Performance Assessment Kay Burke, 2004 Implementing and Analyzing Performance Assessments in Teacher Education Joyce E. Many, Ruchi Bhatnagar, 2017-12-01 Teacher education has long relied on locally developed assessments that lack reliability and validity Rigorous performance based assessments for preservice teachers have been advanced as one possible way to ensure that all students receive instruction from a high quality teacher Recently performance based assessments have been developed which focus on the application of knowledge of teaching and learning in a classroom setting Our book explores factors related to the implementation of teacher performance assessments in varying state and institutional contexts The contributors teacher educators from across the country focus on what was learned from inquiries conducted using diverse methodologies quantitative qualitative self studies and mixed methods Their research encompassed faculty supervisors cooperating teachers and students perceptions and concerns of teacher performance assessments case studies of curricular reform and or resistance analyses of experiences and needs as a result of the adoption of such assessments and examinations of the results of program alignment and reform The chapters showcase experiences which occurred during high stakes situations in implementation periods prior to high stakes adoption and in contexts where programs adopted performance assessments as an institutional policy rather than as a result of a state wide mandate Endorsements The chapters compiled for Implementing and Analyzing Performance Assessments in Teacher Education edited by Joyce E Many and Ruchi Bhatnagar present a thoughtful look at the challenges and solutions embedded in the adoption of teacher performance assessments for preservice teachers Most chapters feature edTPA the most commonly used performance assessment now mandated in numerous states and used voluntarily by other programs across the country and reveal how such assessments shine a bright light on the problems of practice in teacher preparation stressful timelines faculty silos communication with P 12 partners etc when new requirements disrupt the status quo Each chapter tells a valuable story of performance assessment implementation and approaches that offset compliance in favor of inquiry and educative experiences for candidates and programs alike Andrea Whittaker Ph D edTPA National Director Stanford University Graduate School of Education UL SCALE Many and Bhatnagar launch the AAPE book series with a curated volume

highlighting the contexts in which teacher educators implement and utilize performance assessments in educator preparation Together the chapters present research from various viewpoints from candidates faculty university supervisors and clinical partners using diverse methodologies and approaches The volume contributes significantly to the program assessment research landscape by providing examples of how performance assessments inform preparation at the intersection of praxis and research and campus and field These chapters provide a critical foundation for teacher educators eager to leverage performance assessments to improve their programs Diana B Lys EdD Assistant Dean of Educator Preparation and Accreditation School of Education University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill

Assessing Deeper Learning Douglas G. Wren, 2019-08-01 Deeper learning has been defined as the skills and knowledge that students must possess to succeed in 21st century jobs and civic life William and Flora Hewlett Foundation 2013 Assessing Deeper Learning Developing Implementing and Scoring Performance Tasks examines the role of performance assessment to facilitate student attainment of the core competencies of deeper learning The book details a journey that a large school district undertook to create a system of performance tasks designed to assess students proficiency in critical thinking problem solving and effective communication Chapters devoted to the development and implementation of the district's high quality performance tasks and rubrics highlight successes and lessons learned during the journey Additional chapters focus on such topics as types of performance assessments instructional methods that promote student engagement and deeper learning policy and how teacher leaders can drive this innovation to serve the teaching learning assessment and accountability needs of schools Assessing Deeper Learning Developing Implementing and Scoring Performance Tasks was written for teachers administrators superintendents and policy makers to better understand the challenges and opportunities afforded by using performance assessment to promote deeper learning

Designing Performance Assessment Systems for Urban Teacher Preparation Francine P. Peterman, 2005 Designing Performance Assessment Systems for Urban Teacher Preparation presents an argument for and invites critical examination of teacher preparation and assessment practices in light of both the complexity and demands of urban settings and the theories of learning and learning to teach that guide teacher education practices This dynamic approach distinguishes the authors stance on urban teacher assessment as one that can help address social justice issues related to gender race socioeconomic class and other differences and at the same time promote the professional development of all educators engaged in the process of learning to teach The contextually bound sociocultural stance that informs this book promises greater teacher and student achievement Culminating six years of vital dialogue and focused local activity among teachers and teacher educators from institutions in the Urban Network to Improve Teacher Education Designing Performance Assessment Systems for Urban Teacher Preparation presents the historical context that was examined for this work a theoretical framework to undergrad teacher preparation assessment and design principles to guide the development of assessment systems four case studies of participants struggles and successes in designing and implementing these systems and a discussion of the importance of context and current trends in assessment practices in urban teaching This volume is particularly relevant for university and school based teacher educators who help prepare teachers to work in urban schools and for personnel in state departments of education and other agencies who are responsible for certification and beginning teacher support While the focus is on preparing teachers for urban settings the theoretical and practical foundations and the case studies have broad implications and provide useful insights for anyone involved in developing and using performance assessment systems teacher educators university and school administrators classroom teachers and educational researchers

Performance-Based Assessment in 21st Century Teacher Education
Winter, Kim K.,Pinter, Holly H.,Watson, Myra K.,2019-03-01 Performance based assessments can provide an adequate and more direct evaluation of teaching ability As performance based assessments become more prevalent in institutions across the United States there is an opportunity to begin more closely analyzing the impact of standardized performance assessments and the relationship to variables such as success entering the workforce program re visioning for participating institutions and the perceptions and efficacy of teacher candidates themselves Performance Based Assessment in 21st Century Teacher Education is a collection of innovative research that explores meaningful and engaging performance based assessments and its applications and addresses larger issues of assessment including the importance of a balanced approach of assessing knowledge and skills The book also offers tangible structures for making strong connections between theory and practice and offers advice on how these assessments are utilized as data sources related to preservice teacher performance While highlighting topics including faculty engagement online programs and curriculum mapping this book is ideally designed for educators administrators principals school boards professionals researchers faculty and students
