Education for Leadership and Social Responsibility Gloria Nemerowicz,Eugene Rossi,2014-01-21 The editors of this text contend that there is a lack of leadership in existence for deciding global and national problems Colleges and universities are generally expected to produce national political scientific and corporate leaders Most institutions maintain that their graduates are leaders yet few institutions explicitly address the issue of leadership and social responsibility in a systematic and comprehensive way Often academic approaches consist of unfocused courses of leadership looking at leadership styles and managerial decision making within a business context Basing their work on research the editors discuss what they consider to be an important programme for the development of leadership and social responsibility in schools and institutions of higher education Touchstone for Change Ann Valentin,2005-02 Think global The world is quickly changing These are quotes that you hear or read frequently these days They are true The world is changing so quickly that it can be overwhelming Are you wondering how you fit in Are changes necessary in your life What s going on The groundwork for the future lies within the past and present What was done yesterday affects today and today will shape tomorrow The theory is one of a continuum in which isolation of events simply does not exist Accepting such a philosophy can be comforting a harbinger of hope Within its text its fold of reason there is the chance for peace in our time Also we must realize there are two ways to achieve global peace now One is by destructiveness and devastation through our nuclear or hydrogen devices The other is to take the route of peaceful initiative Each moment that we are alive is a new opportunity to make a choice and take a different pathway One of the glorious characteristics about being human is that we can change We have free will and free choice Science Education for Sustainable Development in Asia Hiroki Fujii,Sun-Kyung Lee,2024-04-02 This
