Education For Freedom Blueprint For A Humancentered School:

Education for Freedom Garry Richardson, 1985 New Horizons in Education, 1984 Australian Books National Library of Australia, 1988 Australian Books in Print, 1987 Freedom dreaming futures for Black youth: Exploring meanings of liberation in education and psychology research Seanna Leath, Lauren Mims, Misha Inniss-Thompson, 2023-07-21

Research elucidating the developmental processes in Black children and youths schooling and educative experiences is increasing e.g. Carter Andrews et al 2019 Daneshzadeh Jackson Neal Jackson 2018 Yet the notion of freedom dreaming in relation to Black children and youth has received less attention within the fields of education and psychology We draw from U.S. historian Professor Robin D. G. Kelley's concept of freedom dreaming to illuminate not only what we are fighting against in the education of Black youth e.g. racial bias and discrimination unfair disciplinary practices and criminalization and Black youths overrepresentation in special education and underrepresentation in gifted and talented programs but also what we are fighting for liberatory educational praxis that build on Black youths individual and cultural strengths In the current call freedom dreaming refers to 1 actively uplifting the complex lives and stories of Black children and youth in educational settings 2 elevating Black children and youths intersectional experiences related to ability gender identity sexuality age and socio-economic class and 3 highlighting the innovative work of scholars who understand and value community power in efforts to advance educational change We draw on Dr Bettina Love's 2019 call for educational freedom wherein she states The practice of abolitionist teaching is rooted in the internal desire we all have for freedom joy restorative justice restoring humanity not just rules and to matter to ourselves our community our family and our country with the profound understanding that we must demand the impossible by refusing injustice and the disposability of Black children p. 7

Loewen, Byron D'Andra Orey, Charles Sallis, 2025-08-04 Written by James W. Loewen Charles Sallis Byron D'Andra Orey Jeanne M. Middleton R. Bruce Adams James A. Brown Olivia Jones Love Stephen C. Immer and Maryellen Hains Clampitt Originally published in 1974 Mississippi Conflict and Change was a textbook that explored Mississippi's history from its earliest days to modern times emphasizing social dynamics and key contemporary events especially the civil rights movement and the pursuit of equality The book was innovative for its era offering a nuanced and truthful depiction of Mississippi's past particularly regarding slavery the Civil War Reconstruction and the civil rights era At the time the textbook was deemed radical by some because of its factual recounting of the state's history and inclusion of such historically overlooked groups as African Americans Native Americans and women The book challenged the conventional approach to teaching history in Mississippi and was not approved by the state s textbook review committee Its adoption in the public education system was denied until a well publicized and successful lawsuit was brought against the state by the authors and publisher Mississippi Conflict and Change has been out of print for many years and only available as a collector s item until now This new edition includes an introduction telling the history of the book s publication along with updates throughout the text made by acclaimed author James W Loewen Picking up the reins after Loewen s death in 2021 Byron D Andra Orey provides new text on contemporary politics culture and the economy bringing the history of the state up to date Intended for students as well as general readers Mississippi Conflict and Change A New Edition revives an integral text in Mississippi history
