University-Community Partnerships Tracy Soska, Alice K Johnson Butterfield, 2013-05-13 Examine how your university can help solve the complex problems of your community Community Outreach Partnership Centers COPC sponsored by the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development HUD have identified civic engagement and community partnership as critical themes for higher education This unique book addresses past present and future models of university community partnerships COPC programs wide ranging social work partnerships that involve teaching research and social change and innovative methods in the processes of civic engagement. The text recognizes the many professions, schools, and higher education institutions that contribute to advancing civic engagement through university community partnerships. One important contribution this book makes to the literature of civic engagement is that it is the first publication that significantly highlights partnership contributions from schools of social work which are rediscovering their community roots through these initiatives. University Community Partnerships: Universities in Civic Engagement documents how universities are involved in creative individual faculty and program partnerships that help link campus and community partnerships that are vital for teaching, research, and practice. Academics and practitioners discuss outreach initiatives, methods of engagement with an emphasis on community organization, service learning, and other teaching/learning methods, research models, participatory research, and high engagement techniques used in university community partnerships. The book includes case studies, historical studies, policy analysis, program evaluation, and curriculum development. University Community Partnerships: Universities in Civic Engagement examines the increasing civic engagement of institutions of higher education, civic engagement projects involving urban nonprofit community-based organizations and neighborhood associations, the developmental stages of a COPC partnership, problems faced in evaluating COPC programs, civic engagement based on teaching and learning, how pre-tenure faculty can meet research, teaching, and service requirements through university community partnerships, developing an MSW program structured around a single concentration of community partnership, how class, race, and organizational differences are barriers to equality in the civic engagement process. University Community Partnerships: Universities in Civic Engagement is one of the few available academic resources to address the importance of social work involvement in COPC programs. Social work educators, students, and practitioners, community organizers, urban planners, and anyone working in community development will find it invaluable in providing guidance for community problem solving and creating opportunities for faculty, students, and community residents to learn from one another. Advances in Education Research, 1998. Integrating Service Learning and Multicultural Education in Colleges and Universities Carolyn R. O'Grady, 2014-04-08. Provides a systematic presentation of research theory/practice related to the ways in which service learning/multicultural education can should be integrated. Authors share a commitment to a vision of education that synthesizes action/reflection. Service Learning for Health, Physical Education, and Recreation Cheryl Stevens, 2008. Service Learning for Health, Physical Education, and Recreation is a unique workbook for planning, implementing, and evaluating service learning projects. It includes an easy-to-follow process for planning and completing projects and a range of tools and activities to help students maintain progress and navigate the complexities of their projects. Educating for Active Citizenship Kimberly Spring, 2006. Transforming Teacher Education through Service-Learning Virginia M. Jagla, Joseph A. Erickson, Alan S. Tinkler, 2013-12-01. Transforming Teacher Education through Service Learning provides a fresh look at educational reform through the lens of teacher preparation It poses the question Why service learning now as it discusses the meaningful ways service learning pedagogy can transform the approaches used to prepare teachers to educate tomorrow s children The pedagogy of service learning has significant implications for teacher education Its transformative aspects have far reaching potential to address teacher candidate dispositions and provide deeper understanding of diversity Knowledge of the pedagogy and how to implement it in candidates future classrooms could alter education to a more powerful experience of democracy in action and enhance the civic mission of schools The current and ongoing research found within this volume is meant to continue support of the notion of educational reform Because the vision we hold becomes the reality we experience it is imperative to consider the question Why service learning now as we adjust teacher preparation programs to promote engaging opportunities for today s youth
