Education Feminism Barbara J. Thayer-Bacon, Lynda Stone, Katharine M. Sprecher, 2013-12-15 Collection of important essays by feminist scholars from cultural studies philosophy of education curriculum theory and women s studies Education Feminism is a revised and updated version of Lynda Stone s out of print anthology The Education Feminism Reader The text is intended as a course text and provides students a foundational base in feminist theories in education The classics section is comprised of the readings that students have most responded to in classes The contemporary readings section demonstrates how the third wave feminist criticism of the 1990s has an impact on today s feminist work Both of these sections address critical multicultural educational issues and have an inclusive diverse selection of feminist scholars who bring race class sexual orientation religious practices and colonial postcolonial perspectives to bear on their work The individual essays are concise and well written and arranged in such a way that it is easy for instructors to assign them around themes of their own choosing The incredible value of this fine collection is that it demonstrates what it means to critically consider interrogate and challenge historic and contemporary ideas regarding educational equity while using these very ideas to imagine new possibilities It will serve as an indispensable resource in graduate classrooms where students can use the text to ground and forward explorations of the necessarily complex considerations of equity in education today Adela C Licona coeditor of Feminist Pedagogy Looking Back to Move Forward

Everyday Knowledge And Uncommon Truths Linda Christian-smith,2021-11-28 Everyday Knowledge and Uncommon Truths Women of the Academy is a thirteen chapter volume which draws on the life experience and varied backgrounds of academic women from the United States Australia New Zealand and Canada The book addresses a variety of issues pertaining to women s home lives education teaching research writing and activism To provide diverse perspectives on women s experiences of being and knowing in and outside the academy contributors draw on a range of critical approaches derived from feminism poststructuralism postmodernism critical education theory discourse theory and analysis narrative inquiry and life histories Lately there has been considerable interest by women in the academy in a discernment process involving an examination of the historically politically and culturally situated nature of their knowledge of the world their work in the academy and other activities in which they engage These examinations especially in the form of narrative inquiry life histories and deconstructive language practices such as discourse analysis figure prominently in breaking silences and giving voice to the many tensions that women experience in the academic workplace and other settings Challenging Democracy Madeleine Arnot,Jo-Anne Dillabough,2014-02-04 This collection establishes a highly topical new international field of study that of gender education and citizenship It brings together for the first time important cutting edge research on the contribution of the educational system to the formation of male and female citizens It shows how gender relations operate behind apparently neutral concepts of liberal democratic citizenship and citizenship education The editors asked leading international educationalists to describe the theoretical frameworks and methodologies they used to research gender and citizenship Challenging Democracy suggests ways in which the educational system could help develop genuinely inclusive democratic societies in which men and women play an equal role in shaping the meaning of citizenship Jsl Vol 13-N5 JOURNAL OF SCHOOL LEADERSHIP,2003-09-29 The Journal of School Leadership is broadening the conversation about schools and leadership and is currently accepting manuscripts We welcome manuscripts based on cutting edge research from a wide variety of theoretical perspectives and methodological orientations The editorial team is particularly interested in working with international authors authors from traditionally marginalized populations and in work that is relevant to practitioners around the world Growing numbers of educators and professors look to the six bimonthly issues to
