Phoebe Waller Bridge with Fleabag mirrored the political and social mood of its times shaped the city of Edinburgh around it and welcomed a huge all star cast including Orson Welles Grace Kelly Yehudi Menuhin and Mark E Smith s The Fall and many many more This is its story Feminist Politics, Intersectionality and Knowledge Cultivation Radhika Govinda, 2025-02-11 In Feminist Politics Intersectionality and Knowledge Cultivation Radhika Govinda engages with intersectionality as critical theory as critical methodology and as critical pedagogy to make sense of feminist politics in India and beyond and knowledge making on feminist politics as such In doing so she makes a case for theory making conducting empirical research and classroom teaching to be understood as integral parts of knowledge cultivation each feeding into the other Differently put the book encapsulates Govinda s engagement spanning fifteen years and four case studies exploring what insights an intersectional lens throws up and how these insights complicate our understandings of marginality privilege and solidarity in the field of women s and gender studies in feminist classrooms in women s and social movements in particular NGO led feminist activism state led development initiatives and digital feminist campaigns and in everyday social relations in rural and urban spaces Uncovering interrogating and disrupting the politics of coloniality and feminist complicity is an important running thread in the book Through a reflexive account of her own location and practice in the academy at the cusp of the global north and the global south Govinda highlights the importance of being attentive to intersectional positionality and to the contextual specificities of engaging in feminist politics and knowledge making in the age of global neoliberalism Movable Types David Finkelstein, 2018 This is a study of international print networks developed across the English speaking world over a significant part of the long nineteenth century The first study of its kind it draws on unique sources from Australasia North America South Africa the British Isles and Ireland to explore how printers interacted and shared trade and cultural identities across international boundaries during the period 1830 1914 Morality mobility mobilisation and solidarity were central to how compositors and print trade workers defined themselves during this period These themes are addressed in case studies on roving printers striking printers and creative printers The case studies explore the cultural values and trade skills transmitted and embedded by such actors the global networks that enabled print workers to travel across continents in search of work and experience the trade actions reliant on mobilization and information sharing across the printing world and the creative ideas that printers shared through such means as memoirs poetry prose and trade news contributions to print trade journals and other public outlets

Woman's Weekly and Lower Middle-Class Domestic Culture in Britain, 1918-1958 Eleanor Reed, 2022-03-23 A unique intersection between periodical and literary scholarship and class and gender history this book showcases a brand new approach to surveying a popular domestic magazine Reading Woman's Weekly alongside titles including Good Housekeeping My Weekly Peg's Paper and Woman's Own and works by authors including Dot Allan E M Delafield George Orwell and J B Priestley it positions the publication within both the contemporary magazine market and the field of literature more broadly redrawing the parameters of that field as it approaches the domestic magazine as a literary genre in its own right Between 1918 and 1958 Woman's Weekly targeted a lower middle class readership broadly housewives and unmarried clerical workers on low incomes who viewed or aspired to view themselves as middle class Examining the magazine's distinctively lower middle class treatment of issues including the First World War's impact on gender the status of housewives and working women women's contribution to the Second World War effort and Britain's post war economic and social recovery this book supplies fresh and challenging insights into lower middle class culture during a period in which Britain's lower middle classes were gaining prominence and middle class lifestyles were undergoing rapid and radical change

Festivals and the City Andrew Smith, Guy Osborn, Bernadette Quinn, 2022-08-23 This book explores how festivals and events affect urban places and public spaces with a particular focus on their role in fostering inclusion The festivalisation of culture politics and space in cities is often regarded as problematic but this book examines the positive and negative ways that festivals affect cities by examining festive spaces as contested spaces The book focuses on Western European cities a particularly interesting context given the social and cultural pressures associated with high levels of in migration and concerns over the commercialisation and privatisation of public spaces The key themes of this book are the quest for more inclusive urban spaces and the contested geographies of festival spaces and places Festivals are often used by municipal authorities to break down symbolic barriers that restrict who uses public spaces and what those spaces are used for However the rise of commercial festivals and ticketed events means that they are also responsible for imposing physical and financial obstacles that reduce the accessibility of city parks streets and squares Alongside addressing the contested effects of urban festivals on the character and inclusivity of public spaces the book addresses more general themes including the role of festivals in culture led regeneration Several chapters analyse festivals and events as economic development tools and the book also covers contested representations of festival cities and the ways related images and stories are used in place marketing A range of cases from Western Europe are used to explore these issues including chapters on some of the world's most significant and contested festival cities Venice Edinburgh London and Barcelona The book covers a wide range of festivals including those dedicated to music and the arts but also events celebrating particular histories identities and pastimes A series of fascinating cases are discussed from the Venice Biennale and Dublin Festival of History to Rotterdam s music festivals and craft beer festivals in Manchester The diverse and innovative qualities of the book are also evident in the range of urban spaces covered obvious examples of public spaces such as parks streets squares and piazzas are addressed but the book includes chapters on enclosed public spaces e g libraries and urban blue spaces waterways too This reflects the interpretation of public spaces as socio material entities they are produced informally through their use including for festivals and events as well as through their formal design and management The British Journal of Photography ,1867

Queer Trades, Sex and Society Jeffrey Meek,2023-06-01 This book is the first scholarly work to explore male homosexual prostitution in interwar Scotland The male prostitute occupies a contested position within interwar society depending on the perspective he was representative of a descent into turpitude of tenacious organised criminality or of exploitation The book explores connections between male prostitution and criminal gangs prevalent during the interwar period by detailing the emergence and activities of Glasgow s notorious Whitehats a gang composed of a number of queer male prostitutes and led by William Paton This book discovers that although Paton s activities were representative of a career criminal the young men who joined the Whitehats were often driven by poverty and social isolation This book explores the experiences of Edinburgh police detective William Merrilees and his war on homosexuality in Edinburgh during the 1930s through examining the tactics used to regulate homosexual trade and the implications this held for the men involved The book not only explores the attitudes opinions and actions of police officers politicians and the legal process but also uncovers fragments from the lives of the men involved through personal reflections and letters The book explores the anxieties that the trade in homosexual sex provoked not just for understandings of sexuality but also of gender and nationhood and offers a comparative perspective of the forms of homosexual trade in Scotland England and major foreign cities This book will have broad appeal to academics and students in the field of social sexual and gender history as well as the social and criminal histories of Scotland and Britain Community-based Traditional Music in Scotland Josephine L. Miller,2022-10-17 This book examines the community based learning and teaching of traditional music in contemporary Scotland with implications for transnational theoretical issues The book draws on a broad range of scholarship and a local case study of a large organisation A historical perspective provides an overview of new educational formats emerging from the mid twentieth century folk music revival in Scotland Practices through which participants encounter and perpetuate the idiom of traditional music include social music making learning by ear and participatory and presentational elements of musical performances Individuals are shown as combining these aspects with their own learning strategies to participate in the contemporary community of practice of traditional music The work also discusses how experiences of learning contribute to identity formation including the role and practice of tutors of traditional music The author proposes conceptualising the teaching and learning of traditional music in community based organisations as a pedagogy of participation Comprehensive Manual of Ophthalmology Ahmed E,2010-06-15 Comprehensive Manual of Ophthalmology in which sufficient information has been provided in easy to understand language with a definite and uniform format Many tables have been incorporated for summarizing key facts about different diseases Enough standard colored illustrations will be of immense help A short list of Further Readings has been added at the end of each chapter for those who want to pursue further on the particular topic I consider this humble endeavor as a mini textbook of ophthalmology in a refreshingly reader friendly fashion which I presume will be quite useful for both undergraduate and postgraduate students residents and even practicing ophthalmologists

Data-Driven Innovation in the Creative Industries Melissa Terras,Vikki Jones,Nicola Osborne,Chris Speed,2024-04-17 The creative industries the place where art business and technology meet in economic activity have been hugely affected by the relatively recent digitalisation and often monetisation of work home relationships and leisure Such trends were accelerated by the global COVID 19 pandemic This edited collection examines how the creative industries can be supported to make best use of opportunities in digital technology and data driven innovation Since digital markets and platforms are now essential for revenue generation and audience engagement there is a vital need for improved data and digital skills in the creative and cultural sectors Taking a necessarily global perspective this book explores the challenges and opportunities of data driven approaches to creativity in different contexts across the arts cultural and heritage sectors Chapters reach beyond the platforms and approaches provided by the technology sector to delve into the collaborative work that supports innovation around the interdisciplinary and cross sectoral issues that emerge where data infrastructures and approaches meet creativity A novel intervention that uniquely centres the role of data in the theory and practice of creative industries innovation this book is valuable reading for those researching and studying the creative economy as well for those who drive investment for the creative industries in a digitalised society The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 International license English Mechanics ,1929 Aotearoa New Zealand in the Global Theatre Marketplace James Wenley,2020-10-18 Aotearoa New Zealand in the Global Theatre Marketplace offers a case study of how the theatre of Aotearoa has toured represented and marketed itself on the global stage How has New Zealand work attempted to stand out differentiate itself and get seen by audiences internationally This book examines the journeys of a dynamic range of culturally and theatrically innovative works created by Aotearoa New Zealand theatre makers that have toured and been performed across time place and theatrical space from Moana Oceania to the Edinburgh Festival Fringe from a M ori Shakespeare adaptation to an immersive zombie theatre experience Drawing on postcolonialism transnationalism cosmopolitanism and globality to understand how Aotearoa New Zealand has imagined and conceived of itself through drama the author investigates how these representations might be read and received by audiences around the world variously reinforcing and complicating conceptions of New Zealand national identity Developing concepts of theatrical mobility portability and the market this study engages with the whole theatrical enterprise as a play travels from concept and scripting through to funding marketing performance and the critical response by reviewers and commentators This book will be of global interest to academics producers and theatre artists as a significant resource for the theory and practice of theatre touring and cross cultural performance and reception Measuring Population Mental Health OECD,2023-03-15 Good mental health is a vital part of people s well being and the COVID 19 pandemic brought renewed attention to its importance However discussions so far have not focused sufficiently on how governments should best monitor it at the broader population level and on how to consider both mental ill health and positive mental states Seeking Nature's Logic David B. Wilson,2009 Studies the path of natural philosophy i e physics from Isaac Newton through Scotland into the nineteenth century background to the modern revolution in physics Examines how the history of science has been influenced by John Robison and other notable intellectuals of the Scottish Enlightenment Provided by publisher The Supplement to the Penny Cyclopædia of the Society for the Diffusion of Useful Knowledge ,1846 Liverpool and Manchester Photographic Journal ,1911 The British Review ... ,1859 The North British Review ,1860

Embracing the Tune of Expression: An Mental Symphony within Edinburgh Through The Lens

In some sort of eaten by monitors and the ceaseless chatter of fast interaction, the melodic elegance and mental symphony produced by the published word often diminish in to the background, eclipsed by the constant noise and distractions that permeate our lives. Nevertheless, set within the pages of Edinburgh Through The Lens a wonderful literary treasure overflowing with organic emotions, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Crafted by an elegant composer of language, that fascinating masterpiece conducts viewers on a mental journey, well unraveling the concealed melodies and profound influence resonating within each cautiously constructed phrase. Within the depths of this emotional examination, we will explore the book is central harmonies, analyze their enthralling writing model, and submit ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers souls.
