AUTHOR, 2015-07-19 Excerpt from Editorials From the Hearst Newspapers The articles in this book were published originally in the editorial columns of the various Hearst newspapers throughout the country These articles may have some interest for the student of modern happenings because of the fact that the newspapers publishing them have an aggregate daily circulation of two millions of copies and are read each day by no fewer than five millions of men and women Such wide circulation of identical opinions on current events in different parts of the country is a new feature of our national life The character of such writings and their probable influence upon the public mind whatever their lack of intrinsic merit may be of sufficient important to justify the publication of this collection of ephemeral writings About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work

Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
