De Nicolás,2000 This stimulating new work is based on a highly successful and extremely popular course which Professor De Nicolas has taught at the State University of New York at Stony Brook for over 15 years In Habits of Mind De Nicolas reveals that the most important achievement of education is to develop in students those skills that enable them to participate fully in the life of humankind He calls these skills the inner technologies and intends by the phrase something very different from cognitive skills Education he claims must nurture the capacity for fantasy and imagination In Habits of Mind he traces the relative importance of these capacities through the history and philosophy of education from Plato onward The habits of intellectual discourse are treated as an organic thread from the ancient past to the present Didactique des langues romanes : le développement de compétences chez l'apprenant Luc Collès,2001 Bok og samfunn ,1985 Deutsche
