Andreopoulos, 2002 Although the celebrations surrounding the fiftieth anniversary of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights UDHR highlighted some remarkable achievements in the human rights movement the international community must remain cognizant of a whole new array of unprecedented challenges These challenges relate to the relevance of the conceptual framework within which the human rights movement has been operating as well as to the need for effective strategies of promotion and protection Social and Ethical Considerations of AI in East Asia and Beyond Levi Checketts, Benedict S. B. Chan, 2025-02-17 This book is a global reflection on disparate religious and philosophical approaches to questions of AI and the particular ways these questions affect East Asian societies These chapters originate from a conference held at Hong Kong Baptist University in April 2023 on Ethical and Social Issues in AI East Asia and Beyond Sections cover Confucianist Daoist and Christian reflections on AI ethics Chapters on broad theoretical questions that AI poses are included as well as those addressing issues in applied AI ethics. This volume appeals to students and researchers working across cultures and traditions on the philosophy of AI technology The Bloomsbury Handbook of Theory in Comparative and International Education Tavis D. Jules, Robin Shields, Matthew A. M. Thomas, 2021-01-28 This book offers a practical and approachable overview of central theories in comparative and international education CIE The chapters focus in depth on specific theoretical perspectives and seek to elucidate the histories assumptions and recent developments of these theories The chapters also situate the theories within CIE include specific case studies of theoretical application and outline suggestions for further reading Written by leading scholars from around the world this is must have reference work for anyone teaching researching studying or working in CIE The handbook includes chapters on a diverse collection of theories including but not limited to Structural functionalism Colonialism Imperialism Marxism Human Capital Theory Dependency World Systems Theory Post Colonialism Post Socialism Post Foundationalism Neo liberalism Neo Institutionalism Neo Marxism Policy Borrowing and Lending Peace Theories Human Rights Constructivism Racism Gender Queer Theory Social Network Theory Capabilities Theory and Cultural Political Economy Citizenship Education in Asia and the Pacific W.O. Lee, David L. Grossman, Kerry J. Kennedy, Gregory P. Fairbrother, 2013-11-11 It is a great pleasure to present this book edited by a distinguished team at the Hong Kong Institute of Education and with excellent contributors from nine countries in the region and beyond The book is a truly comparative work which significantly advances conceptual understanding The comparisons undertaken are at many levels and with different units for analysis One chapter undertakes comparison in two cities Hong Kong and Guangzhou three chapters make comparisons between two eountries South Korea and Singapore Solomon Islands and Vanuatu South Korea and China and five chapters undertake eomparisons across the whole region Other on individual countries or in one case on a single schoo In addition ehapters foeus several chapters examine the attitudes and roles played by individuals and groups within societies The book is thus an admirable example of the vitality of the field of comparative education in selecting different units for analysis and in examination of issues from diverse angles Within the book moreover readers will find a fascinating array of settings and environments On the one hand for example is Japan with its relatively homogenous eulture a population of 126 million and a strong national identity based on language and history On the other hand is Solomon Islands which has a population of just 400 000 scattered over 1 000 islands approximately 90 indigenous languages and major social problems arising from culture c ashes economic forces political dyna mies and legacies of colonialism Beyond Chutzpah Norman G.
