Life in a Jewish Family: An Autobiography, 1891-1916 (The Collected Works of Edith Stein, vol. 1) Edith Stein (Teresa Benedicta of the Cross), 2017-11-24 This initial volume of the Collected Works of Edith Stein offers for the first time in English the unabridged biography of Edith Stein, Teresa Benedicta of the Cross, depicting her life as a child and young adult. Her text ends abruptly because the Nazi SS arrested then deported her to the Auschwitz concentration camp in 1942. The ebook version contains a fully linked Index, Map, and List of Places. Edith Stein is one of the most significant German Jewish women of the 20th century. At the age of twenty-five, she became the first assistant to Edmund Husserl, the founder of Phenomenology. She was much in demand as a writer and lecturer after her conversion from atheism to Catholicism. Later, as a Discalced Carmelite nun, she maintained her intellectual pursuits until she, like so many others, became a victim of the Nazi persecution that raged across Eastern Europe. By making this landmark work available in English, the Institute of Carmelite Studies provides an eye-witness account of persons and activities on the scene at the time when psychology and philosophy became separate disciplines. In addition to photographs and a map, this volume is enhanced with a preface, the foreword, and afterword, notes, and a list of places associated with Edith Stein's life. It is our aim that these, together with Edith Stein's text, may help bring into relief the many background details of the rich autobiographical work she has left us. Chosen Best Spirituality Book of 1986 by the Catholic Press Association.
