Educational Theories and Practices from the Majority World Pierre R Dasen, Abdeljalil Akkari, 2008-11-11 This work provides a healthy comprehensive counterpoint to the ethnocentrism engrained in the widespread belief that scientific knowledge about education is typically Western Stressing that the Western minority perspective cannot hold true for the majority of the world population situated outside Europe and North America this edited volume explores traditional educational theories and practices developed in the majority world to study how they can improve modern schooling globally Educational Theories and Practices from the Majority World probes the elements of culturally appropriate quality schooling for various indigenous people in India the Pacific and the Americas One of the sections dwells on how to synergise the systems used in modern schools with the ones used in non Western formal schools linked to religious institutions such as Koranic Sanskrit Buddhist and Voodoo schools Another section delves into educational policy issues in the context of globalization This compilation brings together difficult to access theories and research by contributors from Africa Asia Europe North America Oceania and South America It is an invaluable resource for policy makers in Education and for students researchers and academicians studying Education and Anthropology

Globalisation and Education Policy Reform in Botswana Richard Tabulawa, 2023-07-21 This book uses the global local dialect approach to explicate education policy reform in Botswana and interrogates the practical effects of the various education policies on curriculum pedagogy and governance of the Botswana General Education system Considering the effect of three reform policies since Botswana's Independence in 1966 the book evaluates the performance of each of the policies and examines their consequences in terms of the interplay of global forces and domestic pressures The result of this interplay has been an education landscape that while reflecting globally circulating education discourses markedly differs from those same discourses The book argues that the State in Botswana has appropriated education policy to legitimate itself in times of crisis and that each policy has improved access to general education but collectively have failed to improve its quality making suggestions for how this can be improved in the future As the first book of its kind to delve into education in Botswana from a single authored critical lens the book will be a highly relevant reading for academics researchers and post graduate students of African education comparative education education policy and curriculum studies

Cross Cultural Perspectives On Educational Research Robinson-Pant, Anna,2005-11-01 Winner of the BMW Group LIFE Award for Contribution to Intercultural Learning 2007 The research student population of higher educational institutions continues to expand to include people from an ever widening range of cultural and educational backgrounds However many research methods courses are still directed at the traditional student population This book examines aspects of postgraduate research from a cross cultural perspective analysing the dilemmas faced by international students when defining a research question choosing research methods collecting data deciding which language to use and writing their theses Through an exploration of how international students re examine their beliefs and research practices during their study in the UK this book challenges the assumptions of all those engaged in educational research addressing key questions such as How do our teaching and learning experiences shape our approach to educational research How do we judge good educational research What does it mean to be critical The book uses the real life experiences of international students to illuminate the kinds of challenges they may face It supports both students and their supervisors showing students how to approach cultural differences and supervisors how to deal sensitively with the problems encountered by overseas students in their research

Schooling as Violence Clive Harber,2004 Harber argues that while schooling can play a positive role violence towards children originating in the schools system itself is common systematic and widespread and that schools play a significant role in encouraging violence in wider society

Inside Japanese Classrooms Nancy Sato,2003-12-16 This detailed ethnographic study of fifth and sixth grade classrooms offers new insights into Japanese culture as many aspects of daily social life are embedded in the educational system Additionally this book provides new perspectives on educational reform in the U S since many current issues and programs focus on notions of community collaboration and systemic reform all of which are central to understanding Japanese teaching learning processes in schools

Development, Education and Learning in Sri Lanka Angela W. Little,2024-06-13 Sri Lanka s early achievements in education and literacy became well known among the international development community in the middle of the last century and were often used to benchmark progress elsewhere Development Education and Learning in Sri Lanka presents an illuminating narrative of changing education fortunes and inequalities based on half a century of research This research journey was undertaken in collaboration with Sri Lankan researchers island wide in myriad communities schools classrooms and education offices through conversations with countless parents teachers students community members trade union officers politicians and members of local national and international development agencies as well as through extensive documentary analysis The book delineates the distinctive and changing features of the Sri Lankan education system through comparisons with systems elsewhere through an understanding of national political economic and social conditions crises and upheavals through changes in education policy and through shifting patterns of opportunity among diverse social groups These analyses are framed by themes in the international development discourse ranging from modernisation to basic needs to globalisation and sustainable development some of which themes have been influenced by the Sri Lankan story The book's overriding messages are the need to understand education and development in a country's own terms and to place learning at the heart of education policy situating it within broader conceptions of the purpose values and means of development

Praise for Development Education and Learning in Sri Lanka Through rigorous and comprehensive research and a blend of local and global perspectives this book offers invaluable insights for academics and policymakers alike Tara de Mel Director Bandaranaike Academy for Leadership and Public Policy and former Secretary Sri Lanka Ministry of Education Reflecting on a career long engagement with education and development Angela Little brilliantly co-locates the personal political and the theoretical A privilege to read Simon McGrath University of Glasgow This passionate engagement with education reform and development offers very instructive lessons for academics and policymakers in Sri Lanka and beyond Siri T Hettige University of Colombo Fifty years of personal experience in Sri Lanka from many vantage points A focus on education and society rather than education alone And a concern to understand rather than prescribe This book has no competitors Mick Moore Institute of Development Studies Sussex

Educational Scholarship across the Mediterranean, 2021-10-25 The Mediterranean has once again come into its own in global geo-politics attracting international interest that goes well beyond the typical stereotypes propagated by the tourist industry Popular movements clamouring for democracy conflict zones that have a spill over effect well beyond the region efforts to engage with globalisation on its own terms one and all play out in various sectors of society education included Educational Scholarship across the Mediterranean A Celebratory Retrospective brings together in one volume a selection of the best articles that have appeared in the Mediterranean Journal of Educational Studies whose first issue was published in 1996 Each chapter highlights challenges faced by education systems across the region seen from the perspective of leading scholars who draw on original empirical data a broad spectrum of theoretical frameworks and personal experience to reflect on education related topics Among these we find critical considerations of the role of the economy demography gender social stratification religion politics culture and language in shaping educational systems and practices Much has been achieved in the countries bordering on the Mediterranean over the past 25 years and yet a consideration of the continuities as much as of the ruptures is instructive showing how education remains both a transformative and reproductive force in communities Education as a Human Right Tristan McCowan,2013-04-25

Education is widely recognized as a fundamental human right yet the nature of the right remains unclear Is it an entitlement to go to school to acquire particular forms of knowledge or develop particular skills or attributes And why exactly is education so important that we might defend all people s right to it This book provides a much needed exploration of this key contemporary issue Highlighting limitations in the approaches of both the Education for All initiative and existing international law the book presents a radical new vision of how the right can be understood As well as basic education there are discussions of higher and lifelong education of human rights education and of the intersection of rights based approaches with others such as Amartya Sen s capabilities The work serves as a stirring defense of the universal right to education against instrumental conceptions of learning the inactivity of national governments and the abrogation of responsibility of the international community Youth Civic Development: Work at the Cutting Edge Constance A. Flanagan,Brian D.

Christens,2011-12-05 Take a cutting edge look at the civic engagement of young people Increasingly recognized as an important feature of democratic functioning in communities it has also become clear that the civic domain is indispensable as a context for understanding human development processes This volume proposes the following central theses in relation to youth civic development It is rooted in the realities of young people s everyday lives It is collectively constructed It raises questions about the principles values and relationships that bind people together in societies It raises questions about power and justice Youth civic development pushes the field to focus on the social issues with which younger generations are grappling and the identities they are constructing issues that also are shaped by structural inequalities and by the collective actions of youth The volume builds on themes of agency and assets from the field of positive youth development and points to ways that the critical analysis and engagement of young people in their society can contribute to social change This is the 134th volume in this series Its mission is to provide scientific and scholarly presentations on cutting edge issues and concepts in child and adolescent development Each volume focuses on a specific new direction or research topic and is edited by experts on that topic Power, Pedagogy and Praxis ,2008-01-01 The aim of the text is to respond to gaps in an emergent discourse running along minority majority world fault lines through various perspectives linking globalization education and human rights The editors standpoint allows the consideration of equity in education as the foremost expression of social justice in this era of economic and technological globalization regardless of political or cultural contexts This project continues the tradition of critical social pedagogy in creating common ground that accesses new approaches to political and classroom based relations of power and praxis Quranic Schools Helen N. Boyle,2004-12-01 Helen N Boyle takes an anthropological approach to Quranic schooling in examining the role of Quranic preschools in community life
