Education As Mibion:

U.S. Education is in Trouble, Let's Fix It! Richard W. Garrett, 2023-07-17 Changes to Improve Schools is a book about educational reform Richard Garrett has spent ten years researching the U S K 12 system to find things in need of improvements The book has 17 chapters that cover a wide range of topics such as the performance of American students classroom discipline and apprehensions younger graduates face when deciding to pursue educational fields The Educational Monthly of Canada ,1901 Bureaucracy's Masters and Minions Eleanor L. Schiff, 2020-07-23 In Bureaucracy's Masters and Minions The Politics of Controlling the U S Bureaucracy the author argues that political control of the bureaucracy from the president and the Congress is largely contingent on an agency's internal characteristics of workforce composition workforce responsibilities and workforce organization Through a revised principal agent framework the author explores an agent principal model to use the agent as the starting point of analysis The author tests the agent principal model across 14 years and 132 bureaus and finds that both the president and the House of Representatives exert influence over the bureaucracy but agency characteristics such as the degree of politization among the workforce the type of work the agency is engaged in and the hierarchical nature of the agency affects how agencies are controlled by their political masters In a detailed case study of one agency the U S Department of Education the author finds that education policy over a 65 year period is elite led and that that hierarchical nature of the department conditions political principals influence This book works to overcome three hurdles that have plagued bureaucratic studies the difficulty of uniform sampling across the bureaucracy the overuse of case studies and the overreliance on the principal agent theoretical approach Jewish Education in New York City Alexander Mordecai Dushkin, 1918 Minutes of the Committee of Council on Education Correspondence, Financial Statements, Etc., and Reports by Her Majesty's Inspectors of Schools Great Britain. novel with a serious social commentary Many of the characters and situations are instantly recognisable from my forty years of educational experience but it carries a message wider than the context of education Beneath the antics of the seemingly mad Dr Erfert is the questions it raises about the awareness of mental health issues within schools and other areas of society

PF Lupton BA Dip RE Retired teacher Description This book is meant to be a satirical novel based on the author s forty years of experience in teacher training and inspection Its fundamental principle is that much of what goes on in education is so bizarre as to be like the old story of the emperor s new clothes There is an elaborate game played by two sets of players Some genuinely believe in the absurdities and some see through them but it is not in their interest to break rank So long as everyone plays by the rules of this silly game the emperor has clothes But when one young Yorkshireman of sturdy common sense tries to make people believe that much of what goes on is nonsense he comes up against both sets of protagonists The novel is partly a story of how he is defeated by the system and ultimately has to accept and embrace it Many of the things John Cosgrove recounts in this novel have actually happened but they are wrapped around the bizarre antics of a mad principal The serious question on which the reader must decide for him or herself is whether Dr Erfert is mad or whether the madness lies in the society that tolerates and promotes him and other so called educational experts This is an interesting and thought provoking novel which raises questions for the whole of society About the Author Dr John Cosgrove BA MA MEd PhD DASE PGCE CELTA has forty years experience of the education system working in a variety of fields from schools to universities He has been involved with teacher training for over thirty years and has held senior positions in the university sector including that of Dean of the Faculty of Humanities at Reading University He has been the chief external examiner at Reading University for teacher training courses He has been on the Rochdale Education Committee and its successors for over 20 years and has held the chairmanship or vice chairmanship of four governing bodies as well as of many university level committees He is particularly well known for his contribution to Catholic education mainly in the Salford Diocese and was once invited to be an occasional historical consultant to a congregation in Rome He has taken part in 80 OFSTED inspections specialising in History Religious Education and Spiritual Moral Social and Cultural aspects He has written academic theses and has had a few articles accepted by newspapers Times Educational Supplement or journals The Month but this is his first novel He has a children s novel based on the Civil War almost ready and has ideas for more work on Dr Erfert s career as the emperor of education He also has a plan for a non fiction academic book on the principles of history teaching for student teachers and for teachers having an OFSTED inspection He has now retired from full time work

The School of Rome W.
