Pamela Spence Richards, Wayne A. Wiegand, Marija Dalbello, 2015-05-26 A broad comparative history of librarianship this intriguing work goes beyond the standard focus on institutions and collections to help you explore the part modern librarianship played and continues to play in forming Western cultures Previous histories of libraries in the Western world the last of which was published nearly 20 years ago concentrate on libraries and librarians This book takes a different approach It focuses on the practice of librarianship showing you how that practice has contributed to constructing the heritage of cultures To do so this groundbreaking collection of essays presents the history of modern librarianship in the context of recent developments of the library institution professionalization of librarianship and innovation through information technology Organized by region the book addresses the widely recognized international impact of Anglo American librarianship and its continuing influence over the past century combining critical analysis with chronological histories of modern librarianship in Europe North America Australia New Zealand and Africa An introductory chapter explains the origins of the project and a concluding chapter examines the effects of digitization on modern librarianship in the 21st century Conference Proceedings of the International Association of School Librarianship International Association of School Librarianship. Conference, 1989 The Entrepreneurial Librarian Mary Krautter, Mary Beth Lock, Mary G. Scanlon, 2014-01-10 The old image of an entrepreneur as a scrappy independent risk taker has been replaced by the reality of individuals incorporating innovative ideas in more traditional settings This collection of essays illustrates how librarians are infusing entrepreneurial principles in a variety of arenas including public private academic and special libraries It chronicles how entrepreneurial librarians are flourishing in the digital age advocating social change responding to patron demands designing new services and developing exciting fundraising programs Applying new business models to traditional services they eagerly embrace entrepreneurship in response to patrons demands funding declines changing resource formats and other challenges By documenting the current state of entrepreneurship in libraries this volume upends the public image of librarians as ill suited to risky or creative ventures and places them instead on the cutting edge of innovations in the field Libraries, Archives, and Museums in Transition Casper Hvenegaard Rasmussen, Kerstin Rydbeck, Håkon Larsen, 2022-12-15 In this anthology top scholars researching libraries archives and museums LAM issues in Scandinavia explore pressing issues for contemporary LAMs In recent decades relations between libraries archives and museums have changed rapidly collections have been digitized books documents and objects have been mixed in new ways and LAMs have picked up new tasks in response to external changes Libraries now host makerspaces and literary workshops archives fight climate change and support indigenous people and museums are used as instruments for economic growth and urban planning At first glance the described changes may appear as a divergent development where the LAMs are growing apart However this book demonstrates that the present transformation of LAMs is primarily a convergent development Libraries Archives and Museums in Transition will be essential reading for students scholars and practitioners seeking to get
