increasingly challenging and rewarding future Curriculum Histories in Place, in Person, in Practice Petra Hendry, Molly Quinn, Roland Mitchell, Jacqueline Bach, 2023-03-10 This book situates the Curriculum Theory Project at Louisiana State University within a larger historical framework of curriculum work examining the practices which have sustained this type of curricular vitality over the lifetime of the field's existence Divided into seven parts the authors illuminate seven practices which have sustained the scholarship graduate programs mentorship and networking that have been critical to maintaining a web of international relationships This exploration and coming together of intergenerational stories reveals a more complete and nuanced narrative of the development of curriculum theory over the last 60 years Crucially the project exemplifies the continuing resilience of curriculum theory despite ongoing neo liberal aspirations to reframe education as a business Reflecting upon the lived experiences and articulated memories of those who have participated in the project and analysis of documents collected over its 25 year history it considers curriculum history in writ large through and from this lens of practice As such it opens up fresh insights for cultivating the vitality and vigor of curriculum theory more broadly on an international scale and with a view to future directions for the field It will appeal to both new and experienced scholars working across education foundations urban education philosophy of education and higher education and researchers from across history sociology anthropology ethnic studies and gender studies Teacher Education in the 21st Century Maria Jose Hernández-Serrano, 2021-06-16 In the face of unprecedented disruption from the COVID 19 pandemic and the rapid acceleration of digital technologies it is necessary to rethink the competences required by teachers for meeting new and flexible learning demands Teacher training is an area constantly evolving along with emerging social challenges that are transforming educational institutions and agents This book provides teachers with skills innovative solutions cutting edge studies and methodologies to meet education and training system demands In our changing world preparing teachers worldwide for the challenges and shifts of this era involves the opportunity to exchange theories practices and experiences such as those contained in this book Handbook of Psychology: Educational psychology Irving B. Weiner, Donald K. Freedheim, 2003 Includes established theories and cutting edge developments Presents the work of an international group of experts Presents the nature origin implications and a future course of major unresolved issues in the area Theories of Learning and Studies of Instructional Practice Timothy Koschmann, 2011-04-19 This is a book about an attempt to change the way math was taught in a particular classroom Its title plays on our everyday usage of the terms theory and practice In education these terms are conventionally treated oppositionally we have theories about what we should do and we have what teachers actually do do In this way theory stands prior logically and chronologically to practice practice inevitably becoming theory's imperfect realization We seek in this volume however to develop a different stance with regard to the relationship between the two Taking the details of instructional practice as our principle object of study we explore what role theories of learning might play in illuminating such practices The book is about actual practices by which teaching is done and how contemporary theories of learning might help us understand those practices It seeks to provide a foundation for future practice based inquiry in education by addressing the methodological question How do we go about studying instructional practice in a principled way Teaching and Learning in the 21st Century, 2021-05-25 Within the era of the Fourth Industrial Revolution we are living in a technologically advanced society and students and teacher educators need to be adequately prepared to succeed within this progressive society Teaching and Learning in the 21st Century Embracing the Fourth Industrial Revolution is an edited volume that situates teaching and learning for the 21st century within diverse contexts globally so that teacher educators could make sense of their professional knowledge curriculum classroom contexts and diverse students This book intends to frame and explore the different responsive and innovative pedagogies that are used for embracing the Fourth Industrial Revolution Additionally it aims to clarify some key concepts for example blended learning coding digital E Learning Internet M Learning simulation and tools in addition to other issues that surround teaching and learning for the 21st century The book also exemplifies authentic case studies located within global contexts focusing on the 21st century curriculum the 21st century classroom environment teachers in the 21st century and students in the 21st century Contributors from around the world Australia Indonesia Mauritius South Africa Tanzania and the United States of America share their innovations in education by interrogating research experiences and examples of good practice

Principles of Subjective Anthropology Binggong Chen, 2023-03-27 This book puts forward the concept of subjective anthropology and outlines a theoretical system that will allow subjective anthropology to qualify as a new academic discipline in its own right In an effort to respond to the field's proper role as the science of humanity subjective analysis has been introduced into the study of anthropology The book fills two distinct gaps in our knowledge and understanding of modern man offering detailed descriptions of personality and of groups while also advancing the theory of structure and choice The book formulates seven basic principles of subjective anthropology and divides anthropology into three major branches subjective anthropology cultural anthropology and biological or physical anthropology which can be further divided into sub branches The book pursues three key goals advancing and developing the theoretical system of subjective anthropology reconstructing the discipline of anthropology and establishing a Chinese anthropology with Chinese characteristics Chinese visions and Chinese styles
