Education Vol Ix Ends And Means:

Educational Judgments (International Library of the Philosophy of Education Volume 9) F. Doyle James, 2010-02-25 The topics covered in this volume originally published in 1973 include the need for a more adequate concept or definition of education the issue of whether indoctrination is compatible with education particularly with moral education and the processes of judging the merits of different approaches to aesthetic education Two contributors present complementary analyses of the relations between freedom as a characteristic of institutions and the process of learning to be a free man There is discussion of the neglected subject of rights and duties in education with special emphasis on the question of a universal right to education The volume concludes with papers on the relevance of philosophy to the practical judgments of educators and to education as a field of study
